HALLOWEEN IN JULY? IT MUST BE TIME FOR HALLOWEEN COMIC FEST!!

As many of you may know, I love Halloween! My favorite thing has always been monsters… Godzilla, Frankenstein's Monster, the Gillman, the Mummy, the Tabonga (look it up!), Zombies… basically, if it walks, threatens, and evokes terror in those they encounter, then they're my kind of monsters! And you'll find plenty of these guys and their ilk in this month's PREVIEWS!

This month we reveal our Halloween Comic Fest comics and mini-comics for the first time, showcasing the titles you'll want to pick up at your local comic shop on October 26th, and the mini-comics titles you just might find in your own neighborhood (if you have cool neighbors, natch), or find on you own doorstep, as you hand them out to trick or treaters on Halloween night! Parents aren't always all-in on kids and candy these days, but they shouldn't have to think twice about kids and reading. It's a great combination! You can find them all starting on page 29 of this issue!

And speaking of Halloween, we have plenty of interviews to tie-in with this month's theme, including an exclusive talk with Eddie Campbell, the artist on Alan Moore's From Hell, which is being reissued in a new colorized edition starting this September from IDW/Top Shelf and Knockabout. Read all about the creation of the original series and the new Master Edition starting on page 254!

Elsewhere in this issue, we have six different mini-interviews with Cullen Bunn (Cold Spots, The Sixth Gun), W. Maxwell Prince (Ice Cream Man), Pornsak Pichetshote (Infidel), Sean Lewis (Coyotes), Eriq Esquivel (Fantasmagoria), and Eric Powell. You'll find these treats located randomly throughout this issue's Print section!

And speaking of Eric Powell, the creator of The Goon, Hillbilly, and Spookhouse has agreed to design this year's Halloween Comic Fest t-shirt! It's creepy and cute, all at the same time, and I know you're going to want to wear this one all year round—it's that cool! You can find it — along with other HCF18 promotional items — on page 39 of this issue!

Thanks for picking up this issue, of PREVIEWS. And don't forget that you can download a digital copy of this catalog (along with DC Previews, Marvel Previews, and Image+) with the special code included in every issue on the Consumer Order Form insert, located between pages 16 and 17. Just follow the directions and soon you'll be reading PREVIEWS on your phone, tablet or PC! Ain't technology grand!

See you at Comic Con, folks!

Marty

Making their own damn movies!
THE ORIGINAL ALL TIME GREAT
ADULTS ONLY
STRONG UNCUT VERSION

ULTRA SPECIAL EDITION! FEATURING AN ALL-NEW COVER, EXCLUSIVE TOXIC AVENGER VIRGIN POSTER, AND THE FAN ART OF TROMA BOOKLET!

For FORTY YEARS, Troma Studios has blazed its own bloody, repulsive, slime-covered trail, making exploitation movies their own damn way! From The Toxic Avenger to The Class Of Nuke 'Em High to Poultrygeist to Tromeo And Juliet, Lloyd Kaufman has never compromised, waving his revolting independent spirit freak flag fly and helped jumpstart the careers of luminaries such as James Gunn, Trey Parker, Eli Roth, Oliver Stone, Kevin Costner and countless others! How you might ask, did a couple of rebels with almost no cash manage to make a library of a THOUSAND films? Buy this abhorrent collection to find out, featuring never-before-seen film stills, rare posters, candid interviews, and buckets and buckets and BUCKETS of fake blood!

NICE STUFF PEOPLE SAID

"[illegible]"
- STAN LEE, CO-CREATOR OF SPIDER-MAN

"If life gives you lemons, make lemonade. If life gives you assholes, make a Troma movie."
- JAMES GUNN, WRITER/DIRECTOR OF GUARDIANS OF THE GALAXY

"Nobody knows how to make films and not make any money doing it better than Lloyd Kaufman."
- TREY PARKER, CO-CREATOR OF SOUTH PARK

STRONG UNCUT VERSION FOR ADULTS ONLY 18

WARNING
This book contains SO MUCH of the following: Blood, gore, guts, bile, pus, boogers, nudity, murder, mayhem, carnage, slaughter, butchery, hatred, thrills, spills, chills, kills, utter disaster, hacking of limbs, wanton destruction, general repugnance, and fine art. Parental discretion is not advised, because your parents would NEVER allow you to purchase this book. Buy it, hide it, make sure they don't find it.

Frazetta's "Death Dealer 6" Achieves Record $1.79 Million in Heritage Auction

During their recent comics and original art auction, Heritage Auctions sold Frank Frazetta's Death Dealer 6 original art for an astounding $1.79 million. The art, which was first published as the cover for Verotik's 1996 Death Dealer #2 comic, more than doubled the auction record for a piece of comic art.

In addition to this record, Heritage's auction of vintage comic books and original comic art soared to $12,201,974, achieving a world record for most valuable sale of this kind. The sale surpassed the previous record by over $1.8 million, a record set by Heritage in July 2012 with a sale of $10,389,821.

ComicLink Sells CBCS 8.5 Fantastic Four #1 for Record $121,259

In May, a copy of Fantastic Four #1 CBCS 8.5, which ushered in the Marvel era and introduced the superhero team, sold for $121,259 in the comic book session of ComicLink's most recent Featured Auction.

The same auction also boasted sales of Fantastic Four #48 CGC 9.6 (with the first appearance of Silver Surfer and a Galactus cameo) for $10,080 and #49 CGC 9.4 CVA Exceptional (containing the first full appearance of Galactus and first cover appearance of both) for $7,277.

Price Guide

The 48th edition of The Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide will be available in comic book shops on July 18. Along with updated pricing, new market reports, and character anniversaries, this edition includes a look at the 80th anniversary of Action Comics #1 by former DC Comics President and Publisher Paul Levitz, a 50th anniversary study of Planet of the Apes' comic history by Terry Hoknes, and a look at Marvel's critical 1968 expansion by the Hero Initiative's Charlie Novinskie.

The new price guide displays a Flash and Green Lantern cover by Ethan Van Sciver and Planet of the Apes 50th anniversary by Ryan Sook. The Hall of Fame limited edition features an American Flagg! cover by creator Howard Chaykin, The Big, Big edition of the price guide has a Buffy the Vampire Slayer cover by Georges Jeanty, and the Hero Initiative limited edition depicts a Thanos cover by Joe Jusko.

ADAM GREEN

EDGE ESSENTIALS

Pick-up these books to learn more about Adam Green's Indie Edge style.

- Holliston: Friendship is Tragic TP (MAR181907)
- Adam Green's Hatchet Volume 1 TP (JUN181379)
- Adam Green's Hatchet: Vengeance #1 (See Page 286!)

Please tell us a bit about yourself!

I'm a writer and director of feature films and television series. I've made 10 films including the four Hatchet films in the franchise so far, the snowy suspense/thriller Frozen, and the genre-bending documentary-style creature feature, Digging Up the Marrow. My FEARnet sitcom, Holliston, has had two seasons so far, with a third season in the works.

What are your favorite projects you've contributed to over the past decade?

In addition to my various film and television projects I've also made about 100 short films and episodes of original web series with my production company, ArieScope Pictures, since we started 20 years ago. Over the past decade my favorite side projects have been my weekly podcast, The Movie Crypt, and my web series Scary Sleepover, where various celebrity artists join me for a childlike slumber party at my studio. I've done two seasons (29 episodes total) of Scary Sleepover so far, and filming each episode has been an absolute blast!

What are you currently working on?

I'm currently working on a new Young Adult television series that I created and sold to Universal/SyFy this past year. While it's still too early in the process to reveal any details about the SyFy series, fans of my sitcom Holliston will be happy to know that I am planning to get started on the third season once the cast's schedules can line up again. From the death of main cast member Dave Brockie ("Oderus Urungus" from the band GWAR) to our home network (FEARnet) being dissolved in a merger between Time Warner Cable and Comcast over the past few years, HOLLISTON has been through the kind of tragedies that would end most shows — but we're going to keep going! Given the success of Victor Crowley (the fourth Hatchet film from earlier this year) it is inevitable that another Hatchet film will get under way once I am ready, but I've always taken a few years off between Hatchet sequels so that I can focus on my many other projects.

What fun titles are you reading?

Black Mask's The Wilds (#1 2nd Ptg./JAN188846) by Vita Ayala and Emily Pearson is an immaculate, character-driven post-cataclysm tale, told by two of the best in comics right now.

Aftershock's Cold War by Chris Sebela and Hayden Sherman is post-modern science fiction with a style all of its own.

Image Comics' Ice Cream Man (V1: Rainbow Sprinkles/APR180546) by W. Maxwell Prince, Martin Morazzo, and Chris O'Halloran is an episodic sci-fi absurdity with as much heart as intensity.

USER'S GUIDE

There's a lot of awesome comics and products to look through in PREVIEWS. "A lot" might be a bit of an understatement, as each month's catalog is filled with hundreds and hundreds of pages of upcoming comics and related merchandise! It can be easy to accidentally overlook a new series you've been dying to read or a figure you've been pining to add to your shelf when there's so many things to browse. That's why we've put together this guide to help you learn how to use PREVIEWS like a pro to order the awesome titles and products you want!

WHAT EXACTLY IS PREVIEWS?

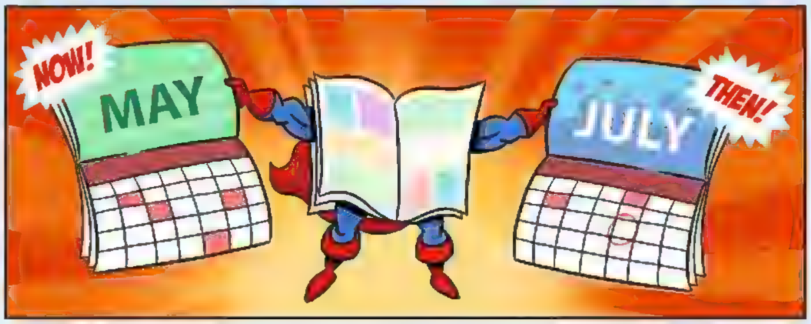
PREVIEWS is part catalog, part magazine (we call it a Mag-a-log!) of monthly listings of all of the upcoming comic titles and related products from your favorite publishers and manufacturers in one convenient place. And don't worry—PREVIEWS is organized by publisher and product type (and color-coded to boot!), to make it easy to find and flip to the section or items you're looking for. Each item listing has the information you need, such as format, size, page count, price, release date, stock or item code, and descriptive text, and nearly every listing is accompanied by artwork or images.



NOW!
MAY
THEN!

The most important aspect of PREVIEWS to remember is that items solicited in the catalog are anticipated to ship 2-3 months later (or more). For example, if you found a comic you wanted in the May issue of PREVIEWS, you can expect to see it turn up in your local comic shop in July. The catalog can be a great resource for figuring out where your favorite comic series is going, or for discovering new ones that you'll want to add to your library—not to mention all the other awesome products!

HOW DO I ORDER FROM PREVIEWS?

When you've picked out all of the items you want, you can fill out the Short Order Form included in your copy of PREVIEWS and submit it to your local comic shop. You can also ask your friendly neighborhood retailer about obtaining a Customer Order Form, a booklet that contains a complete listing of all the items made available for that month. These forms make pre-ordering your comics and products a breeze and can help your local comic shop decide what to stock in the store for other customers, too! Be sure to also ask your retailer about their pullbox or subscription service. Once you've submitted your order, you can sit back and relax, or try to contain your excitement until your comics and merchandise arrive!

PREVIEWS LEGEND

Throughout this issue of PREVIEWS, you'll find a variety of symbols and terms that will help you in selecting items from this catalog. Here's what they mean:

Gems of the Month

The top offerings, as chosen by our Premier Publishers—these are the best bets in comics whether it's the next high-profile project or a new ongoing series.

Featured Items

In other sections, you'll find Featured Items, the top monthly products offered in their categories.

Spotlight On

These items are not to be missed; highlighted to get your attention.

PREVIEWS Exclusive

These are items available only through PREVIEWS ! When you see this icon, you'll know you're ordering a limited item found nowhere else!

Featured Theme

Each month, PREVIEWS features a different theme to highlight certain titles and products. Look for that month's themed icon to find these selected items.

Certified Cool

Are you looking for the next title that pushes the envelope? Then try out one of our Certified Cool titles; books specially earmarked for readers who are looking for something a little different.

Staff Pick

This icon denotes items that have been reviewed by our staff and are worthy of a second look!

Indie Edge

The cutting edge of independent comics and creators, look for this icon on selected titles throughout the Comics & Graphic Novels section.

Essential Item

These are best-selling backlist items that are available for immediate order from your local comic shop. If your shop doesn't have a copy in store, they can order one for you and have in less than a week!

Offered Again (O/A)

These items have been previously offered before in PREVIEWS and are being made available again.

PI or Please Inquire

Your store will set the price for all "Please Inquire" items — check with your retailer for the price on these items.

MSRP or SRP

Manufacturer's/Suggested Retail Price. These designations provide suggested pricing information for a majority of items not carrying a retail price. Actual prices may vary depending upon market conditions. Please check with your retailer.

Caution (CAUT: #-#-#)

Cautions listed at the end of catalog descriptions indicate an item that may ship late or otherwise diverge from its PREVIEWS description. These codes are separated into three categories:

International Rights (I-Rights) — the item is restricted into what countries it can be sold.
0 = No International Rights restriction;
1 = International Rights are restricted.
Content Changes — the content may change after solicitation.
0 = No Content disclaimer;
1 = Content disclaimer enforced.

Ship Date Changes — the final shipping date may differ or change from the scheduled ship date.
0 = Item is expected to ship within 30 days of the EST SHIP DATE.
1 = Item is expected to ship within 60 days of the EST SHIP DATE.
2 = Item is expected to ship within 90 days of the EST SHIP DATE.

PREVIEWS Abbreviations

SC = Softcover, HC = Hardcover, TP = Trade Paperback, MMPB = Mass Market Paperback, FC = Full-Color, b&w= Black & White; PC = Partial Color

A Note to Toy Collectors:

Your retailer cannot guarantee receiving specific items — such as action figures — when they must be ordered in case or "assortment" quantities. Please be aware of this when ordering action figures and other items designated as cases or assortments.

IT WILL TAKE A SPECIAL TEAM OF ASGARDIANS TO SAVE THE GALAXY FROM AN ASGARDIAN WEAPON

Deadpool's Cullen Bunn and Matteo Lolli reteam for a new Marvel space opera epic!

Armed with an Asgardian weapon and determined to rule the galaxy, Nebula must be stopped at all costs, and that will take a team with specialized skills that span the Nine Realms in Cullen Bunn and Matteo Lolli's new Marvel Comics series, Asgardians of the Galaxy!

Thor isn't the only Asgardian who can save the galaxy, and this mission to stop Nebula will bring together an unexpected team — Angela, Thor's estranged sister; Kevin Masterson, the son of former Thor Eric Masterson and the current wielder of the Thunderstrike hammer; Throg, the Central Park frog who wields a sliver of Mjolnir; Skurge the Executioner, the legendary warrior of Gjallarbrú and recently freed from Hel; Valkyrie, the Asgardian warrior bonded to archaeologist Annabelle Riggs; and The Destroyer, the powerful and enchanted armor forged by Odin for his ancient war against the Celestials. This team might be able to save the galaxy and have epic tales told about their quest in mead halls for millennia to come... if only they can stop squabbling amongst themselves and get on with the business at hand!

Deadpool collaborators Cullen Bunn and Matteo Lolli team once more, this time for an epic space opera set in the world of Thor. Spinning out of events in Infinity Wars, Asgardians of the Galaxy will bring together fan-favorite characters along with some unexpected faces for an adventure befitting the gods of Asgard. If you loved Solo: A Star Wars Story and Joss Whedon's cult television series Firefly, this is the Marvel space opera you've been waiting for!

Gather 'round, friends, and lift a flagon of mead, for this September Thor's friends, allies, and enemies band together in common cause for an epic cosmic adventure in Bunn and Lolli's Asgardians of the Galaxy, coming your way from Marvel Comics!

BOLDLY GO WHERE NO TRANSFORMERS HAVE GONE BEFORE

Captain Kirk and the crew of the starship Enterprise and their mission to explore strange new worlds takes them to the strangest world yet — Cybertron, home of the Transformers — in IDW Publishing's new crossover event, Star Trek Vs. Transformers!

Nothing in the Federation's experience has prepared Kirk, Spock, and the crew for the experience of vehicles that are more than meets the eye, vehicles that transform into giant robots! Can Kirk end the millennia-long war between the Autobots and the Decepticons, or will the Enterprise be caught in the crossfire?

Written by Transformers scribe John Barber and Star Trek writer Mike Johnson, Star Trek vs. Transformers features the Enterprise crew as seen Star Trek: The Animated Series, featuring Lieutenant M'Ress, a felinoid Caitian, and Arex, a three-armed alien, and it's all drawn in the style of the 1970s animated Star Trek!

The Transformers certainly count as "strange new life forms," but will Captain Kirk survive the experience? Find out in Star Trek Vs. Transformers this September!

NETFLIX'S STRANGER THINGS COMES TO COMICS IN A DARK HORSE SERIES

On July 16, 2016, Netflix released a new television series, Stranger Things, created by the Duffer Brothers. Partly a nostalgic look back at small town America in the early 1980s, part coming-of-age story, part science-fiction, part horror, Stranger Things quickly became one of the most talked about television series in recent memory. This September, Dark Horse Comics brings the smash hit to comics with their new Stranger Things series!

Focusing on Will Byers and his journey through the Upside Down, a hellish dimension beyond ours haunted by unspeakable horrors like the Demogorgon, writer Jody Houser (Faith, Orphan Black) and artist Stefano Martino (Angel, Doctor Who) tell a side-story to the first season of Stranger Things that reveals backstory and secrets that will enrich the viewing experience and add depth to the characters.

Essential reading for every Stranger Things fan, look for the first issue of Dark Horse Comics' series the last week of September!

A BULLY BECOMES THE BULLIED IN SKOTTIE YOUNG AND AARON CONLEY'S BULLY WARS

Rufus had it made. He was the bully of his elementary school. Kids on the schoolyard feared him. They cringed as his shadow passed. He ruled the school. But high school is a different place, and his reputation as a schoolyard bully means nothing here. The bully has become the bullied... but there may just be a way for Rufus to turn the tables on his tormenters in Skottie Young and Aaron Conley's new series for Image Comics, Bully Wars!

To do so, Rufus will have to make an alliance with three kids he bullied mercilessly – Spencer and the twins, Edith and Ernie. Together, they might just be able to make a name for themselves and win the Bully Wars, a take-no-prisoners bullying competition that leaves the winner as the ruler of the school!

Bully Wars is all-ages mayhem in the mold of Diary of a Wimpy Kid, and it's exactly the sort of thing that would emerge from Skottie Young, the writer of I Hate Fairyland, and Aaron Conley, the artist of Rocket Raccoon & Groot. Prepare yourself for the Bully Wars, coming from Image Comics this September!

DISCOVER JAMES BOND BEFORE THE LICENCE TO KILL

Who is James Bond? What forces shaped Her Majesty's Secret Servant into the man who would hold a licence to kill? When readers met James Bond in Ian Fleming's Casino Royale, Bond was already a veteran agent in his mid-thirties, contemplating retirement. This autumn Dynamite Entertainment takes Bond fans back in time to the Second World War, to Bond's earliest adventures in the Royal Navy in James Bond Origin!

Orphaned when his parents died in a skiing accident, James Bond is a student at a boarding school in Scotland. With the United Kingdom standing alone against the might of Nazi Germany in early 1941 and the bombers of the Luftwaffe raining terror from the skies during the Blitz, Bond, like many young Britons, makes a fateful decision that will reverberate through the history of international spycraft!

Written by Jeff Parker and illustrated by Bob Q, Dynamite Entertainment's James Bond Origin is the definitive origin story of James Bond, 007!

THIS TIME WE ARE ALL IN THE FRONT LINE

IN THE AFTERMATH OF A CATACLYSM, FIVE TEENAGERS FACE THE LOW ROAD WEST

After the east coast of the United States is destroyed in a nuclear exchange, children are being evacuated west, away from the uninhabitable ruins back east. For five teenagers, their journey west to safety and new lives ends unexpectedly in rural Oklahoma in Phillip Kennedy Johnson and Flaviano's new book from BOOM! Studios, Low Road West!

The choices they face are stark. A "dust bowl" like the 1930s has kicked up and chokes the air, thanks to the debris and ash thrown into the atmosphere after the nuclear explosions. Civilization is already teetering on the edge. To survive, these five teenagers, brought together by circumstances they would not have chosen and could never have contemplated, must find a way to trust one another in a place where trust comes hard and potential dangers lurk in the dust.

A powerful story of the human spirit in the face of overwhelming adversity, Johnson and Flaviano's Low Road West launches from BOOM! Studios this September!

ARCHIE 1941 TAKES READERS BACK TO THE HOMEFRONT IN WORLD WAR II

In the spring and summer of 1941 war engulfed Europe. France had fallen to Nazi Germany, England endured nightly bombing raids. The Soviet Union was under attack as the Wehrmacht drove ever eastward toward Moscow. The United States was not involved, but the clouds of war were gathering. Mark Waid, Brian Augustyn, and Peter Krause take readers back to the summer of 1941 and explore how life changed that year in their new series from Archie Comics, Archie 1941.

Taking a realistic view of the era, Waid, Augustyn, and Krause show how Archie Andrews, Jughead Jones, Betty Cooper, Vernoica Lodge, and their friends coped in the waning years of the Great Depression, reacted to the news of the Pearl Harbor attack on December 7th, and heard the call to enlist to save the world from the Axis Powers. The result is a unique look at a pivotal moment in American history, as seen through the eyes of some of the most famous characters in pop culture. Look for Archie 1941 this September!

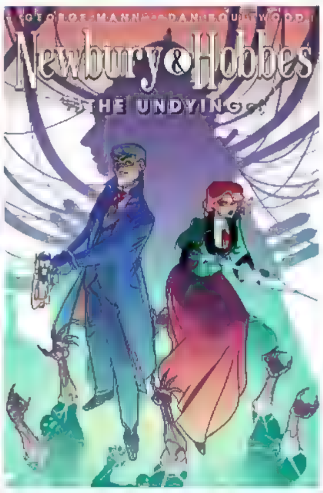
TITAN COMICS

Ahead of their sixth novel adventure, NEWBURY & HOBBES join TITAN!

FEATURED ITEM

This month sees Titan Comics launch Newbury & Hobbes #1, the Diamond debut of a dynamic detective duo from darkest Victoriana!

We sat down with George Mann, writer of both the hit novels and the new comics series, to discover how he's tightening the gears on a series that will tickle the top hat of devoted fans and newcomers alike.



GEORGE MANN - CREATOR & WRITER
DAN BOULTWOOD - ARTIST

Tell me about this dynamic duo! Why do your readers love them?

George The Newbury & Hobbes tales take place in a world where Queen Victoria didn't die in 1902, but instead was installed in a 'life-support' throne, allowing her to maintain an iron grip on her Empire.

Sir Maurice Newbury is an agent of the Queen, charged with protecting the realm against incursions both corporeal and supernatural. Newbury has a dark side, though. He's an opium addict, and takes a little too much interest in the occult.

Miss Veronica Hobbes is ostensibly Newbury's assistant, but is herself an agent of the Queen, tasked with keeping a watchful eye on him. She has a sister, Amelia, who suffers from clairvoyant seizures, and has been locked away in an asylum.

During the course of the novels they do battle with terror birds and rogue automata, become entangled in an airship crash, uncover a plot against the Queen, are stalked by assassins with clockwork hearts, and recover relics from devil-worshipping cults!

In the new comic series, The Undying, they're facing the return of a villain they thought to be dead, as well as uncovering a horrific eugenics program and the creatures that escaped into London's sewers.

I think people keep reading these stories because of the characters. There's a certain attraction to a flawed character like Newbury, and a woman like Veronica, who's clever, capable, and decisive in a time that didn't appreciate such qualities.

Why steampunk? Why use new heroes instead of, say, Sherlock?

George I didn't set out to write steampunk, just something fun that drew on all of the things I loved – Hammer Horror, Sherlock Holmes, Doctor Who, Steed & Peel, Quatermass... that's where N&H came from. The result was more of a Victorian fantasy, with a host of weird mythological stuff.

There's nothing more liberating than creating your own characters, telling the stories you want to tell. I love the challenge of writing for a character such as the Doctor, finding new, exciting stories to tell – but I've created characters and stories of my own ever since I was a child.

You've written both novels and comics; what are the differences?

George I love both, but they're very different disciplines. Writing comics taught me a lot about the economy of telling a story – how to boil it down to its essential components, to get right to the nub. In a 22-page comic book, every panel counts.

The biggest difference for me is how you address action. In a novel you show every punch, but in a comic you tend to show the results, rather than the action itself. The action happens between panels It's about allowing the art to tell the story.

It's important to play to the strengths of the medium. When I sit down to write a comic script I'm always thinking about how I can utilize the page, how I can work with the artist to create something that could only exist as a comic book.

How did you gel with Titan's own Dan Boultwood?

George Novels tend to be personal, introverted projects, while comics are by nature collaborative. When you write a comic script you're writing for the artist, who adds something of themselves to it. The result is usually far greater than what I could have imagined alone.

This was my first project with Dan, and hopefully not the last. He seemed to just 'get' N&H from the off; the wry humor, the sense of adventure, leavened with grim, gothic horror. And he's a funny guy, too. The sort of person you want to drink gin with, before setting out to solve dastardly crimes.

These characters and their environments have lived in my head for so long that I was worried no one would be able to get it right...and yet when Dan delivered those first few pages, I realized he nailed it.

A graphic novel seemed a natural step for N&H. I've been a comic book reader most of my life, and for the last few years I've busily worked on comic scripts for Doctor Who, Warhammer 40,000, Dark Souls, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles and others. I've loved every minute of it.

Newbury & Hobbes were my first creations – I've been writing them for 10 years. So when the opportunity arose to tell a new story in comic format, it felt like a dream gig, and hopefully an opportunity to introduce them to a new audience.

• Full interview on previewsworld.com, including hints for the next N&H book!

My Heroes Have Always Been Junkies
Ed Brubaker
Sean Phillips

Teenage Ellie has always had romantic ideas about drug addicts. The tragic, artistic souls drawn to needles and pills have been an obsession since the death of her junkie mother ten years ago. But when Ellie lands in an upscale rehab clinic where nothing is what it appears to be, she'll find another, more dangerous romance... and find out how easily drugs and murder go hand-in-hand.

MY HEROES HAVE ALWAYS BEEN JUNKIES is a seductive coming-of-age story, a pop and drug culture-fueled tale of a young girl seeking darkness—and what she finds there. This gorgeous, must-have hardback is the first original graphic novel from ED BRUBAKER and SEAN PHILLIPS, the bestselling creators of CRIMINAL, KILL OR BE KILLED, THE FADE OUT, FATALE, and INCOGNITO.

2024: the world has been mass-doxxed, and the internet is only for porn. Every email, photo, and document ever sent rains down out of the cloud, and only a fool would send a secret over the web.

This is the era of the "Paper Jockeys": armed couriers with a briefcase of secrets who'll get your sensitive information around the globe or die trying. Human punching bag Jack McGinnis and his partner Oona are two of the best couriers in the business. For a price, they'll move your sensitive information where it needs to go as they fight off fascists, criminals, and spies.

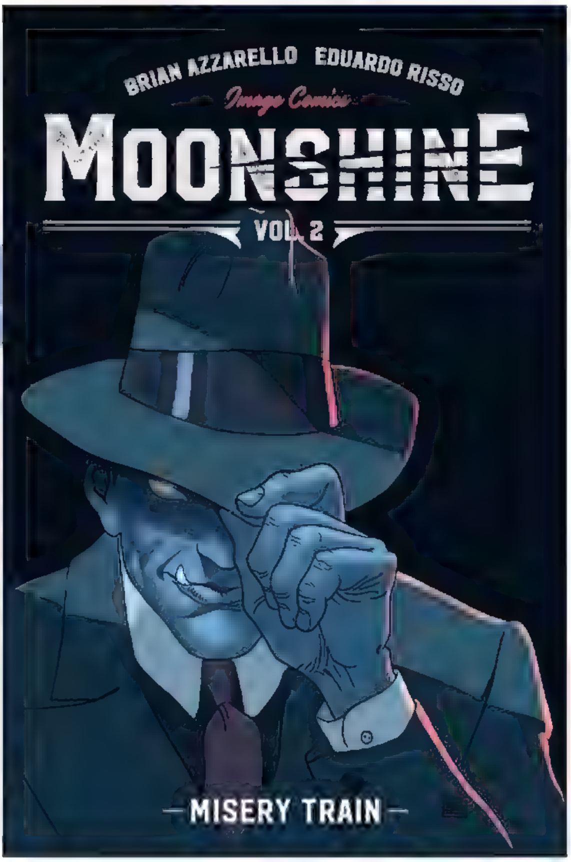
ADVANCE SOLICIT ● SUPERNATURAL, CRIME & MYSTERY



"Torpedo" Lou Pirlo thought his troubles might be over when he and his new girl, Delia, hopped a boxcar headed to New Orleans—as far and fast as they could get away from the hillbillies in Appalachia and the Mafia killers in New York City. But trouble has a habit of sticking to Lou... and trouble ain't all that's stuck to Lou. See, Lou got bit by a werewolf, and now the most deadly monster hunter on Earth will stop at nothing to put this dog down.

HC, 7" x 10"

Dancer. Courtesan. Spy. Executed by a French firing squad in 1917. One hundred years on from her death, questions are still raised about her conviction.

Now, the story of the woman who claimed she was born a princess and died a figure of public hatred is told by break-out talent writer Emma Beeby (Judge Dredd), artist Ariela Kristantina (Insexts), and colorist Pat Masioni, drawing on biographies and released MI5 files.

We meet Mata Hari in prison at the end of her life as she writes her memoir—part romantic tale of a Javanese princess, and part real-life saga of a disgraced wife and mother. As she sits trial for treason and espionage, we hear another tale of a flamboyant Dutch woman who became "the most dangerous spy France has ever captured"—a double agent who whored herself for secrets, lived a life of scandal, and loved only money.

Leading us to ask . . . who was the real Mata Hari?

This hardcover collects Mata Hari #1–#5, as well as additional historical material and an artist's sketchbook.

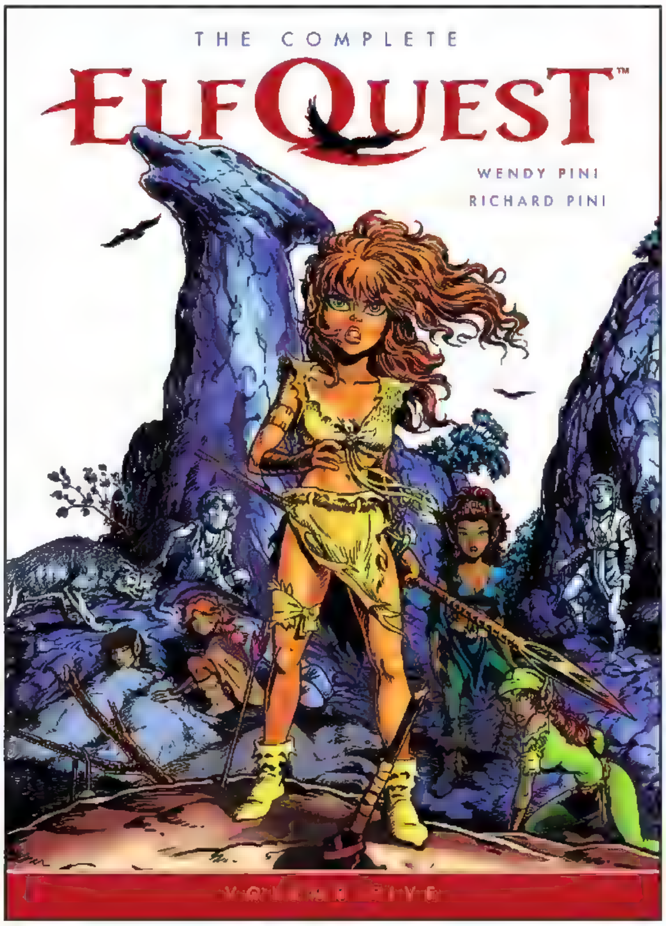
VOLUME 5 TPB

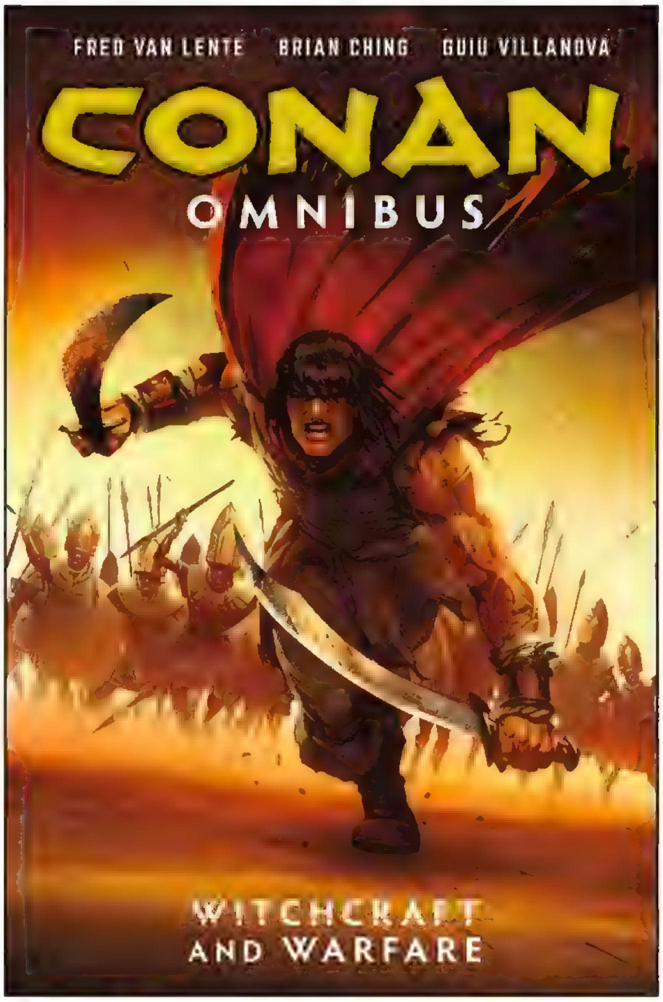
Wendy Pini (W/A) and Richard Pini (W)

On sale Nov 14	b&w, 760 pages
$24.99	TPB, 7" x 9 3/4"

The latest collection of the classic fantasy series by Wendy and Richard Pini continues the canonical adventures of the Wolfriders. With Cutter leading his warriors against the human warlord Grohmul Djun, his chief-daughter Ember takes her tribemates far away into unknown lands, where she pits her skills and courage against new threats and unexpected revelations.

This fifth volume of the New York Times best-selling series weighs in at a hefty 760 pages. It collects material from Elfquest: Hidden Years #16–29, as well as the entire "Wild Hunt" sequence from Elfquest comics (Volume 2). A stunning collection of art and story from Wendy and Richard Pini and others.





CONAN OMNIBUS VOLUME 7: WITCHCRAFT AND WARFARE

TRANSFORMERS: BUMBLEBEE MOVIE PREQUEL: FROM CYBERTRON WITH LOVE

writer John Barber artist Andrew Griffith
cover Sara Pitre-Durocher

Fan-favorite Autobot Bumblebee is recruited for a top secret mission, and 1960s London won't know what hit it when this robot in disguise goes undercover. It's high-tech, high-octane, high-clearance spy hijinks in... From Cybertron with Love.

Some call him Goldfender, but the name's Bee... Bumblebee. On loan to MI6 and teamed with a human partner, Bee's trapped in the middle of a Cold War plot to disrupt British Secret Intelligence. But when their base is destroyed from within, it's up to Bee to discover if there's a traitor in their midst... and, in the spy world, allegiances can change just as easily as a Cybertronian. Collects issues #1-4!

BATMAN/THE MAXX #1

writers John Layman & Sam Kieth artist Sam Kieth
cover Sam Kieth (A/B)
Blank Cover (RI-A)
Jim Lee (RI-B)

Batman must face the strangest and most bizarre adventure of his career, as he meets comics' strangest and most bizarre hero… THE MAXX! IDW and DC Comics proudly present the most surreal, quirky, and wonderful crossover of all time!

A devious new doctor at Arkham Asylum is conducting unconventional experiments into the human psyche, and he kicks off a chain reaction of disaster when he experiments on Arkham's newest patient, The Maxx! The city of Gotham is starting to merge with The Maxx's psychedelic mental landscape, known as the Outback, blurring the line between real and unreal. It's up to Batman to save not just Gotham, but all of reality, and he and The Maxx are going to have to travel through some of the darkest places imaginable—the twisted minds of Batman's greatest enemies!

Join Batman and The Maxx on an off-kilter and unforgettable romp through the diabolical consciousnesses of Batman's greatest foes. Legendary artist Sam Kieth (The Sandman, Wolverine) returns to his greatest creation, The Maxx, and returns to Gotham as well, assisted by multi-Eisner Award-winning writer John Layman (Detective, Chew).

BATMAN: THE COMPLETE SILVER AGE NEWSPAPER COMICS SLIPCASE SET

writer Whitney Ellsworth

artist Sheldon Moldoff, Joe Giella, Carmine Infantino, Al Plastino

cover Pete Poplaski

A three-volume omnibus of the Caped Crusader's 1960s newspaper strip adventures—never before collected—now in a premium slipcase suitable for stately Wayne Manor. The daily Batman newspaper strip began in 1966, on the heels of the Batmania craze created by the hit television series starring Adam West, and ran through the early 1970s. The strip boasted stories by longtime editor Whitney Ellsworth and art by DC stalwarts Sheldon Moldoff, Joe Giella, and Carmine Infantino. This three-book set includes all the black-and-white dailies, plus all the color Sunday strips.

KING OF THE COMICS: ONE HUNDRED YEARS OF KING FEATURES SYNDICATE

writer Dean Mullaney, Bruce Canwell, Brian Walker

artist/cover Various

King Features has had a more illustrious and long-lasting history than any other newspaper syndicate, even as it leads the way into the digital age and beyond.

Krazy Kat! Popeye! Flash Gordon! Beetle Bailey! Blondie! Prince Valiant! Hagar the Horrible! Barney Google and Snuffy Smith! Baby Blues! Mutt & Jeff! Zits! Juliet Jones! Buz Sawyer! Steve Canyon! Bizarro! Hi & Lois! Maggie & Jiggs! Johnny Hazard! There are simply too many to list!

From the earliest days, when William Randolph Hearst first added cartoons to his newspapers, comic strips have had a profound impact on popular culture. With the consolidation of Hearst's various distribution channels in November 1915, King Features was born. A century later, the world's largest syndicate leads the way into the 21st century and beyond.

THE "DOCTOR"
DAILIES AND COLOR SUNDAYS 1950-1951
EDITED BY DEAN MULLANEY
WITH A BIOGRAPHICAL ESSAY BY JEET HEER
America's Spunkiest Kid in the Town Called Fiasco!

writer/artist/cover Harold Gray

It's "Open Season for Trouble" as America's spunkiest kid, "Daddy" Warbucks, and his bodyguards Punjab and The Asp battle wily Communist spies, search for a potentially game-changing mineral known as QX-7, contend with small-town cheats, and make a frightful discovery about disappearing patients at a shady rest home. The action ranges from the played-out mining town of Fiasco, where "Daddy" made his first million, to the land of the genii, where Punjab dispatches his enemies. Meanwhile, Annie and Sandy are separated, but their inevitable reunion may be a silver lining inside a very dark cloud! Volume 15 collects the daily strips and the full-color Sunday pages from March 13, 1950 to October 28, 1951.

PUNKS NOT DEAD, VOL. 1: TEENAGE KICKS

writer David Barnett

artist/cover Martin Simmonds

As if being an awkward, bullied 15-year-old wasn't enough, suddenly "Fergie" Ferguson can see ghosts. Well, one ghost specifically... a certain punk rocker named Sid.

Sid's spirit has been trapped in London's Heathrow Airport for 40 years, until the day he meets Fergie. Now Sid's ghost is stuck to Fergie and he has to contend with an unruly ghost sidekick and some weird, uncontrollable new "abilities." How does the father Fergie never knew fit into all this? And why is the Department of Extra-Usual Affairs showing an interest? Never mind the bollocks—all of this plus fish fingers, chunky chips, and endless pints of anarchy in the hit series that collects Punks Not Dead issues #1-6.

JAMES CAMERON'S THE ABYSS ARTISAN EDITION: ADAPTED BY MICHAEL WILLIAM KALUTA

writer Randy Stradley
artist/cover Michael Wm. Kaluta

Now in the one-of-a-kind Artisan Edition format, the comic adaptation of the Academy Award-winning film from the director of Aliens, Avatar, The Terminator, and Titanic.

In 1989, writer Randy Stradley and acclaimed artist M.W. Kaluta released their comic adaptation of James Cameron's Academy Award-winning film The Abyss, the story of the crew of an experimental underwater drilling rig called Deepcore and their dangerous mission to the bottom of the ocean in search of a missing U.S. Navy submarine that would change the world (and their lives) forever. Now, IDW Publishing is proud to bring you The Abyss in our Artisan Edition format, presented with the same exacting quality standards as our award-winning Artist's Edition series, just at a smaller (and more manageable!) size. Nearly every page has been scanned from M.W. Kaluta's incredible original art in full color in order to capture all the nuances that make original art special and unique–blue pencil notations, tape, white-out, and more.

Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: Shadows of the Past is a miniatures combat, scenario-driven campaign game that features story content from the IDW TMNT comic. Taking the role of their favorite Turtle or the ultimate villain Shredder, players battle their way through a series of 60 to 90-minute missions in which they develop their characters' strengths, fighting styles, and equipment along the way to create a lasting story arc. Fan-favorite characters like Casey Jones and Alopex appear throughout the missions as the Turtles call on their closest allies for help in battling their deadliest foes. Designed by premiere game designer Kevin Wilson (Descent, Arkham Horror) and featuring more than 40 sculpted miniatures, 12 unique maps and over 100 cards with all-new original artwork, Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: Shadows of the Past is the definitive gaming experience.

CHAPTER ONE: THE GREATEST DAYS - At last, the definitive account of James Bond's exploits during World War II!
MARCH, 1941: Seventeen-year-old James Bond is a restless student in Scotland, an orphan, eager to strike out and make his mark on the world. But a visit by an old family friend coincides with THE CLYDEBANK BLITZ, the most devastating German attack on Scotland during the War. James will fight through hell to survive, coming out the other side determined to make a difference. He'll find his calling in a new British government service, secret in nature…

The ongoing epic kicks off, by JEFF PARKER (Future Quest, Thunderbolts, Batman '66) and BOB Q (The Green Hornet)!

JEFF PARKER TALKS JAMES BOND ORIGIN

Who is James Bond, at the beginning of this series?

James is a young man at school starting to carve out a life when war touches him, as it did for millions. He's familiar with loss- his parents died in the Alps a few years before, but James is all that's left of them and isn't going to go down without a fight.

How do you and your collaborator Bob Q approach the setting and the context of the series?

Bob and I dig through historical records and ask our learned friends who know some details better. But it's not just war stories, it's James Bond's war stories in particular and we try to see it all through the eyes of a young man who is thrown into the greatest conflict of all time and determined to make a difference. He's not yet the suave secret agent with steel nerves because he's stared down Death so much in his past, this is the journey that makes him that man.

Does James Bond Origin tie directly into the classic Ian Fleming novels?

Yes, and is advised by the Ian Fleming estate. In the books, Fleming later filled in some details of Bond's history, and we navigate by those mileposts.

Your story is set in 1941. Are there plans to follow Bond through to the end of World War II?

There are, we follow through 1945 in Origin. You get to see the early operations that will become MI6, when British Intelligence- like James- also hasn't figured everything out. James' time in the war is dynamic; while he is rising through the ranks in the Navy he also keeps ending up outside the missions, closer to the secret forces that drive the fight. We want to show that he was going to end up in the kind of life he has as an operative no matter what, and his superiors realize the wisdom of harnessing that for Her Majesty's Service.

A celebration of the longest-lasting independent film company that STILL hasn't made a hit!

For over FORTY YEARS, Troma Studios has blazed its own bloody, slime-covered trail, making movies their own damn way! From The Toxic Avenger to The Class Of Nuke 'Em High to Poultrygeist to Tromeo And Juliet, Lloyd Kaufman never compromised, waving his independent freak-flag freely, and helped jumpstart the careers of luminaries such as James Gunn, Trey Parker, Eli Roth, Oliver Stone and countless others! How, you might ask, did a couple of rebels with almost no cash manage to make a library of a THOUSAND films? You'll have to pick up this incredible collection to find out, featuring never-before-seen film stills, rare posters, candid interviews, and buckets and buckets and BUCKETS of fake blood…

LLOYD KAUFFMAN TALKS THE ART OF TROMA

For those that don't know, what is Troma?

Michael Herz and I established in 1974 after meeting at Yale. Troma is the longest-running independent movie studio in history, and it's one of the very few genuine brand names in the industry. World famous for movie classics like Kaufman's "The Toxic Avenger," Trey Parker's "Cannibal, the Musical," "Poultrygeist: Night of the Chicken Dead," "Class of Nuke 'em High," Charles Kaufman's "Mother's Day" and "Tromeo & Juliet," Troma's seminal films are now being remade as big-budget mainstream productions by the likes of Brett Ratner and Steven Pink. Early work of many of today's luminaries can be found in Troma's library of 1000 films, cartoons, TV shows and shorts. Jenna Fischer, Robert De Niro, Dustin Hoffman, Kevin Costner, Fergie, Vincent D'Onofrio, Samuel L. Jackson, James Gunn and Eli Roth are just a few.

Troma movies have not just been influential, but have also been disrupting media for 44 years.

How is it that Troma has remained an independent movie studio for over forty years?

We've prospered for over 40 years because we make movies of the future. An audience may love "Tromeo & Juliet," or they may hate "Return to Return to Nuke 'Em High aka Vol. 2," but they will never forget "Citizen Toxie." All the movies that we have made are fueled by our hearts, our minds, and our souls. And of course we always keep our fans in mind. We know that the main reason Troma has been around for 44 years is that our very loyal and active fans make movies, promote our movies, and help us financially in a world that is run by a small number of mega conglomerates.

We love our fans and they love us.

What makes a great Troma movie poster?

People have to look twice at a Troma poster, unlike any other posters the industry offers. Not only has Troma discovered brilliant new actors and directors, we've also discovered brilliant new artists whose work is more daring and attention getting than the mainstream. A Troma movie poster needs to capture the themes of the movie in one shot.

Unusual titles like "A Nymphoid Barbarian in Dinosaur Hell," "Surf Nazis Must Die" and "Bloodsucking Freaks" add to the uniqueness and originality of Troma. Pair these titles with a just as unique piece of artwork and you have a classic Troma poster.

Is there such thing as "TOO gross" for a Troma film?

Not only are our movies extremely entertaining and have sex and violence that some may consider "too gross," our fans know that every movie we make deals with important political and sociological issues. For instance, "The Toxic Avenger" was about the negative impacts society has made to the environment and "Poultrygeist: Night of the Chicken Dead" was about the rampant toxicity spread by fast food chains.

No. As long as there is artistic expression inside all the slime, blood and various bodily fluids, we're good with it. As Shakespeare said, "To thine own self be true." As long as that maxim exists, there is nothing too gross or controversial for Troma.

Our movies are entertaining and challenging, and we do not compromise. Our fans love that fact.

THE SHADOW: THE DEATH OF MARGO LANE

Signed Limited Edition Hardcover

FC | 144 pages | $49.99 | Teen+ | 9/19

writer: Matt Wagner
artists: Matt Wagner, Brennan Wagner
cover: Matt Wagner, Brennan Wagner

Legendary creator Matt Wagner returns to both write and draw an all-new tale for the first and most famous of all pulp heroes, The Shadow! Following his critically-acclaimed work on The Shadow: Year One and Grendel vs. The Shadow, Wagner once again lends his masterful talents to unveil "what evil lurks in the hearts of men", joined by talented colorist Brennan Wagner.

For years, Margo Lane has served as The Shadow's faithful friend and companion, the closest and most intimate of all his many agents. But when will that proximity to The Shadow's dark and violent world take its ultimate toll on her? And what effect will his lover's loss have on the driven and brooding Master of Darkness? A powerful and resonant tale in the sort of pulse-pounding pulp style that only Matt Wagner could deliver!

The original Battlestar Galactica returns in an all-new, star-spanning adventure, celebrating the 40th anniversary of its original sci-fi TV airing! Overwhelmed by a surprise Cylon assault, the crew of the Battlestar Galactica turns to forbidden temporal weapons as their desperate last resort.

For the Battlestar Galactica and its fleet, which is the greater threat: what lies ahead, or what snaps at their heels? Driven into an uncharted storm zone by the pursuing Cylons, the last survivors of the Twelve Colonies discover a vast, mysterious artifact.

At last, the most shocking event in classic Battlestar Galactica continuity can be told, revealing the fate of the series' most beloved hero! The fleet has been travelling for ten years, and at last the human survivors seem to be leaving the war and the Cylons behind them. But the threats never go away. A voice from the past and a bizarre twist of fate leads Galactica into danger once again, and events will take place that will change everything, forever.

Welcome to the spine-tingling world of ReAnimator: a table top game of horror and mad science. You and your friends take on the role of assistants to the mad genius Herbert West. Travelling around the ill-begotten town of Arkham, Massachusetts, you will gather musty Tomes, mysterious Ingredients, and even Cadavers of the recently deceased for your dark work.

Up to four players will work together taking on the role of the narrator from Lovecraft's original story in order to perfect the protagonist's experimental reanimation formula. Classic characters including Herbert West, the City Watch, and the Undead wander through Arkham to help or hinder the players as they undertake their profane task. Subplots will develop through gameplay, forcing players to respond to new adventures and challenges only the world of the ReAnimator can provide! An incredible 3-D playset that makes up the cursed town of Arkham will be the site of your greatest triumph or where you slip slowly into madness!

Eisner Award-nominated writer Phillip Kennedy Johnson (The Power of the Dark Crystal, Aquaman) and artist Flaviano (America, Grayson) present a new limited series.

In the aftermath of a nuclear first strike that has left the East Coast uninhabitable, five teenagers are being sent west, away from the wreckage that was once their home.

Halfway through the Oklahoma Dust Bowl, the shuttle that promised safety has broken down, stranding them in the middle of nowhere with only one another to count on.

Their only hope seems to be a town just on the edge of the horizon, but the closer they get the stranger things become. If they want to survive, they will have to learn to trust one another—and with society crumbling around them, trust does not come easily.

Writer Jackie Ball (Goldie Vance) and artist Maddi Gonzalez (Elements) present a coming of age story where fairytales aren't exactly a dream come true.

Bellamy Morris knows everything there is to know about Wanderland Park. She knows when all the most iconic rides were built, all the shortcuts around the park, and all the secret lore behind Old West Town, Space Age Metropolis and New Princesston.

So when she winds up in the REAL version of Wanderland, with real princesses and adorable talking woodland creatures, Bellamy is sure that she has GOT this.

That is, until it starts to become clear that this magical land isn't much like the real world park at all, and the characters she thinks she knows aren't at all like she'd imagined.

NOV. 14	144 Pages	6" x 9"

Andrew Rostan is excellent at remembering facts and recalling the memories he associates with those facts—memories of deaths in the family and extraordinary people. At the age of twenty-two and suddenly a contestant on the very game show he associates with the happiest moments in his life, Rostan's about to realize that existence is like JEOPARDY! and that all the answers are staring you in the face if only you ask the right questions.

Form of a Question is a moving memoir from writer Andrew Rostan (An Elegy for Amelia Johnson), along with artists Kate Kasenow (All Saint's Day) and Jenna Ayoub (Adventure Time Comics), that revisits one of the most formative moments in his life and reveals how a chance opportunity to appear on a game show taught him much more about living than he knew he needed.

It's time to shut up and return to Camp Firewood in the first-ever, all-new original graphic novel for the beloved, cult classic, Wet Hot American Summer. To tell you all about it, here's Camp Director Beth.

"Well guys, we made it through the first week of camp in one piece…mostly. Anyway, so I gave the Camp Firewood counselors the night off to head into town to do whatever it is teenagers do and long story short, it led to a surprise camp inspection! Now we have 24 hours to clean up our act or they're going to shut down Camp Firewood. Luckily, I have the best counselors in the whole wide world...wait, where are those little jerks...in town still?! We are so screwed . . ."

There you go! Join the staff of Camp Firewood in this unforgettable story written by the hilarious, deliciously irreverent Christopher Hastings (Deadpool) and illustrated by artistic dungeon master Noah Hayes (Goldie Vance).

FROM HELL AND BACK: THE EDDIE CAMPBELL INTERVIEW

Thirty years ago, Alan Moore and Eddie Campbell, two of Britain's most revolutionary and unique voices in comics, joined forces for the epic limited series, FROM HELL. Not so much a celebration of the 100th anniversary of the "Ripper" murders in London's Whitechapel district, FROM HELL was better described as a dissection or autopsy of the persons, locations and events that made up the case, as well as the various rumors and legends that emerged over the years since Jack the Ripper disappeared. Over the span of the series' ten issues, Moore and Campbell not only revealed little-known information about the Ripper, London, and British society of the period, but attempted to perhaps reveal a possible identity of the mysterious and brutally talented murderer...

This July, IDW's Top Shelf Publishing (in association with the UK's Knockabout) brings Alan Moore and Eddie Campbell's landmark series back to comic shops with the FROM HELL MASTER EDITION, a newly colorized and updated version of the series featuring newly added coloring, as well as all of the annotations for the collected issues (two per volume). We were lucky enough to speak with Eddie Campbell about the new edition as well as the background on this important and massive undertaking.

PREVIEWS: How did From Hell originally come about? Did Alan Moore approach you, did you approach Alan, did a publisher put you together on the thought that the two of you would work together well?

Eddie Campbell: It was 1988, one hundred years after the infamous Whitechapel murders. It was thirty years ago this year that we started From Hell, and twenty years ago that we finished it in 1998. An invisible curve rising through the centuries. Can history then be said to have an architecture? The notion is most glorious and most horrible. Actually, Alan Moore talked to Steve Bissette about writing a serial about the subject to start in the second issue of Bissette's anthology, Taboo. They started casting around for an artist and I was nearby as I was one of the contributors to the first issue of the same anthology with a peculiar and disturbing little story titled "The Pyjama Girl." I must have seemed an odd choice at the time because horror was not a subject that I had dipped into and "The Pyjama Girl" was almost unclassifiable. But Alan wanted to come at this thing from an unusual angle. Several chapters would appear before anybody except Ripperologists knew it was to be about the Whitechapel murders, or any murders for that matter. It was important to set our events in a world of studied normality.

From Hell.

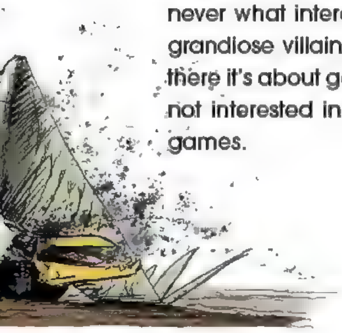
Prologue: the old men on the shore

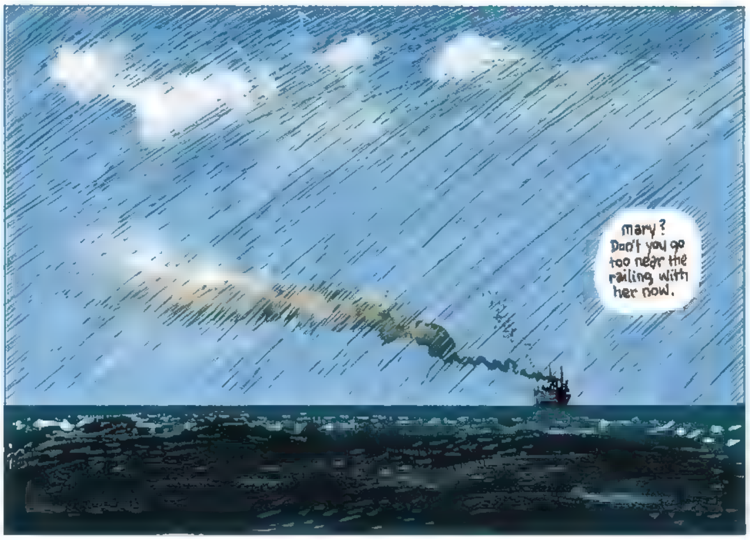
P: From Hell has the story of the Jack the Ripper murders at its core, but it seems to be about something much wider than that, namely, the birth of the modern world. How would you characterize the book, and what did you want readers to take away from it?

EC: Well, when Alan gets going he's like the lava out of that volcano in Hawaii, sweeping up everything in his molten path. Quite early he lays out the architecture of London in a Satanic pattern, but the compelling idea he's getting at is about the architecture of Time, as I hinted above. We come to see that this isn't just a factual retelling of the case, or a forensic investigation in the form of a narrative, though there is the kernel of that in the flesh of the story. There is enough of that to keep the Ripperologists busy, but the real heart of the book is something deeper. The world teetering on the brink of the 20th century, whatever that was and whatever we think made it something to take account of.

P: How versed were you in Ripperology when you began work on From Hell? Did you have a preferred suspect for the killings before working on it?

EC: I had read the paperback book that proposed the conspiracy theory, because a friend had put it in my hand and told me to read it. That was about ten years before From Hell. Conspiracy theories are, by their nature, always great stories and totally convincing. You can have multiple theories, with each one being a certainty, but all of them can't be true at the same time. Jack the Ripper, for some reason, continues to grab the imagination. I have been vaguely aware that a handful of new theories have come along in the last few years since we finished with it. But I have never gotten involved with them enough to want to place a bet on any particular suspect. And I'm certainly not claiming that our book names the man once and for all. That was never what interested us. We introduce our grandiose villain right at the start and from there it's about getting inside his mind. We're not interested in playing whodunnit parlor games.

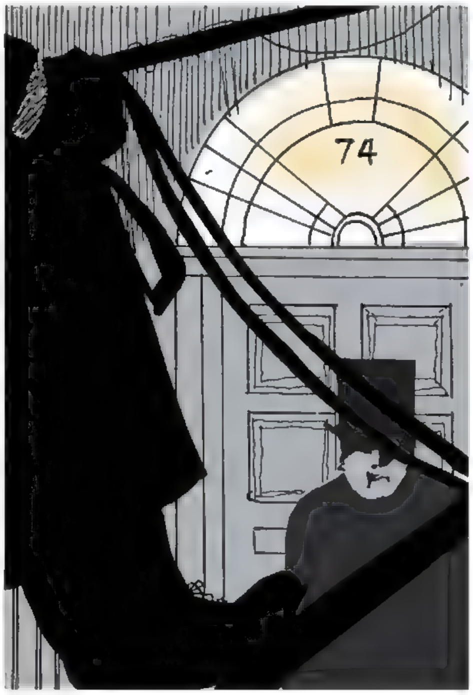




mary? Don't you go too near the railing with her now.

P: How extensive was your research in recreating the Victorian world for From Hell? How much time did you spend poring over books and photographs, perhaps even walking the streets of Whitechapel?

EC: It all seems so long ago now, and it was a lot of hard work. But my theory about setting a book in the past is that the details of gaslamps and top-hats should quickly become familiar and the reader should be like a Victorian, who walks down the street and hardly notices his or her environment just as we take ours for granted. The artist should focus on the things that make us alike rather than different. The way we bunch up inside our coat at the approach of winter, the mouthwatering appreciation of the froth on an amber beer, the scratchy irritation of sleeplessness...



P: What was it like working with Alan Moore on From Hell? What were his scripts like? (We heard a rumor that Moore wrote the story in a long-form letter rather than a traditional script.)

EC: You must remember that we started out in England in the 1980s, and the whole business of making comic books being then foreign to us, we felt at liberty, or compelled I should say, to make up our own ways of doing it. Alan scripts in such a way that he sees the whole thing complete in his head and describes what he is seeing in very precise detail. He scripts a picture that works because he sees it as a picture in his head. He doesn't see it as a movie, or some recollection of something that may or may not have once taken place. He describes a picture, down to telling you what size it is, what the characters are wearing, what the background details are, and then describes the picture next to it, and if there are eight pictures on the page instead of nine, with two portions of the grid adjoined to make a one larger image, he tells me that right at the top. And much of it is beautifully poetic. I often thought it was sad that only I was reading it all. (Check out the From Hell Companion (MAR131301) if you want to learn more on this theme.)

P: From Hell: The Master Edition will feature the story in color for the first time. Why did you decide to colorize From Hell, and what's your working process for colorizing the original black and white artwork?

EC: When we made the work as a serial in the first place, color was just out of reach for economic reasons. And in Britain that was no big deal. We were well used to black and white. So, I designed the art to be essentially monochrome and that was part of the character of the book. Later, I even resisted an offer to color it in because at that time it would have meant brushing colored inks over reproductions of the pages, or doing mechanical hand-separations like the way color was done a hundred and more years ago. I remember we were doing it that way on our covers in the late 1980s. It was labor intensive and no way to do a whole book, so colors tended to be simplistic by default. Computer coloring only started coming into play in the 1990s and that has enabled quite a different way of doing colors nowadays. We can do 'millions' of hues without thinking too hard, although it is no impediment to success to put a lot of thought into it, I should say. Put simply, color gives me a whole new layer of expression to add to the many layers that already make up From Hell.

P: One memorable sequence in From Hell is the tour of London in which Sir William Gull explains to the coachman, Netley, the occult meanings of the architecture of Nicholas Hawksmoor's churches. We understand you are adjusting some of the artistic details in this sequence for the new edition of From Hell. Was this behind the remastering and coloring of From Hell, or had the idea of revisiting From Hell and updating it been working at the back of your mind for a while?

EC: In thirty years one gets to second guess a lot of the artistic choices. And there are things that are just facts, like the way a horse's legs and shoulder muscles move when it is starting to pull a coach in contrast to when it is stopping. And just the way a coach is built. Every time I would see one in a movie or in a museum I would want to go back and fix something in the book. Well, now I get to fix a lot of stuff, but I hope to do it without rupturing the ragged informalities that made the thing work in the first place; that youthful arrogance that gives us the panache to make it look like we know more than we do. In the second volume, the one with the coach tour of London, the older reader will find that there are ten or a dozen replaced panels he has never seen before. But Han still shoots first.

P: For readers of the original From Hell, what sort of new experience do you hope they will have with the Master Editions? For new readers, what do you hope they will discover in the book?

EC: The Master Edition is so vivid that it will make the experience of reading the old version feel like you were seeing it though a woolly sweater. It will be like seeing From Hell for the first time. And for the new reader, they WILL be seeing it for the first time.

BECOMING ANDY WARHOL GN

(W) Nick Bertozzi
(A/CA) Pierce Hargan

An original graphic novel biography of Andy Warhol, the cultural icon and Pop-art legend. Celebrated during his lifetime as much for his personality as for his paintings, Warhol (1928–1987) is the man who invented Pop Art, the notion of 15 minutes of fame, and the idea that an artist could be as illustrious as the work he creates. With a unique, focused look at Warhol's life, this graphic novel biography offers insight into the turning point of Warhol's career and the time leading up to the creation of the Thirteen Most Wanted Men mural for the 1964 World's Fair, when Warhol clashed with urban planner Robert Moses and architect Philip Johnson and emerged to become one of the most significant artists of the 20th century. THE CIRCLE VOLUME 1 TP

(W) Damon Clark (A) Alyzia Zhemo
(CA) Ivan Shavrin, Dave Murdoch

After his mother dies, Christian, a teenage boy, moves to Shell Bay with his single father only to be bullied as the new kid at school. He finds friendship with the "Weird" kids and unknowingly joins them in an occult ritual that allows a darkness to possess each of them. Through the help of his gypsy neighbor, Christian will learn that the only way he can reverse the ritual is by killing off his circle of friends before they kill him, or before the darkness takes over his soul. One by one he will face them all, and in the end he will have to make the hardest decision of his young life. Collects issues #1-5. (STL043821)

STAFF PICK

CHECK PLEASE! BOOK 1: HOCKEY

Recommended by Megan Cosman

CHECK PLEASE!
Book 1: #HOCKEY
NGOZI UKAZU

As I am writing this staff pick for you, our most superb PREVIEWS reader, to peruse, I am also biting my nails off and cursing under my breath that my favorite NHL team is losing in an NHL playoff game. In my humble opinion, hockey and comics are a perfect pair which is exactly why I am obsessed with Check, Please! Book 1: Hockey, written and illustrated by Ngozi Ukazu from :01 First Second Books.

Meet Eric Bittle, a former junior level figure skating phenomenon turned hockey player at the start of his Freshman year at Samwell College in Boston. Timid, small, kind, and as sweet as the pies that he loves to bake, Eric, aka "Bitty," takes you through the year of a first-year team member via his vlog and real time updates. Laughs are abundant as gentile southern boy Bitty attempts to build relationships with his teammates who live the typical College Bro lifestyle to a T, and learns that hockey is bigger than what happens on the ice.

For fans of the original web comic will be pleased to see that Ukazu has put together Year 1 and 2 of the series here for a beautifully collected 288-page story. This charming tale of growing up and realizing your life's truth is charming and sweet. Bitty's personality pops off the page and reads as though he is speaking to you as your best friend. You're happy when he's happy, and nervous for him when he tells his teammates his big secret. The charm and brooding of Jack is what all young love crushes are made of, while the off the ice antics of Ransom and Holster are hilariously bro-ish (see: Winter Screw).

Check Please! Book 1: Hockey is a fun story about the best years of a young man's life with some body slamming into the boards thrown in for good measure.

Check Please! Book 1: Hockey is what you'd hope The Mighty Ducks 4: College and Beer Years would end up being.

Disregarded, disrespected and dismissed, Renny has a chip on his shoulder. Once an equal partner in a criminal syndicate that rules Las Vegas, he now finds himself living in a shack in the desert. But the shack has a workshop, and Renny's been busy. It's time to march his robot army into the neon hell of a cyberpunk Vegas and retake his seat at the table. Or take the wood from the table and build enough caskets for the whole syndicate.

Old friends better run, because Operation PATIENCE! CONVICTION! REVENGE! is underway. Like an Elmore Leonard novel set in the world of Blade Runner, PATIENCE! CONVICTION! REVENGE! is offbeat and often funny, but all about the dark corners of cities and minds. A violent criminal genius with a bad case of monomania makes for the most fun you'll have with a comic this year.

Written by Patrick Kindlon (There's Nothing There, We Can Never Go Home) and drawn by Marco Ferrari (Famous Monsters Presents) PATIENCE! CONVICTION! REVENGE! continues Kindlon's exploration of difficult characters and irreverent themes. Having broken the chains of good taste, Kindlon goes all-in and writes a vengeance-obsessed lunatic as if he's riding beside him—all wrapped in a gangster tale like no other, a tale that HAD to be told at AfterShock!

NEW SERIES!

Everyone knows that the two greatest thieves in the city are the Moth and the Whisper. Very few know that the Moth and the Whisper disappeared six months ago. And what nobody knows is that the new Moth and Whisper are actually one person pretending to be both of them. One supremely skilled but uncertain young genderqueer thief: Niki, the child of the Moth and the Whisper.

Niki has been trained by their parents in the arts of stealth and infiltration, but they're still just a teenager and now they're alone, searching for their parents in a hostile cyberpunk dystopia. Corporations run the streets while crime lords like Ambrose Wolfe run the alleys—identity is a commodity and privacy is impossible. The truth about Niki's parents and their disappearance is out there, but can Niki survive long enough to find it?

A Young Adult cyberpunk thriller starring a genderqueer super-thief, MOTH & WHISPER is the brainchild of Ted Anderson (My Little Pony, Adventure Time) and Jen Hickman (Jem and the Holograms, The Dead), that just HAD to be told at AfterShock!

In the not-too-distant future, robots are fighting for their equal rights. And when a mysterious and deadly disease known as "Rust" threatens all artificial life, salvation lies in the unlikeliest of heroes—with an obsolete construction worker known as HALE-19 and with AMBER-7T, a caregiver.

After awakening in a decommission facility, AMBER-7T is forced to rely on the dangerous and unapologetic HALE-19 in order to escape. Can these two contradictions find a way to escape or will they turn on one another to survive? Meanwhile, Art Detectives Drivas and Lawton find themselves saddled with the case of their lives as pair of dangerous new adversaries enter the game.

From writer Ryan Parrott (Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, Star Trek, Batman: The Gates of Gotham) and new artist sensation Omar Francia (Star Wars, Mass Effect) comes the next chapter in AfterShock's bold new sci-fi adventure series.

"AUTOMATON"

"Poor is the pupil who does not surpass his master." – Leonardo da Vinci

At the height of the Renaissance, warring factions vie for control of Leonardo da Vinci's destructive arsenal. The only thing standing in their way is Leonardo's young apprentice and her nine-foot tall mechanical bodyguard. Together, Isabel and the robot must navigate a world of wicked men and war machines, determined to save Leonardo from the world—and the world from Leonardo.

From creators Paul Allor (Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles) and Chris Evenhuis (Wynona Earp) comes this swashbuckling adventure story about war, identity and the birth of the modern world!

MONSTRO MECHANICA Volume One contains the entire adventurous first arc, issues 1-5.

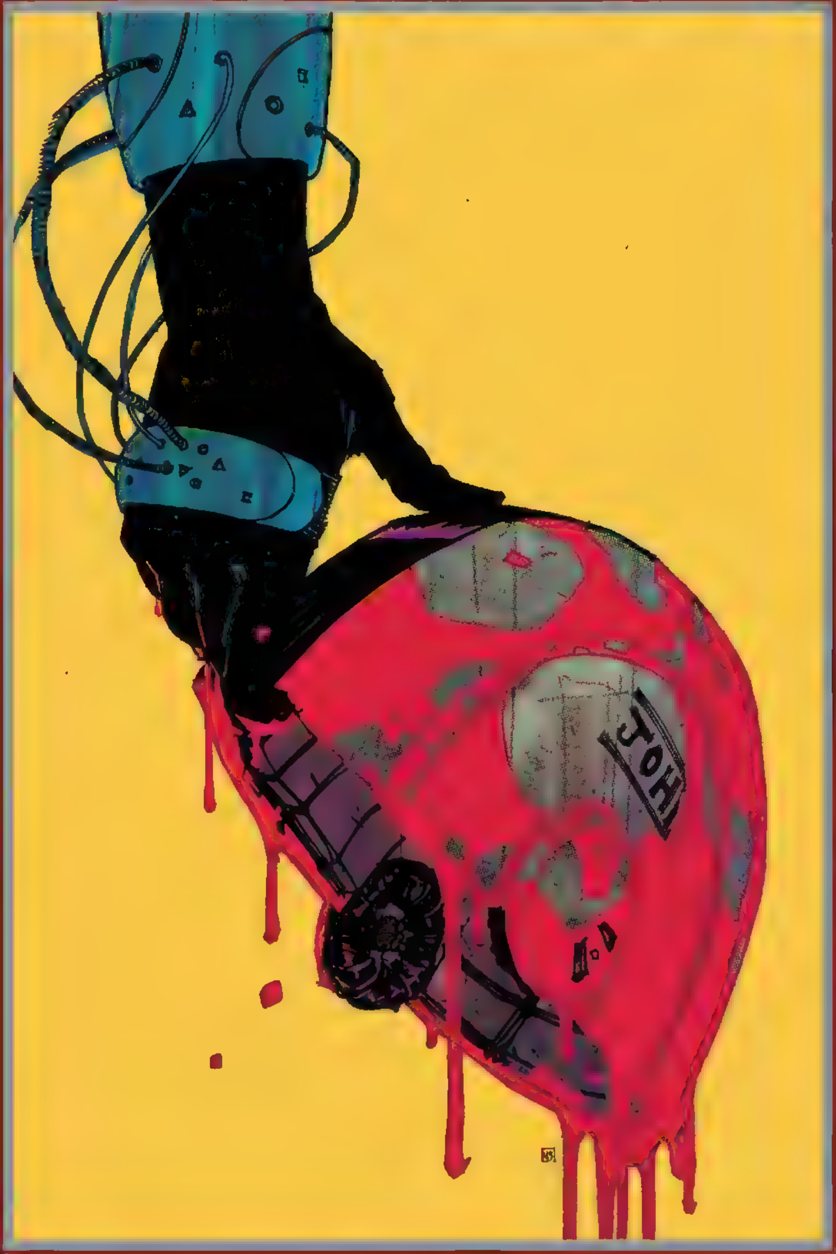
COLD WAR

CHRISTOPHER SEBELA / HAYDEN SERMAN



VOL. 1 TRADE PAPERBACK

Panacea Cryonics promised a life after death, by freezing the heads of their clients and reviving them in the near future, when technology would guarantee them a life free of disease and trouble. However, as clients are finally revived, they learn this corporate pitch was too good to be true—instead of stepping into a life of their dreams, they awaken into a never-ending nightmare.

The world is at war—and this recently revived group of every day people are handed a gun, body armor and an ultimatum: they must fight in this war, against unknown opponents and horrors, in order to secure their place in a brave new world that doesn't want them around.

And as these normal people survive wave after wave of technologically advanced horrors, they soon realize the answers to their questions are no comfort, and the future that they wanted might never be in sight.

From Christopher Sebela (Blue Beetle, Kiss/Vampirella, Evolution) and Hayden Sherman (The Few, John Carter: The End) comes an uncompromising science-fiction epic, as violent as it is beautiful. COLD WAR Volume One contains the entire pulse-pounding first arc, issues 1-5.

$14.99 / 120 pages / Full Color

AHOY COMICS

WHAT IS AHOY COMICS? There's a story behind our name, but we're not going to tell you--yet. In the meantime, think of it as shorthand for:

ABUNDANCE! More pages of comics. Text pages that give you short stories, satire, poetry, criticism, illustrations, and cartoons. No expense spared to publish substantial comics magazines you can spend more time with.

HUMOR! The world isn't getting any happier, but we still have to live in it. If we can't always smile, we can at least laugh.

ORIGINALITY! Cats in space. A second-rate afterlife. Masked crime-fighters ripped away from their respective comics. The funny side of Edgar [illegible]

YES! Yes to monthly comics. Yes to collected editions. Yes to meaningful stories, dramatic art, and beautiful design. Yes to working and shipping on schedule. Yes to the fine production details that make enjoyment effortless. Yes to page numbers! Yes to comics for comics' sake. Yes to people who love to read.

IRON MAIDEN: LEGACY OF THE BEAST VOLUME 1 TP

Recommended by Matthew Demory

If you haven't had a chance to read through Iron Maiden: Legacy of the Beast from Heavy Metal Magazine at this point now is your chance to jump on the series with the collected trade paperback! Scribes Llexi Leon (Eternal Descent) and Ed Edington (Evil Dead 2: Revenge of Evil Ed) have penned a rollercoaster of a ride that slams us into Eddie's world. With his soul nearly destroyed, Eddie battles all manner of demons across space and time to try and reclaim his soul, his identity and make those who crossed him suffer.

Artist Kevin J. West (Wonder Woman, Justice League of America) has crafted a colorful and fast paced fantasy adventure with antagonists that look like they would be at home in early 1990s issues of Spawn.

Do yourself a favor and pick up this book when it hits shelves in September!

ERIC POWELL

PREVIEWS: Introductions, please!

ERIC POWELL: I'm Eric Powell. Our company is Albatross Funnybooks. We are best known for the Hillbilly series (Vol. 1 / JAN171227) and creating socially awkward situations…

P: Which horror properties are you working on right now?

EP: Spook House 2! It's a new four-part weekly sequel to our all-ages horror anthology (Vol. 1 / AUG171134).

P: Who is your favorite horror character, and why?

EP: The Frankenstein Monster is definitely my favorite! I love tragic monsters and especially the original Universal Karloff design.

P: What is your horror "white whale"? What horror character or crossover would you love to create a comic series about?

Jack Kirby
DC
DEMON

EP: It seems like every possible license in pop culture has been mined at this point. So, I don't think there are many horror-related properties that haven't been done…

For comic book characters, I think I could do a good job on Jack Kirby's The Demon (JUL170472) if I could take the book back to its roots of being a big monster comic. But that contingency also guarantees it will never happen.

STRANGER THINGS #1

Recommended by Jim Kuhoric

STRANGER THINGS

In the comics medium, we have a long history of licensing popular TV and film properties and providing additional expansion stories from our favorite programs. My first exposure to it was as a kid when Star Wars and Battlestar Galactica comics were coming out in the late '70s. I devoured those books, reading them multiple times each, as it was a way to get even more enjoyment from the characters and concepts that I cherished. Now, 40 years later, I feel some of that same excitement over Dark Horse's upcoming Stranger Things #1.

In this new story we follow Will Byers into the "Upside Down" to reveal what happened to him off-screen during Season One of the groundbreaking Netflix series. Alone and unable to escape the decay dimension, Will has to evade the Demogorgon and survive where nothing natural lives.

Stranger Things took the world by storm with its innovative story, compelling characters, and nostalgic '80s approach to storytelling. These days… I may look like Hopper on the outside, but I still feel like one of the kids waiting for a chance to read more stories from the world of Stranger Things on the inside!

THE BACKSTAGERS AND THE GHOST LIGHT: AN ILLUSTRATED NOVEL HC

(W) Andy Mientus (A/CA) Rian Sygh

Jory didn't know what to expect when he transferred to St. Genesius Prep, an all-boys school known for their incredible theater department. He ends up on the stage crew, or "backstagers" as they like to call themselves, and discovers the magic that happens behind the scenes of each production. When some of the cast members decide to play with a Spirit board, the ghost light goes out. Ghost lights are supposed to protect the theater from ghosts sneaking in the shadows. The kids don't think too much of it. However, when they decide to put on the musical Phantasm, strange things start happening right away: a fallen light, a missing prop, a star with something to hide. Could there be evil spirits in the theater? (STL090944) (C: 0-1-0)

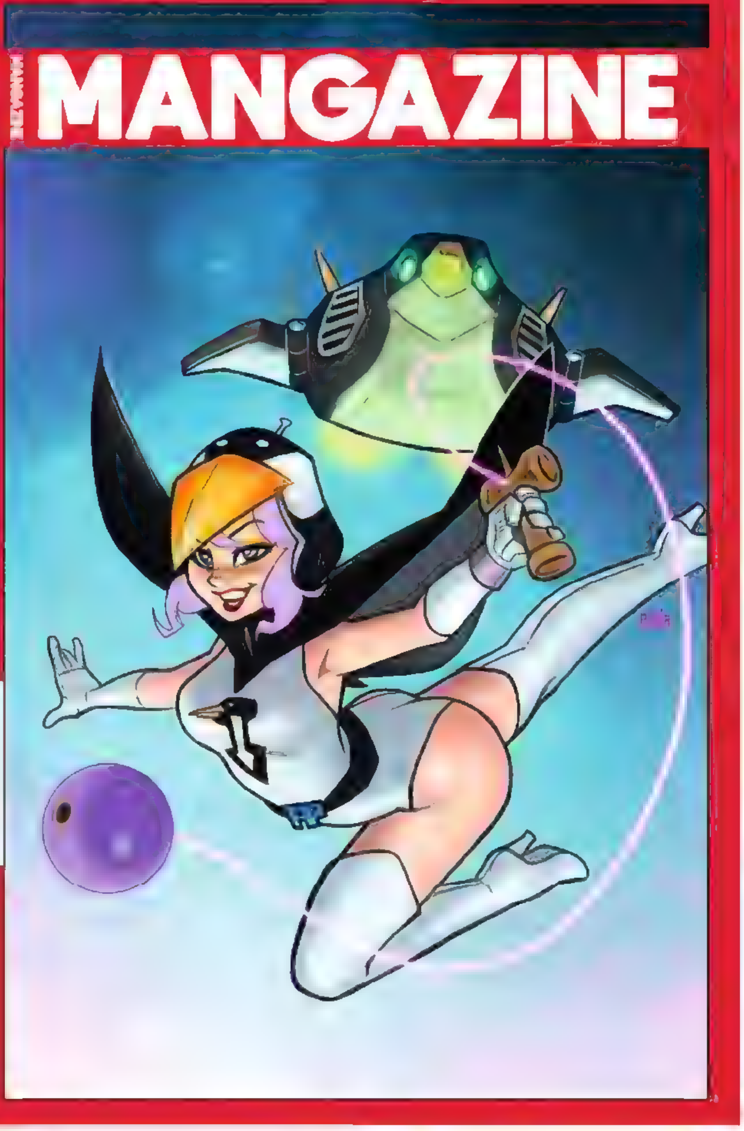
MANGAZINE Vol. 4 #3

(Monthly, Full Color, 48 pgs., $4.99 U.S.)
From the frozen reaches of the far south comes another blast of stupendous storytelling! Arthur Bellfield and Charles Fortner explore why one superhero might give up and another turn bad in "Negative Influences". Killer cupcakes are bad enough, but then sweet Sioux butts heads with the Jelly Bean Knights in the full-contact whimsy of Mary Bellamy's "Cosmic Cupcake Chaos". And the world's most dangerous assassin must protect her family from the organization she once worked for in "Victoria Black", by Bradley Golden and Dan Garcia.



GOLD DIGGER HALLOWEEN SUPER SPECIAL

(One-Shot, Black/White, 32 pgs., $3.99 U.S.) Story/Art: Fred Perry
For over a decade, Fred Perry has been spinning silly, spooky stories for the Gold Digger Halloween Special. So now we are faced with a frightening prospect: selecting the "best" out of a wealth of funny frights that are ALL great. No matter what we pick, though, it'll be no trick to make this a treat for everyone!

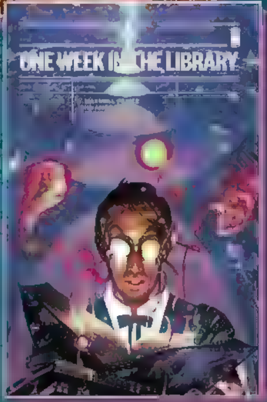
W. MAXWELL PRINCE

THE ELECTRIC SUBLIME



ONE WEEK IN THE LIBRARY

PREVIEWS: Introductions, please!*

W. MAXWELL PRINCE: I'm W. Maxwell Prince, and I currently write Ice Cream Man for Image Comics. Folks might also remember me from One Week in the Library (SEP160780) or The Electric Sublime (JAN170571).

Ice Cream Man

P: Which horror titles are you working on right now and how would you describe them to fans looking for an eerie read this Halloween season?

WMP: Ice Cream Man (Vol. 1: Rainbow Sprinkles / APR180546) is an anthology series of "one-shots." The stories in each issue have no clear link to each other, save for a magical-ish Ice Cream Man that pops up in all of them.

P: Who is your favorite horror character, and why? Did they influence or inspire your own approach to character development in Horror?

WMP: I think my favorite horrific figure would have to be "Edgar" from the first Men in Black movie. Ain't nothin' scarier than a bug walking around in an "Edgar suit"!

P: What is something you hope to accomplish with your Horror storytelling?

WMP: My biggest hope is to make sad stories. If those stories also happen to be horrific, I'll chalk it up to some sort of overlap between despair and fear — which sounds about right to me.

OF BITTER SOULS SC

(W) Chuck Satterlee
(A/CA) Norm Breyfogle

An unlikely team of four "Bitter Souls" led by a mysterious Pastor embark on strange adventures that explore Louisiana's bloody history. After being given powers directly related to their worst character flaws, each individual is given a chance at redemption by defending New Orleans from the ghosts, spooks and things that go bump in the night. THE ARRIVAL: ILLUSTRATED NOVEL HC (NEW PRINTING)

The Arrival
Shaun Tan

(W/A/CA) Shaun Tan

In a heartbreaking parting, a man gives his wife and daughter a last kiss and boards a steamship to cross the ocean. He's embarking on the most painful yet important journey of his life: he's leaving home to build a better future for his family. Shaun Tan evokes universal aspects of an immigrant's experience through a singular work of the imagination. He does so using brilliantly clear and mesmerizing images. Because the main character can't communicate in words, the book forgoes them too. But while the reader experiences the main character's isolation, he also shares his ultimate joy. (STL090018)

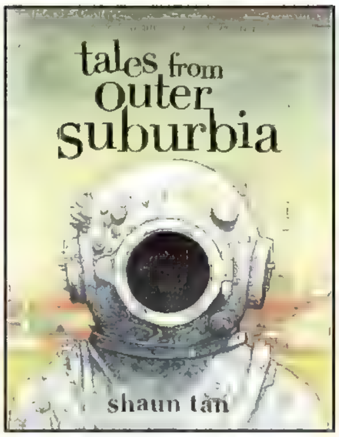
TALES FROM OUTER SUBURBIA HC (NEW PRINTING)



(W/A/CA) Shaun Tan

An exchange student who's really an alien, a secret room that becomes the perfect place for a quick escape, a typical tale of grandfatherly exaggeration that is actually even more bizarre than he says... These are the odd details of everyday life that grow and take on an incredible life of their own in tales and illustrations that Shaun Tan's many fans will love. (STL090020)

THE AGONY HOUSE ILLUSTRATED NOVEL HC

(W) Cherie Priest
(A/CA) Tara O'Connor

A haunted house, a killer ghost, and a long-lost comic come to life in another spectacular package of novel and comics from Cherie Priest, author of I Am Princess X. Denise Farber has just moved back to New Orleans with her mom and step-dad. They left in the wake of Hurricane Katrina and have finally returned, fixing up an old, rundown house. Nothing seems to work around the place, which doesn't seem too weird to Denise. But when floors collapse, deadly objects rain down, and she hears creepy voices, it's clear to Denise that something more sinister lurks hidden here. Denise finds concealed in the attic: the final project of an artist who disappeared in the 1950s. Denise isn't budging from her new home, so she must unravel the mystery, on the pages and off, if she and her family are to survive. (STL090040) (C: 0-1-0)

TALES FROM THE INNER CITY HC

(W/A/CA) Shaun Tan

The visionary Shaun Tan returns to show us the soul-opening work he's been doing for the past five years. Tales of the Inner City is a collection of incredibly original stories, rich with feeling, strangely moving, almost numinous. And when the reader comes to the artwork, it's like walking into an amazing room, and then throwing open a curtain to see a brilliant scene that makes you understand and appreciate everything you've encountered in a deeper way. It's Spreading… Dellec is really an everyday man caught up in a blur of immorality, yet his quest is always clear–destroy the forces of evil where they flourish–and even places where the lines of good and evil are not easily defined. Following a tragic set of circumstances leading to his wife's murder at the hands of a malevolent Demi-God named Tera, our hero lands headfirst into the battle between good and evil–and his chances for survival are grim. However, Dellec is not one to back down from a fight no matter the foe–specifically when his own life hangs in the balance. This is the tale of one man's quest for vengeance and redemption as he attempts to take on the very being that created mankind itself–God!

Written and created by Frank Mastromauro (Shrugged, Overtaken) and Vince Hernandez (Charismagic, Damsels in Excess), and featuring artwork by Micah Gunnell (Shrugged, Deadpool Team-Up) and Peter Steigerwald (Soulfire, Kick-Ass), this incredible new trade paperback collects together all six original issues of DELLEC along with the zero issue, Beginnings story and a whole lot more. Don't miss out on this riveting first volume of DELLEC's epic story.

Aspen's hardest hitting series, DELLEC returns for its long-awaited second volume!

Dellec's previous battle against a higher power and the forces of evil led to a tragic ending—as he sacrificed his own life in a struggle with the Demi-God, Tera! But, a new underground resistance forged by Father Strayer is in the works, and with a shocking new leader to combat Terra and her minions, Dellec's cause is ever growing. However, a new evil has emerged…one that could spell doom for not just the innocent—but every living soul! From the minds of creators Frank Mastromauro (Shrugged, Awaken Skies) and Vince Hernandez (Michael Turner's Fathom: Kiani, Charismagic), along with art by Andre Risso, Michael Ste Maria and John Starr, this newest volume of DELLEC is gonna redefine your definition of the human spirit!

ALAN MOORE'S A SMALL KILLING GN: $5.99

Alan Moore, Oscar Zarate: 104 pp.

Alan Moore's Eisner Award winning graphic novel. A Small Killing is the story of Timothy Hole, a successful adman who has just been handed the biggest assignment of his life, marketing a major cola in Russia. But his smooth life begins to unravel as he is stalked by a demonic child that makes him question not just who he is, but how he really effects those around him. It is about the little murders that we all have to make each day just to get by. The trace assassinations of tiny things. Really, how much damage can be done by a small killing?

CALIBAN
Collection: $5.99

Garth Ennis, Facundo Percio: 176 pp. The crew of the mining ship Caliban is on a routine mission deep in the universe and confident that nothing outside the normal humdrum monotony of space travel will occur. But when they encounter an alien vessel their dreams of a simple mission turn into a nightmare unfolding along the lonely corridors of the cold steel ship. Something is stalking them and systematically eliminating the few remaining personnel one by one. How can you fight something you can't even understand? Claustrophobic terror grips the crew now as they attempt to escape the thing that has waited patiently for them to eventually arrive in the vast lonely darkness. The entire series is collected in this one volume.

Wormwood is the anti-Christ, no way around it, his dad is Satan and his demonic powers help him fit right into New York. His best friends are Jesus, who is a black, mentally-challenged, man that just isn't performing many miracles these days and Jimmy the talking rabbit. The pesky Armageddon is coming right up, and it doesn't look like Pope Jacko is going to be any help in stopping it. Vol 1 collects the first six issue series, and Vol 2 the second series.

GEORGE RR MARTIN'S IN THE HOUSE OF THE WORM: $5.99

George R.R. Martin, John Jos Miller, Ivan Rodriguez: 104 pp. Beneath a ruined city on a forgotten planet lies a world of plots and revenge. When Annelyn is embarrassed in front of his noble friends by the Meatbringer, he sets forth a devious plan that is meant to gain vengeance. But the terrible truth of the dire White Worm turns his ploy into folly in terrible fashion. Now the truth of the Grouns and the Worms will be revealed and Annelyn must face the horrors of what lay beneath his pampered world in the darkness below.

GEORGE RR MARTIN'S SKIN TRADE Collection: $5.99

George R.R. Martin, Daniel Abraham, Mike Wolfer: 104 pp. Randi Wade is a survivor. She followed in the footsteps of her father, became a cop, and now is working the P.I. trade. But her past still haunts her. What's worse, the vicious animal attacks that took her father's life have sprung up anew claiming victims once again in this sleepy town. Martin's unique creative voice spins a modern day classic horror tale of murder, werewolves, and bladed demons.

Each volume is 160 pp. In modern eras it's been fashionable to mock religious believers with taunts of scientific testimony and fact. But when the gods of old begin to reappear on earth and claim the domain of man for their own, the world is thrown into a state of utter anarchy. Mankind held sway over the world for thousands of years and their hubris over that time has made them powerful but when faced with the divine, can mortal weapons put an end to the second coming of the gods? As the world tumbles toward apocalypse, a group of scientists seek to do the impossible...give birth to the gods of science. Each volume collects six issues of the series.

Welcome to Mercury, a slow turning planet where you can outrun the sunrise along with the blistering heat it brings. It's a tough environment and it attracts a rough crowd. So Luiza is bringing her own heat as a cop, since she's just a bit too intense to be one on Earth. Mercury Heat introduces the sci-fi world of the future where individuals are identified by genetic markers and personality types to fill roles in society, the trouble-makers seem to end up on Mercury. Luiza wanted with all her heart to be a police officer. But the automated Grapevine system had other plans for her. There are only a few legal options for someone branded with her neuroprofile. As an adult Luiza's dream came true - only on Mercury where she enforces laws with extreme prejudice as a bounty agent in a world of hard-as-nails miners and cyborgs. Each volume collects six issues of the series.

ROVER RED CHARLIE

Collection: $5.99

Garth Ennis, Michael DiPascale: 160 pp.

"In Rover Red Charlie, an uncomprehending dog's-eye view of the apocalypse, perhaps the medium's finest writer essays a breathtaking feat of the imagination with enormous heart and not a trace of sentiment. Given a damp and warm reality by Michael DiPascale's beautifully-judged art, Garth Ennis manages, with hardly any homo sapiens in sight, to tell what is quite possibly the most profoundly human story of his already astonishing career. This is a book for life, not just for Christmas. - ALAN MOORE"

A CITY INSIDE HC GN

(W/A/CA) Tillie Walden

Shifting between the everyday and the surreal, A City Inside recounts one woman's life from childhood home, to the first love that she will never forget, to the creation of the idea of herself that she can grow old with and the home that she can grow old in. Walden's follow up to the lyrical I Love This Part is a poetic exploration of the process of growing older; the journey towards finding out who you are and building a life for yourself. It is a universal story of how we don't just come-of-age once, but many times throughout our lives. (STL090967) (C: 0-1-0)

THE GREAT NORTH WOOD GN

(W/A/CA) Tim Bird

Long ago the whole of Southern England was covered in forest. Over time, this woodland has been gradually cut back, but small patches remain amidst the suburban sprawl of South-East London. The magic that once filled the ancient forest can still be felt even when the trees are long gone. Memories of the Great North Wood are recorded in the place names — Forest Hill, Honour Oak, Norwood. Stories are told of the bandits, outlaws and gypsies that once roamed the forest, and their presence can sometimes be sensed when the hum of the city is quiet. (STL090962) (C: 0-1-0)

I LOVE THIS PART HC GN

(W/A/CA) Tillie Walden

Two girls in a small town in the USA kill time otgether as they try to get through their days at school. They watch videos, share earbuds as they play each other songs, and exchange their stories. In the process they form a deep connection and an unexpected relationship begins to develop. In her follow up to the critically acclaimed The End of Summer, Tillie Walden tells the story of a small love that can make you feel like the biggest thing around, and how it's possible to find another person who understands you when you thought no one could. PORNSAK PICHETSHOTE

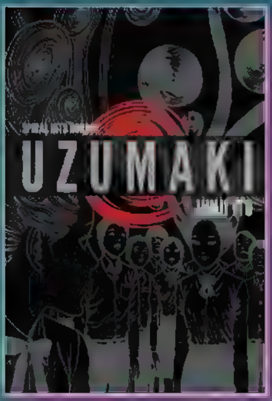
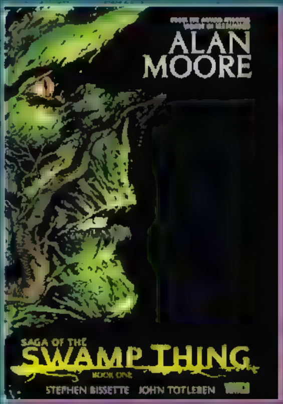
PREVIEWS:
Introductions, please!

PORNSAK PICHETSHOTE: I'm Pornsak Pichetshote and I'm probably best known at this point as the writer for Image Comics' horror book Infidel (Vol. 1 / JAN188523) as well as being a DC/Vertigo editor on such comics as Swamp Thing, Hellblazer: Pandemonium, The Unwritten, Daytripper, and Sweet Tooth.

P: Which horror titles are you working on right now and how would you describe them to fans looking for an eerie read this Halloween season?

PP: I'm currently putting the finishing touches on the last issue of Infidel. We call it a "haunted house story for the new millennium". It's about an American Muslim woman and her multi-racial neighbors who live in an apartment building haunted by strange entities fueled by xenophobia. It mixes contemporary politics with horror which has earned us a comparison to Get Out. We've also gotten praise from comics horror pros like Jock, Steve Niles, Josh Fialkov, and Mike Carey; pretty much unanimously great reviews from all the major comics sites; and a movie option from Tristar.





P: Who is your favorite horror character, and why? Did they influence or inspire your own approach to character development in Horror?

PP: My favorite horror character is Swamp Thing (Saga of... Vol. 1 / JAN120343), at least when Alan Moore was writing him. Probably less because of the character, though, and more because all horror comic writers owe a debt to the way Moore revisited and re-energized horror tropes. Although probably the biggest influence to my approach on horror comics is manga artist Junji Ito, and my favorite work of his is Uzumaki (3-in-1 Edition / AUG131498). Uzumaki is on my list for scariest horror comic and if you pick it up, you can most definitely see the influence he's had on Infidel.

P: What is something you hope to accomplish with your Horror storytelling?

PP: I'm desperately trying to make readers as uncomfortable as I am when I'm reading those best moments of Ito's Uzumaki or Alan Moore's Swamp Thing. My goal is to get you to really feel invested and relate to my characters, so that when the horrors come, it hits that much closer to home. But also, I don't want you to stop seeing horrors when you look away from the pages of the book. I want the themes of the work to affect you enough that it makes you look at the uncomfortable things in the world too.

See page 319 for more interviews!

THE COMPLETE ADVENTURES OF THE THREE MUSKETEERS TP

(A) Arturo Del Castillo

Arturo Del Castillo was one of the greatest masters of Argentinian comic strip. His artistic skill is recognised internationally and his work on The Three Musketeers, The Man in the Iron Mask, and The King's Musketeers (all included here) is regarded as some of the finest pen and ink work ever created for comic strips. These 3 comic strips originally appeared in the British comics Film Fun and Lion in the early 1960s. This is the first time they have ever been reprinted in this complete form. The quality of his penmanship is simply stunning on these strips. Also included here are 14 pages of rare reproductions of original del Castillo artwork. (STL091018) (C: 0-1-0)

BARBOSA THE MAN WHO DREW FLASHMAN HC

(W) Lawrence Blackmore
(A) Arthur Barbosa

A lavishly illustrated (over 600 illustrations) biography of Arthur Barbosa, the artist who, over more than sixty years, provided dust jackets for some of the twentieth century's most famous authors of fiction, including Georgette Heyer, Doris Leslie, C.S. Forester, Patrick O'Brien, and, of course, George MacDonald Fraser. Born in Liverpool, he moved to London at the end of the 1920s where he became a noted and respected illustrator and commercial artist. A lifelong friend of Rex Harrison he also numbered among his friends and acquaintances Cecil Beaton, Frederick Ashston, Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton. (STL091038) (C:0-1-0)

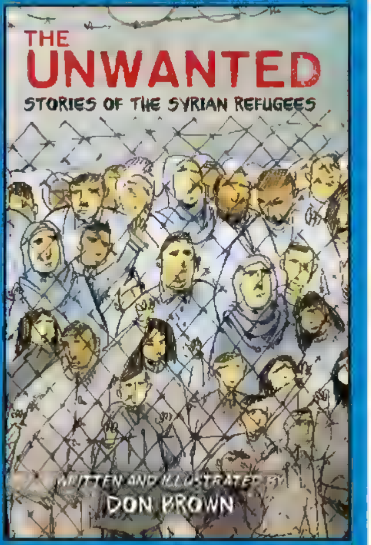
THE UNWANTED: STORIES OF SYRIAN REFUGEES HC

Recommended by Wink Shörtendorfer



A humanitarian crisis began in the summer of 2011 in Syria, one of several countries affected by the "Arab Spring," protests against repressive governments in the Arab world. In some countries, like Egypt and Yemen, authoritarian governments were overthrown. In Syria, the country descended into civil war as Bashar Al-Assad's government began a brutal crackdown against rebels in the north, using chemical weapons in contravention of international law, destroying cities such as Raqqa and Aleppo, and forcing those who could to flee for their lives. Some Syrians fled to refugee camps in "safe" areas in the Syrian desert. Others crossed the border into Turkey or Lebanon to flee the violence. Still others fled into Europe by land or by boat, paying traffickers what money they had to buy passage, and the Mediterranean Sea crossings into Greece and the Baltic countries were especially treacherous. Some, like the three-year-old boy Aylan Kurdi, drowned. Many found themselves taken by authorities in other countries and herded into refugee camps. Of Syria's prewar population of 22 million, today half are refugees displaced from their homes, six million within Syria, five million outside its borders.

Award-winning writer and illustrator Don Brown explores the Syrian refugee crisis in his graphic novel, The Unwanted, for Houghton Mifflin Harcourt. Brown has previously explored the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina in The Drowned City and the Dust Bowl of the 1930s in The Great American Dust Bowl. Like in those graphic novels, Brown offers a human dimension to the crisis, portraying one month in the life of a refugee family, the deteriorating situation in Syria, and their harrowing escape. Brown traveled to refugee camps as part of his research for The Unwanted, meeting Syrian refugees and hearing their stories, giving the graphic novel authenticity. Proceeds for The Unwanted will go to the International Rescue Committee, a humanitarian organization that works to resettle refugees and help them become self-sufficient. Don Brown's The Unwanted is a powerful and necessary book about the human toll of the Syrian crisis and the struggle of millions to find what we all want – a life free of danger and war, someplace where they can live, work, and play in peace, where they can be happy, where they can thrive, where they can love. The world's leaders may have turned a blind eye to the plight of the Syrians. Don Brown, thankfully, has not.

SEAN LEWIS

PREVIEWS: Introductions, please!*

SEAN LEWIS: I am Sean Lewis, the writer and co-creator of Saints: The Book of Blaise (JUN160699), The Few (JUN170653), and Coyotes (JAN180663), all with Image Comics.

P: Which horror titles are you working on right now and how would you describe them to fans looking for an eerie read this Halloween season?

SL: Coyotes is an allegory about a group of women hunted by werewolves along the Mexican border. When they discover the wolves are men from their town, they kick a large revenge plot into gear.

P: Who is your favorite horror character, and why? Did they influence or inspire your own approach to character development in Horror?

SL: I always had a soft spot for Michael Meyers from John Carpenter's Halloween. I remember watching it at home as a kid and freaking out. He hasn't influenced this book but I'm sure down the line he is bound to.

P: What is something you hope to accomplish with your Horror storytelling?

SL: I'm always interested in how you can use horror to talk about everyday fears. People are so angry and divided these days that horror seems to be the only way to discuss politics and terror in a way that people will just engage with without losing their mind immediately.

THE BEST OF DON WINSLOW OF THE NAVY VOLUME 1 HC

(W/A) Various

A collection of the best stories from the classic Fawcett run of Don Winslow of the Navy, one of the most popular comics running during and after World War II. Edited by Craig Yoe, the selected stories are digitally restored and contextualized with Craig's historical research and introduction. Preceding the full, colorful tales is a detailed introduction on the creation of the adventurous Don Winslow. The character served to foster recruitment, entertain Navy personnel and the public during World War II and beyond. Winslow fights the Axis and super villains like The Snake and the smoldering hot, but deadly, Singapore Sal. (STL089960) (C: 0-1-0)

Brent Dulak doesn't want to go to Afghanistan. Haunted by the memories of his two tours in Iraq and burnt out on soldiering, he wants nothing more than to drink to self-destructive excess and have meaningless sex with questionable women. Dulak is a U.S. Army medic who was recently promoted to sergeant, in charge of a team of soldiers whose job it will be patch up the wounded at a remote outpost as American forces prepare to turn Kandahar Province over to the Afghan forces. Brutally honest and darkly funny, Machete Squad is the story of a soldier trying to keep people alive as America's longest war rages all around him even as he doubts his own abilities — and, at times, his sanity. The 'Stan is a collection of short comics about America's longest war. The tales in this book-based on reporting by David Axe and Kevin Knodell and drawn by artist Blue Delliquanti are all true and took place in roughly the first decade of the U.S. military intervention in Afghanistan. While the stories are from the recent past, The 'Stan is still very much about Afghanistan's, and America's, present. And likely, future. (STL089974)

Inspired from assorted first-hand accounts, this fictional story of World War I is a sweeping look across the war and the soldiers who experienced the horrors of the front lines and high seas. The nightmares of World War I and the fallout after are often overlooked, this book asks the reader to look again and remember the dead, to weigh their number against those that would choose war. Conceived as a long, continuous camera pan through the trenches and beyond, the reader is soon buried in mud, corpses, and ruin, emerging on the other side with blurred recollections of lost comrades and a nagging sense of pointless destruction. Helen Keller

ANNIE SULLIVAN AND THE TRIALS OF HELEN KELLER GN

(W/A/CA) Joseph Lambert

Helen Keller lost her ability to see and hear before she turned two years old. But in her lifetime, she learned to ride horseback and dance the foxtrot. She graduated from Radcliffe. She became a world famous speaker and author. She befriended Mark Twain, Charlie Chaplin, and Alexander Graham Bell. And above all, she revolutionized public perception and treatment of the blind and the deaf. The catalyst for this remarkable life's journey was Annie Sullivan, a young woman who was herself visually impaired. Hired as a tutor when Helen was six years old, Annie broke down the barriers between Helen and the wider world, becoming a fiercely devoted friend and lifelong companion in the process. In Annie Sullivan and the Trials of Helen Keller, author and illustrator Joseph Lambert examines the powerful bond between teacher and pupil, forged through the intense frustrations and revelations of Helen's early education. The result is an inspiring, emotional, and wholly original take on the story of these two great Americans. (STL091115) (C: 0-1-0)

THOREAU AT WALDEN
John Porcellino
from the writings of HENRY DAVID THOREAU with an introduction by D.B. JOHNSON

THOREAU AT WALDEN GN

(W/A/CA) John Porcellino

"I am convinced, both by faith and experience, that to maintain one's self on this earth is not a hardship, but a pastime, if we will live simply and wisely." So said Henry David Thoreau in 1845 when he began his famous experiment of living by Walden Pond. In this graphic masterpiece, John Porcellino uses only the words of Thoreau himself to tell the story of those two years off the beaten track. The pared-down text focuses on Thoreau's most profound ideas, and Porcellino's fresh, simple pictures bring the philosopher's sojourn at Walden to cinematic life. For readers who know Walden intimately, this graphic treatment will provide a vivid new interpretation of Thoreau's story. (STL091113) (C: 0-1-0)

OUR VALUED CUSTOMERS COMPLETE COLLECTION TP

Recommended by Leigh Tyberg

The brave souls who work in comic book retail see and hear some strange, strange things. Ask any owner, any manager, any clerk or part-time helper, and they'll pull out the weirdest thing they've ever heard.

Mine involves being yelled at and told I was going to hell by a little old lady who wanted free movie passes that we no longer had. Tied for that is the guy who talked my ear off for five hours about comics continuity, even going so far as to follow me to my car when I left for the day. There are a couple tales that take the cake, but they belong in our Adult catalog, so I won't share them here.

It's a comfort to know that Tim Chamberlain's Our Valued Customers exists, documenting his own experiences listening to customers' conversations. Everything from little girls begging their parents to hurry up so they can leave, to complaints about Spider-Man's butt not being featured prominently enough in an upcoming movie. And who among us doesn't have an ex we can compare to The Phantom Menace?

Chamberlain's one-panel comic started as an internet series back in 2010 as he eavesdropped from behind the counter, documenting wacky, wonderful, and occasionally worrisome snippets of conversation from the shop he worked at.

Possibly the best part about the soundbites featured is how they capture the human experience through a nerdy lens. The talking heads featured in Our Valued Customers entertain, and provoke thought (and occasionally rage), all while providing a window into the dweeby soul.

And they're damn funny.

A little like The Office if it took place inside your friendly local comic book shop, Our Valued Customers is delightful and insightful.

BAKING WITH KAFKA HC

BAKING WITH KAFKA
Comics by Tom Gauld

(W/A/CA) Tom Gauld

In his inimitable style, British cartoonist Tom Gauld has opened comics to a crossover audience and challenged perceptions of what the medium can be. Simultaneously silly and serious, Gauld adds an undeniable lightness to traditionally highbrow themes. From sarcastic panels about the health hazards of being a best-selling writer to a list of magical items for fantasy writers (such as the Amulet of Attraction, which summons mainstream acceptance, Hollywood money, and fresh coffee), Gauld's cartoons are timely and droll — his trademark British humor, impeccable timing, and distinctive visual style sets him apart from the rest. (W/A/CA) Julie Doucet

Julie Doucet is an artist who has mastered many voices and styles, from her groundbreaking early comic-book series, Dirty Plotte, and the classic graphic novel My New York Diary, to her linocut and collage work, to her impeccable 'zines, prints, and other ephemera. In Carpet Sweeper Tales, we see this multi-faceted artist combine her many talents into one genre-defying masterwork. Here she revisits the comics form, pulling images from 1970s Italian fumetti, or photonovels, to create her own collage comics, dwelling on femininity and the modern world. (STK697925)

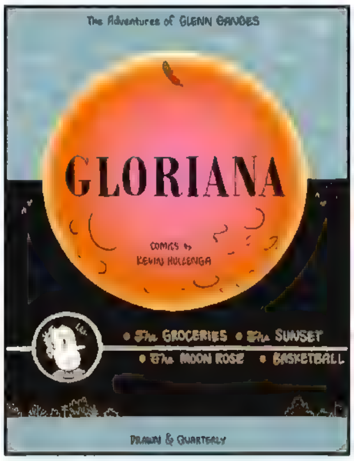
GLORIANA HC

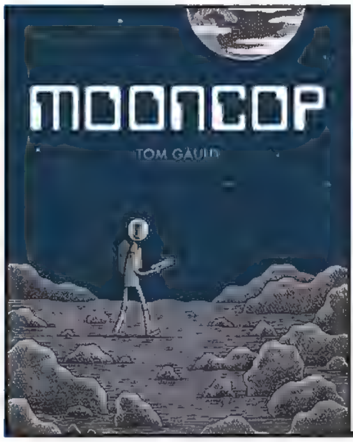


(W/A/CA) Kevin Huizenga

Kevin Huizenga exposes the mechanics that underpin everyday life. His protagonist, Glenn Ganges, has conversations about dish soap and library visits that are both faithful depictions of the mundane interactions we all have and so much more: existential dissections of the units that construct our lives. Huizenga has an understated, quiet approach to story writing that allows his characters (and his readers) the self-awareness to recognize the humor and tragedy of every moment. (STK458113) (C: 0-0-1)

HC, 6x8, 108pgs, PC $19.95

MOONCOP HC



(W/A/CA) Tom Gauld

The lunar colony is slowly winding down, like a small town circumvented by a new super highway. As our hero, the Mooncop, makes his daily rounds, his beat grows ever smaller, the population dwindles. Depicted in the distinctive, matter-of-fact style of Tom Gauld's beloved Guardian strips, Mooncop is equal parts funny and melancholy. Gauld captures essential truths about humanity, making this a story of the past, present, and future, all in one. (STL015978)

CULLEN BUNN

REGRESSION
COLD SPOTS
HARROW COUNTY
THE SIXTH GUN

PREVIEWS: Introductions, please!

CULLEN BUNN: I'm Cullen Bunn, and I write several creator-owned horror or horror-themed comics — Regression (Vol. 1: Way Down Deep / SEP170659) and Cold Spots (Issue #1 / JUN180044) for Image, Harrow County (Vol. 1 Library Ed. / JUN180372) and Death Follows (JAN160137) for Dark Horse, The Sixth Gun (Vol. 1 DLX Ed. / JUN131225) and The Damned (Vol. 1: Three Days Dead / NOV161703) for Oni Press, and Bone Parish (Issue #1 / MAY181178) and The Empty Man (MAY151111) for BOOM! Studios. I also write X-Men and Deadpool stories aplenty for Marvel.

P: Which horror titles are you working on right now and how would you describe them to fans looking for an eerie read this Halloween season?

CB: Cold Spots is my latest horror book. It's a creepy, gothic, cosmic story of a missing girl and a man's efforts to find her. The problem is, where the girl goes, ghosts grow restless, and these ghosts seem to sap the warmth out of the air around them. Believe me, the story gets very, very cold!

Regression is a series that's in full swing right now, and it is absolutely bonkers! It's a horror story that (I hope) will really mess with your mind. It's the story about a past-life regression gone horribly, horribly wrong. My dad was a hypnotist who did regressions, and I drew on a lot of my experiences there.

Bone Parish is a supernatural crime story set in New Orleans. It follows a family that is trying to make it in the drug trade. The drug they are selling? It's made from the ashes of the dead, and users get to walk a mile in someone else's shoes when they try it.

I just wrapped up Harrow County, but I highly suggest looking into the trade paperbacks or library edition hardcovers! Harrow County is the story of a young woman who lives out in the country, and she's just discovered that she might very well be the reincarnation of an infamous witch!

P: Who is your favorite horror character, and why? Did they influence or inspire your own approach to character development in Horror?

CB: Oh, wow! There are so, so many. In movies, we've got Reggie the ice cream man from Phantasm. I like how badly he's in over his head. I also like Michael Myers from Halloween, because he terrified me when I was a kid. Dallas from Alien is also a favorite doomed character. In fiction, I love Danny Torrance from Stephen King's The Shining and its sequel, Doctor Sleep. In comics, I love so many horror heroes — Man-Thing, Swamp Thing, Scare Tactics, Etrigan, Klarion, Constantine, Werewolf by Night. The list goes on and on!

I certainly pull inspiration from everything I read and watch. I love how so many different characters can interact with these horrors in different ways. In fright... with humor... serious... bumbling... and when done right the dichotomy can make for some exciting and terrifying tale.

P: What is something you hope to accomplish with your Horror storytelling?

CB: My horror work in comics is very deliberate and methodical. I tend to focus on building a mood rather than going for a jump scare or an awful bloodletting. I want readers to be invested in the characters. I want them to be immersed in the story. Then I want to hit them with a terrifying whammy. I want readers to be entertained and afraid when they read a horror book. That's the name of the game, after all!

SUPERNATURAL LAW: GRANDFATHERED IN TP

(W/A/CA) Batton Lash

The first new Supernatural Law graphic novel in 5 years! The law firm of Wolff & Byrd, Counselors of the Macabre has a unique practice: defending monsters and the supernaturally afflicted! In this full-color original graphic novel, Alanna Wolff and Jeff Byrd take on a case in which a ghost is literally "grandfathered in" to a home inheritance: Grandpa has died but his ghost won't leave the house, much to the chagrin of his son and daughter-in-law. Meanwhile at the law offices, that landlord wants Wolff & Byrd to leave because their clients are disturbing the other tenants. (STL090799)

RENEGADE WESTERNS: MOVIES THAT SHOT DOWN FRONTIER MYTHS SC

(W) Kevin Grant

The Western is America's definitive contribution to cinema, a bullet-spattered blueprint for the nation's image of itself and its place in the world. Renegade Westerns shows the shadowy side of this picture, where heroes behaved like villains, where Indians were not always the savages we'd been led to expect. More than 100 films are dissected and discussed, from the hidden depths of High Noon and The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance to the ferocity of The Wild Bunch. The book ranges over 70 years of movie-making, right up to the biggest westerns of recent times. Complete with a foreword by western expert Edward Buscombe, Renegade Westerns offers a fresh perspective on a genre that continues to attract both large audiences and critical acclaim. MORT CINDER

By Hector German Oesterheld and Alberto Breccia

$29.99 / HC / 224 pgs / BW / 8 x 10

The great Alberto Breccia, in collaboration with the Argentine writer Hector German Oesterheld (The Eternaut,) present Mort Cinder, a horror story with political overtones that follows the wanderings through time of a man who rises from the grave each time he is killed, bearing witness to the darkest sides of humanity. American comics creators such as Frank Miller (300, Sin City) and Mike Mignola (Hellboy) owe Breccia a great debt; these horror-adventure tales are as thrilling, dread-inducing, and accessible as when they were created a half a century ago.

BASTARD

By Max de Radiguès

$14.99 / SC / 192 pgs / BW / 6 x 7.5

After conducting 52 simultaneous robberies in the same city, May and Eugene are now on the run from the law, former accomplices, and their own violent past. What makes these criminals so surprising is that they are a young mother and her preteen son. Bastard traces the escape of May and Eugene as they crisscross the United States, racing to get to their stolen cash. Both bloody and tender and full of plot twists and high tension, Bastard is a hard-boiled page-turner introducing an adolescent anti-hero that you're sure not to forget.

DRAWN TO BERLIN: COMIC WORKSHOPS IN REFUGEE SHELTERS AND OTHER STORIES FROM A NEW EUROPE

By Ali Fitzgerald

$24.99 / HC / 196 pgs / BW / 6.25 x 7.25

Ali Fitzgerald began teaching comics-making to refugees at a Berlin emergency shelter. In her eight years in Germany, Fitzgerald experienced her student's and her own creative highs, along with the deep depression of the disillusioned. In the refugee center, worlds collide and Fizgerald's story entwines the complex themes of political and personal displacement. Her drawings are compassionate and unflinchingly intimate making for a stunning graphic memoir about what you find when you attempt to help lost people.

TWISTS OF FATE

TWISTS OF FATE

By Paco Roca;
Translated by Erica Mena

$34.99 / HC / 328 pgs / FC / 7 x 9.75

Eisner-award winner Paco Roca (Wrinkles) reconstructs World War II through the memories of Miguel Ruiz, a member of "La Nueve," a company of men that went from fighting against the Franco regime in the Spanish Civil War to battles across Europe and Africa, spurred on by their patriotism and hate for brutal dictatorships. Ruiz's stories are filled with horror and humor but Twists of Fate is much more than a forgotten hero's personal story. It's a timely look into what we remember and why we forget, a reminder that everyone has a tale to tell, and an ode to a generation that stood up to, and beat back, violent fascism.

CASTLE IN THE STARS VOLUME 2: THE MOON KING HC

(W/A/CA) Alex Alice

The second volume in a lavishly illustrated adventure series set in a world where space exploration began during the Victorian era. Seraphin and his crew, which includes the King of Bavaria, have barely escaped the treacherous chamberlain with their lives. They are now stowaways on the magnificent aethership, but their respite is short-lived. To save the king's throne and prove his sanity, they must push the aethership even farther-out of the sky — and into the stars! Alex Alice (Siegfried) delivers a fantastical adventure set in a world where man journeyed into space in 1869, not 1969, and he marries this compelling high-concept premise with intricate, breathtaking art. CASTLE IN THE STARS VOLUME 1: THE SPACE RACE OF 1869 HC

(W/A/CA) Alex Alice

What if man journeyed into space in 1869, not 1969? In search of the mysterious element known as aether, Claire Dulac flew her hot-air balloon toward the edge of our stratosphere — and never returned. One year after her disappearance, her son and husband are delivered a tantalizing clue: a letter from an unknown sender who claims to have Claire's lost logbook. The letter summons them to a Bavarian castle, where an ambitious young king dreams of flying the skies in a ship powered by aether. But within the castle walls, danger lurks, for -there are those who would stop at nothing to conquer the stars! THE CREEPY CASE FILES OF MARGO MALOO VOLUME 2: MONSTER MALL

(W/A/CA) Drew Weing

Now that Charles has helped Margo Maloo close a case, he thinks he's an expert on things that go bump in the night. But Margo knows he still has a lot to learn about Echo City's hidden monster society-he doesn't even know the difference between a poltergeist and a wraith! So as long as he doesn't get in the way, she lets him tag along on her adventures. As Margo's assistant, Charles meets a variety of monsters, from imps to vampires. And lately they all say the same thing: living secretly in Echo City is getting harder. Humans and their smartphones are encroaching on monster territory, eager to photograph paranormal activity and share it with the world. Some monsters are tired of hiding and ready to fight. Can Margo and Charles prevent all-out war between human and monsterkind? (STL090337) (C: 1-1-0) NOTE: Not available in the U.K. (May Purchase from U.K. Vendor)

DREW WEING

Charles just moved to Echo City, and some of his new neighbors give him the creeps. They sneak into his room, steal his toys, and occasionally, they try to eat him. The place is teeming with monsters! Lucky for Charles, Echo City has Margo Maloo, monster mediator. No matter who's causing trouble, Margo knows exactly what to do-the neighborhood kids say monsters are afraid of her. It's a good thing, because Echo City's trolls, ogres, and ghosts all have one thing in common: they don't like Charles very much. (W/A/CA) John Green

Construction has never been cuter than in this graphic novel for very young readers! Can you be too cute for your own good? Sadly, the answer is yes. In a world where kittens and humans coexist, several talented kittens with skills in architecture, construction, engineering, and plumbing have discovered that nobody will take them seriously in the workplace because they are just too darned adorable. So the kittens take matters into their own hands, and form their own all-feline firm: the Kitten Construction Company! They're going to build the best mayor's mansion the city has ever seen, just as soon as they can stop chasing laser pointers. Every nation that invades the City gives it a new name. But before long, new invaders arrive and the City changes hands (and names) once again. The natives don't let themselves get caught up in the unending wars. To them, their home is the Nameless City, and those who try to name it are forever outsiders. Kaidu is one such outsider. He's a Dao born and bred—a member of the latest occupying nation. Rat is a native of the Nameless City. At first, she hates Kai for everything he stands for, but his love of his new home may be the one thing that can bring these two unlikely friends together. Comic Book Marketplace

In the Market With Bob Overstreet

The Gemstone Publishing crew, seen here at the printer, is ready for the 48th edition of The Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide to debut.

The past few months have been very exciting for the comic book business! Each year as we're preparing for the new edition of The Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide to arrive, we like to look back and take stock of the notable transactions we've covered. There were some great stories in 2017 and even just the past few days as I write this have brought us some incredible news.

Recent months have seen a CGC-certified 4.0 copy of Action Comics #1 sell for $573,600 at Heritage, a CGC 5.5 copy of Batman #1 realize $227,050, also at Heritage, and a CBCS-certified 8.5 copy of Fantastic Four #1 bring in $121,259 at ComicLink.

We saw the phenomenal media coverage of Steve Geppi's multi-million dollar donation of comic books, original comic art, and other pop culture items to the Library of Congress, and we've also witnessed successful retailer and Overstreet Advisor Jesse James Criscione of Jesse James Comics shift his retail business heavily toward back issues.

These were all very compelling stories, and they represent the excitement going on in the back issue market today. We've seen several auction houses report all-time record events for comic books, and we've also noted a thriving market for mid-grade comics join the consistent demand for rare, high-grade vintage offerings.

One of the great auctions last year came when ComicConnect offered the Jon Berk Collection. Comprised of copious selections of Golden Age and Silver Age comics that Jon, a longtime Overstreet Advisor, had held for quite a while, it had quite an effect on the marketplace as it totaled over $7 million.

Just a sampling of the results included Action Comics #7 CGC 5.5 ($188,000), Fantastic Comics #3 CGC 9.4 Mile High pedigree ($243,000), Mystery Men Comics #1 CGC 9.0 Mile High pedigree ($41,000), and Wonder Comics #1 CGC 9.4 ($68,000).

There's also plenty of excitement for more recent comics as well, and we're going to take a look at many different market niches in this space over the next few months. Until then, see you next month!

O/A WIRE MOTHERS: HARRY HARLOW AND THE SCIENCE OF LOVE GN

(W) Jim Ottaviani
(A/CA) Dylan Meconis

"Never hug and kiss them, never let them sit on your lap. The end result is a happy child, free as air, because he has mastered the stupidly simple demands society makes upon him." Psychologists know best, and in the 1950s they warned parents about the dangers of too much love. Besides, what was "love" anyway? Just another name for children seeking food and adults seeking sex. It took Harry Harlow, a deeply unhappy man who knew in his gut the truth about what love — and its absence — meant, to prove otherwise. His experiments, and their results, shocked the world. OTHER PEOPLE GN

(W/A/CA) Joff Winterhart

Evocatively wrought and gorgeously illustrated, Other People collects Days of the Bagnold Summer and Driving Short Distances, first published in the UK to wide acclaim. In Bagnold Summer, a teenager spends a long summer with his mother, much to his disappointment. Capturing the dynamics of family and growing up, Winterhart captures the ennui, pathos, and affection of the mother-son relationship. In Driving Short Distances, Sam needs a job and purpose, so begins a apprenticeship of sorts in the passenger side of Keith's car. As Sam learns something about the self-styled big-man Keith, and the humility of everyday living, Winterhat's pen turns ordinary life into a tableau poignant and comedic. (STL090894) (C: 0-1-0)

OVERSTREET COMIC BOOK PRICE GUIDE VOLUME 48

(W) Robert M. Overstreet (CA) Sciver, Ethan Van

Leading off the 48th edition of The Overstreet Comic Book Price Guide, former DC Comics President and Publisher Paul Levitz highlights the legacy of Action Comics #1 on its 80th anniversary. The spotlight also is turned on 50th anniversary of Marvel's fateful 1968 expansion and the 50th anniversary of Planet of the Apes and the comics that followed the original feature film. Add in all the updated prices, current market reports, new additions to the Overstreet Hall of Fame and a selection of key character anniversaries and you have a solid reminder of why the Guide has been the Bible of comic book collectors and dealers since 1970! Premiere DC artist Ethan Van Sciver provides the Flash/Green Lantern cover, and Ryan Sook provides the Planet of the Apes cover. Available in softcover and hardcover editions. (STL074547)

P. CRAIG RUSSELL'S THE JUNGLE BOOK & OTHER STORIES FINE ART EDITION

Recommended by Steve Leaf

From the beginning the potential was there to be an extraordinary artist. P. Craig Russell stated with a B-level hero at best and went beyond the Kirby and Buscema house styles of the time to bring interesting layout and design to the comic book pages. He went from Marvel Feature to Killraven and everything from inking Mike Mignola on Phantom Stranger to completely illustrating an original Doctor Strange graphic novel and soon he was ready for the creator owned market.

Now the first in a series of books scanned from the artist's originals is available. In the P. Craig Russell The Jungle Book & Other Stories Fine Art Edition, each page of this hardcover book is scanned to show everything from blue pencils to notes and corrections in their full 12 x17 glory. The stories run the gamut from his Jungle Book stories – "The King's Ankus," "Red Dog," and "The Spring Running" – while the "other stories" in this book are three of P. Craig Russell's most acclaimed early works: "Siegfried and the Dragon," "La Sonnambula," and "The City of Sleep" and "Breakdown on the Starship Remembrance." P. Craig Russell's art nouveau-influenced art demonstrates the need for these original art edition-based books. While the final printed book is a satisfactory way to read a comic or graphic novel, an artist edition such as this truly allow you to appreciate the time and effort the creator put into their work.

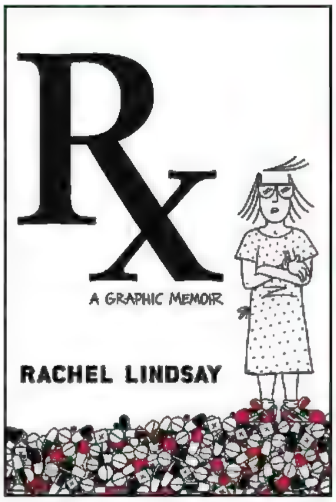
RX: A GRAPHIC MEMOIR

(W/A/CA) Rachel Lindsay



In her early twenties in New York City, diagnosed with bipolar disorder, Rachel Lindsay takes a job in advertising in order to secure healthcare coverage for her treatment. But work takes a strange turn when she is promoted onto the Pfizer account and suddenly finds herself on the other side of the curtain, developing ads for an antidepressant drug. Overwhelmed by the stress of her professional life and the self-scrutiny it inspires, she begins to destabilize and while in the midst of a crushing job search, her mania takes hold. Her altered mindset yields a simple solution: to quit her job and pursue life as an artist, an identity she had abandoned in exchange for medical treatment. When her parents intervene, she finds herself hospitalized against her will, and stripped of the control she felt she had finally reclaimed. Over the course of her two weeks in the ward, she struggles in the midst of doctors, nurses, patients and endless rules to find a path out of the hospital and this cycle of treatment. One where she can live the life she wants, finding freedom and autonomy, without sacrificing her dreams in order to stay well. (STL091127) (C: 0-1-0)

(W) Tedd Arnold
(A) Martha Hamilton, Mitch Weiss

Best-selling author-illustrator Tedd Arnold has teamed up with two professional storytellers to create a third comic-style book about the gullible Noodlehead Brothers, Mac and Mac. Mac and Mac deduce that since fish live in schools, they must be smart. The fish in this funny story are smart enough to outwit Mac and Mac! Cousin Meatball also gets the better of them. He convinces the brothers that if they put their snack into a toy boat, the little boat will grow into a big one. It seems to work. Or does it? Then three fish get the boys to feed them worms while avoiding Mac's and Mac's fish hooks. Oh well. Mac and Mac would rather snack on fish crackers and gummy worms anyway! (STL091430) (C: 0-1-0)

THE UNWANTED
STORIES OF THE SYRIAN REFUGEES
WRITTEN AND ILLUSTRATED BY DON BROWN

THE UNWANTED: STORIES OF SYRIAN REFUGEES HC

STAFF PICK See page 318

(W/A/CA) Don Brown

The Unwanted is an exploration of the ongoing Syrian refugee crisis, exposing the harsh realities of living in, and trying to escape, a war zone. Starting in 2011, refugees flood out of war-torn Syria in Exodus-like proportions. The surprising flood of victims overwhelms neighboring countries, and chaos follows. Resentment in host nations heightens as disruption and the cost of aid grows. The refugees are the unwanted. Don Brown depicts moments of both heartbreaking horror and hope in the ongoing Syrian refugee crisis. Shining a light on the stories of the survivors, The Unwanted is a testament to the courage and resilience of the refugees. (STL090111) (C: 0-1-0)

KABUL DISCO VOLUME 2: HOW I MANAGED NOT TO GET ADDICTED TO OPIUM IN AFGHANISTAN GN

Looks like Nicolas wasn't done with Kabul after all. Unfulfilled by his old life in Paris, he returns to Afghanistan to resume work at the Zendagui agency. This time around, however, his job is even trickier than illustrating the Constitution. He has to convince Afghans that "Opium is Bad" in a time when no one wants to hear what expatriates have to say. With a charming sense of humor and a genuine love for Afghanistan, Nicolas Wild depicts a series of complicated events, transpiring in a complicated country. Alan was a simple carpenter until a freak accident ended his life. Now he is among the undead in a world where 95% of the population has died and risen again in sentient zombie form. The few "living" survivors live in organized safe havens where some have banded together to eradicate the zombie menace. While on the run from these violent factions, Alan finds the girl of his dreams — the decaying, yet beautiful Lynn. As their bodies degenerate, Alan and Lynn make a desperate effort to "live" again by seeking out an experimental serum that might save them. (STK630363) NOTE: Not Available in India.

DJINN VOLUME 1: THE FAVORITE GN

(W) Jean Dufaux (A/CA) Ana Miralles

Kim Nelson has heard the legend of Jade, a powerful djinn, a spirit with the ability to seduce any human heart-but Kim isn't interested in legends. She's just looking for her grandmother. Fifty years ago, Jade served the Black Sultan as part of the Imperial Harem, but Jade was no ordinary harem girl-she was the sultan's favorite. Rumored to be a djinn from the Ottoman Empire, she had the power to manipulate men's hearts, subtly alter their convictions, and even affect the course of an entire war. The legends also say that Jade, and Jade alone, knew where the Black Sultan hid his treasure, a treasure that no one has ever managed to unearth. Now, fifty years later, Kim Nelson is reliving the life of her ancestor Jade in modern Istanbul, hoping to find answers that have been lost to history. It will be a long journey, a journey that will change her life forever. (STL087772) (C: 0-1-0)

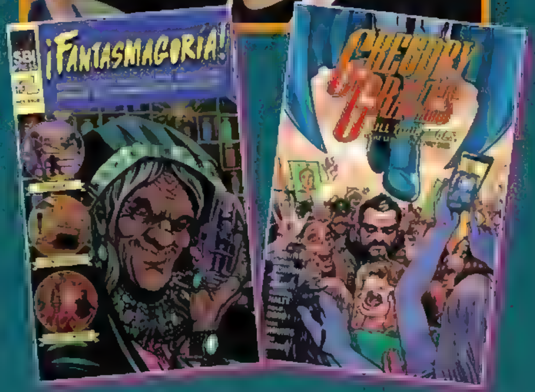
ERIC ESQUIVEL



PREVIEWS: Introductions, please!

ERIC ESQUIVEL: I'm Eric Esquivel, and I work at Starburns Industries (or "Estarburns", for our Spanish speaking friends), a Willy-Wonky-style magic factory in Burbank, California that is responsible for all your favorite stuff — like Rick and Morty, Community, and Gregory Graves (Vol. 1 / MAY181985)!

P: Which horror properties are you working on right now?

EE: Fantasmagoría (See Page 409!) is a quarterly horror anthology that is similar to stuff like Black Mirror, Tales from the Crypt, and The Twilight Zone — but it's unique in that it deals exclusively with mythology that is native to Mexico, and the American Southwest.

Basically, they're dramatic retellings of stories that our creepy abuelitas used to traumatize us with when we were niños!

P: Who is your favorite horror character, and why?

EE: Show me a Chicano kid who isn't scared sless of "El Cucuy", and I will show you a liar! He's basically the south-of-the-border Boogeyman — only there aren't any Tim Burton movies or Halloween costumes featuring him — so when you're a kid, he seems like something that could actually exist!

P: What is your horror white whale? What horror character or crossover would you love to create a comic series about?

EE: It's funny you used the term "white whale", because Horror as a genre is a pretty exclusively Caucasian affair… with the notable exception of Blackula!

And I don't want to debate whether that's racist, or whatever — but it's for sure BORING. Pop culture uses the same three Eastern European myths over, and over, and over again: Vampires, Werewolves, and Ghosts.

I'm hip. I worked at Hot Topic for five years… Vampires are rad. But you know what's also rad? Los Duendes! El Chupacabra! La Santa Muerte! There's a whole host of creepy weirdos out there, waiting to scare the living crap out of you. And it's an honor and a privilege for us to introduce them to you!

AHEM
SNIFF
WHAT... DEFINES A PERSON AS A UNIQUE INDIVIDUAL?
THE 'UPGRADE CELL'
AN OVERVIEW
A NATURAL DISPOSITION? A FACE? A VOCABULARY OF GESTURES?
ARE WE BORN INDIVIDUALS.
...OR DO WE MOLD OURSELVES INTO UNIQUE CREATURES THROUGH OUR EXPERIENCES AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS?
EVERY HUMAN ENTERS THE WORLD WITH A VAST, INCALCULABLE POTENTIAL.
BUT MYRIAD FACTORS INVARIABLY CONSPIRE TO PREVENT US FROM FULLY ACHIEVING THAT POTENTIAL IN ADDITION TO THE OFTEN UNSATISFACTORY CARDS DEALT TO US BY HEREDITY...
...EACH OF US WILL, THROUGHOUT OUR LIVES, SUFFER INNUMERABLE ENCOUNTERS WITH DISEASE, INJURY, EMOTIONAL TRAUMA, AND PERSONAL DEFEAT.
THESE STOCHASTIC ENCOUNTERS ARE CUMULATIVE, AND MANY OF THEM WILL EVEN COME TO SHAPE CORE PARTS OF OUR BEINGS.
BUT ARE OUR IDENTITIES INEXTRICABLY LINKED TO OUR IMPERFECTIONS, STRUGGLES, AND GENETIC BLEMISHES?
WHO WOULD YOU BE IF, BY THE GRACE OF GOD, YOU'D BEEN AFFORDED AT BIRTH AN UNASSAILABLE SET OF GENES.
WHO WOULD YOU BE IF YOU'D THEN DEVOTED THE IMPOSSIBLE TIME AND EFFORT TO ACTUALLY ACHIEVING YOUR ABSOLUTE FULL POTENTIAL?
WHO WOULD YOU BE IF YOU HAD SOMEHOW AVOIDED EVERY TENACIOUS IMPEDIMENT IN THE INVISIBLE BACTERIAL OBSTACLE COURSE OF YOUR DAILY LIFE?
OR WHAT IF, THROUGH SOME MIRACLE OF SCIENCE
...THERE WAS A WAY TO CLEANSE THE DETRITUS THAT HAS CUMULATIVELY CONTAMINATED YOUR GENES SINCE BEFORE YOU WERE EVEN BORN?
WHO WOULD YOU BE TODAY?
WOULD YOU BE THE SAME PERSON, THE SAME UNIQUE INDIVIDUAL?
OR WOULD YOU BE SOMETHING MORE?
UPGRADE CELL IS, AT ITS MOST FUNDAMENTAL LEVEL, A PROCESS OF GENETIC PURIFICATION
ITS PURPOSE IS NOT SIMPLY TO ENRICH YOUR LIFE THROUGH ENHANCED STRENGTH, ENDURANCE AND INTELLECT
...BUT TO ALLOW YOU TO FINALLY ACHIEVE YOUR ABSOLUTE, GOD-GIVEN POTENTIAL TO BE THE PERSON YOU WERE BORN TO BE.

UPGRADE SOUL

Dear Reader,

I barely knew who I was when I first wrote out the title, Upgrade Soul, in a notebook. I was twenty-one, and had the idea to write a metaphorical horror story about my deepest fear, which had become my reality: I'd moved away from my hometown in Iowa, where I didn't know of any artists my age better than me, to attend a fine art college in Portland, Oregon, where I immediately discovered I didn't even know the meaning of "better."

That paranoid, post-pubescent existential terror never really went away, but it took over fifteen years of struggling and failing to find a career in comics to fully understand exactly how the idea of "better" can be so oppressive. The horror of "better" lies in its subjectivity: Is young better than old? Is tall better than short? Is abled better than disabled? Is white better than black? Why? According to whom?

The horror of "better" is truly felt by one who feels deemed arbitrarily "worse." Upgrade Soul is, in a way, a record of my attempt to explore that idea. I may not have come up with all the answers I sought, but in my pursuit of them, I've certainly grown into a better person.

CURTAIN CALL

Even Robin Hood made mistakes...

Vincent is spiraling down the drain, circling himself with no clue of what direction his life should take. He has already abandoned the woman he loved and their newborn child he never met, frightened of the responsibility of fatherhood. That's too much like growing up. But now, with nothing in his life but a barfly drinking buddy named Gaby Rocket, he's ready to finally fix himself and make things right. And that all starts with a bank truck heist . . .

A character-driven crime thriller in the proud tradition of Martin Scorsese and the Coen Brothers, where the caper itself is just the framework for an engaging and engrossing set of character studies, written by award-winning author Wilfrid Lupano and illustrated by DreamWorks animator Rodolphe Guenoden.

FRATERNITY

Fear both beast and freedom...

Fraternity is a haunting horror story written by Juan Díaz Canales, the co-creator of the popular Blacksad series, and illustrated by the talented José-Luis Munuera. During the American Civil War, the inhabitants of New Fraternity, Indiana, find themselves far from the front lines of the conflict embroiling the United States but still constantly under threat from it; food is scarce, deserters come to seek asylum, and a mysterious feral beast that walks on two legs prowls the forest around the town. The beast seems to have some connection to Emile, a feral child found a few years earlier who had been taken in by the townsfolk during simpler times. As their fear and paranoia grows, the townsfolk start to hunt the beast and turn on each other, with tragic results that threaten to undo all that they have been working toward.

MORTALS & IMMORTALS

A Labyrinth of Legends—an Odyssey of Immortals and Heroes

The stories of the Greek mortals and immortals, and their legendary exploits, tower as tall now as they have for thousands of years. Join the twelve gods at the top of Mount Olympus, and learn the tales of Greek heroines and heroes, who performed extraordinary feats of strength, bravery, and intelligence. This sumptuously illustrated collection of classic myths will reveal all their secrets, even the most incredible ones.

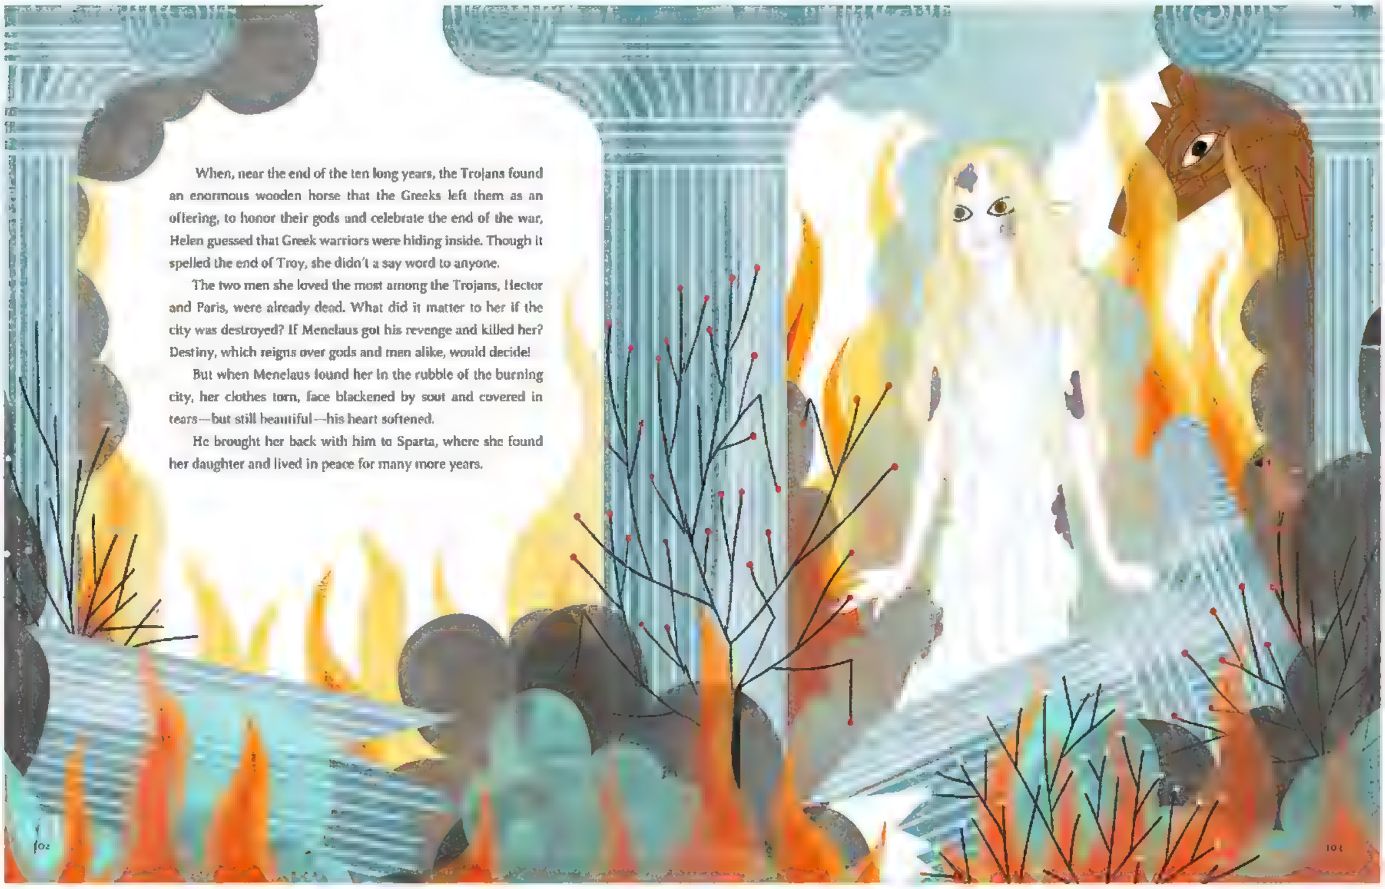
JASON
The Argonaut

Jason was born in Thessaly, in the port of Iolcos. From the first day of his life, the ocean sang him to sleep, and he grew used to the rolling waves and the cries of seagulls. But because his uncle, Pelias, had stolen the throne from his father, the legitimate king, his mom thought it prudent to distance themselves. She feared for her son's life since he was the true heir to the kingdom. She trusted him to Chiron, a centaur, who lived in the forest on Mount Pelion.

Chiron wasn't like the other centaurs. Though he too was half-man, half-horse, they were loud and easily angered, whereas he was wise and learned. He taught Jason to respect nature, heal man and animal alike, and resist fatigue—a useful skill for his future adventure across the seas.



When, near the end of the ten long years, the Trojans found an enormous wooden horse that the Greeks left them as an offering, to honor their gods and celebrate the end of the war, Helen guessed that Greek warriors were hiding inside. Though it spelled the end of Troy, she didn't a say word to anyone.

The two men she loved the most among the Trojans, Hector and Paris, were already dead. What did it matter to her if the city was destroyed? If Menelaus got his revenge and killed her? Destiny, which reigns over gods and men alike, would decide!

But when Menelaus found her in the rubble of the burning city, her clothes torn, face blackened by soot and covered in tears—but still beautiful—his heart softened.

He brought her back with him to Sparta, where she found her daughter and lived in peace for many more years.

NEW SCHOOL NIGHTMARE
BY CAROLYN NOWAK

BUFFY THE VAMPIRE SLAYER: NEW SCHOOL NIGHTMARE NOVEL

(W/A/CA) Carolyn Nowak

An exciting and hilarious new middle grade story for anyone who likes (or doesn't like) vampires! Buffy Summers is just like any other student... except for the part where she's also a secret vampire slayer. In every generation, one girl is granted great strength to stand against the forces of darkness. Of course, power doesn't matter when it comes to eating lunch alone, getting picked on by the popular kids, or having way too much homework. Luckily, Buffy finds her way with a can-do attitude, a weird Watcher, and new besties, Sarafina and Alvaro, who might just have powers of their own. But will any of it be enough to turn the tide when an army of villainous vampires invade town? Can Buffy save herself, let alone the world? (STL091121) (C: 0-1-0)

HOME AFTER DARK GN

(W/A/CA) David Small

David Small's long-awaited graphic novel is a savage portrayal of male adolescence gone awry like no other work of recent fiction or film. Thirteen-year-old Russell Pruitt, abandoned by his mother, follows his father to sun-splashed California in search of a dream. Suddenly forced to fend for himself, Russell struggles to survive in Marshfield, a dilapidated town haunted by a sadistic animal killer and a ring of malicious boys who bully Russell for being "queer." Rescued from his booze-swilling father by Wen and Jian Mah, a Chinese immigrant couple who long for a child, Russell betrays their generosity by running away with their restaurant's proceeds. Home After Dark becomes a new form of literature in this shocking graphic interpretation of cinema verité. ALAN MOORE: JERUSALEM SC

(W) Alan Moore

The New York Times-bestseller from the author of Watchmen and V for Vendetta finally appears in a one-volume paperback. In decaying Northampton, eternity loiters between housing projects. Among saints, kings, prostitutes, and derelicts, a timeline unravels: second-century fiends wait in urine-scented stairwells, delinquent specters undermine a century with tunnels, and in upstairs parlors, laborers with golden blood reduce fate to a snooker tournament. Through the labyrinthine streets and pages of Jerusalem tread ghosts singing hymns of wealth and poverty. They celebrate the English language, challenge mortality post-Einstein, and insist upon their slum as Blake's eternal holy city. COWBOYS, CREATURES AND CLASSICS: THE STORY OF REPUBLIC PICTURES

(W) Chris Enss, Howard Kazanjian

Republic Pictures was the little studio in the San Fernando Valley where movies were made family style. A core of technicians, directors, and actors worked hard at their craft as Republic released a staggering total of more than a thousand films through the late 1950s. Republic brought action, adventure, and escape to neighborhood movies houses across America. And they brought it with style. Republic Pictures became a studio where major directors could bring their personal vision to the screen. Sometimes these were projects no other studio would touch such as The Quiet Man (which brought director John Ford an Oscar) and Macbeth. Cowboys, Creatures and Classics: The Story of Republic Pictures is the honest account of an extraordinary production house, one whose ability to turn out films quickly boded well for its transition into television production. DR. STONE VOLUME 1 GN

Recommended by Luke Martin

Main character and young scientific genius, Senkuu, has had one goal his entire childhood: to personally make it to space. And if you think that all of humanity turning to stone (including him and his friends) and resetting civilization back to the Stone Age is going to stop him, you're horribly mistaken.

Dr. Stone is a new in the States manga revolving around best friends Senkuu, Taiju, and Yuzuriha (but mostly Senkuu) newly unpetrified and trying to rebuild civilization from scratch while all of humanity remain sentient statues. The post-apocalypse genre has become incredibly saturated in media over the last few years, and manga is no exception. Where Dr. Stone distinguishes itself, however, is in its unique world-ending event and its intense love of technology and scientific progress. There's a strong air of hopefulness in Dr. Stone. The core cast is regularly tackling monumental tasks, but Inagaki always makes every step feel attainable.

Breaking down major scientific achievements into understandable components is the primary strength of the series. The story often treats recreating modern things we take for granted as multi-chapter long events, wherein Senkuu describes the whole process as materials are collected, shaped, and rendered. This could run the risk of being very boring, but with the detailed accuracy of both Boichi's art work and Inagaki's writing, you often end up with the same wide eyed satisfaction as the core cast. It's very hard to accurately describe what is appealing about this manga, my suggestion is to just check it out if you're a fan of grounded science-fiction or crafting/survival games.

TALES OF THE SMITHS: A GRAPHIC BIOGRAPHY

(W/A/CA) Con Chrissolis

Tales of The Smiths is a comic book retelling of the band members' teenage years, before the group was famous, and includes fascinating digressions about their influences (the New York Dolls, Nico, Sex Pistols, NY punk, Patti Smith, etc.) and the times in which they grew up. The story reaches its climax with the meeting of Morrissey and Marr, the formation of the band in 1982, and their first gig as The Smiths. With an introduction by Simon Wolstencroft, the former drummer of The Fall and Patrol, and following Omnibus bestsellers God-Speed: The Kurt Cobain Graphic and Gabba Hey! The Graphic Story of The Ramones, this new addition will captivate fans of graphic novels and The Smiths alike. (STL090994) (C: 0-1-0)

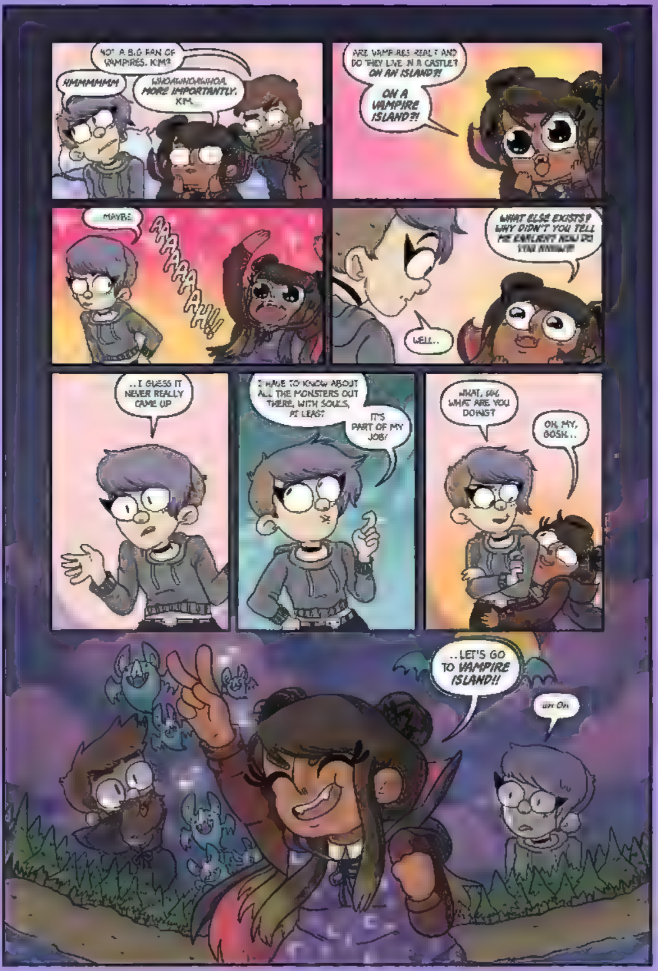
RETAILERS, DON'T MISS OUT ON THIS OPEN TO ORDER COVER B ILLUSTRATED BY KATY FARINA (STEVEN UNIVERSE)!

YOU KNOW THOSE BONE HEADS STUCK ME WITH THE WORST HOURS SINCE I BROKE THE RULES. I JUST WISH THERE WAS SOMETHING I COULD DO ABOUT IT.
I'M SO TIRED!!
SO TIRED MY EYES ARE PLAYING TRICKS ON ME. YOU'RE NOT WEARING COSTUMES... ARE YOU?
I'M A CUTE DRACULA!!
IT HEIGHTENS THE VIEWING EXPERIENCE.
WELL, I THINK THIS SHOW IS AN INCREDIBLY FLATTERING TAKE ON VAMPIRES.
REAL VAMPIRES ARE FAR MORE RIDICULOUS, IN MY OPINION. THEY THINK THEY'RE SO COOL, IN THEIR BIG CLASSY CASTLE, ON THEIR BIG FANCY ISLAND. BUT LET ME TELL YOU--
THEY'RE NOT!!



NOT A BIG FAN OF VAMPIRES, KIM?
HMMMMMM
WHOAWHOAWHOA. MORE IMPORTANTLY, KIM...
ARE VAMPIRES REAL? AND DO THEY LIVE IN A CASTLE? ON AN ISLAND?!
ON A VAMPIRE ISLAND?!
MAYBE AAAAAAAH!!
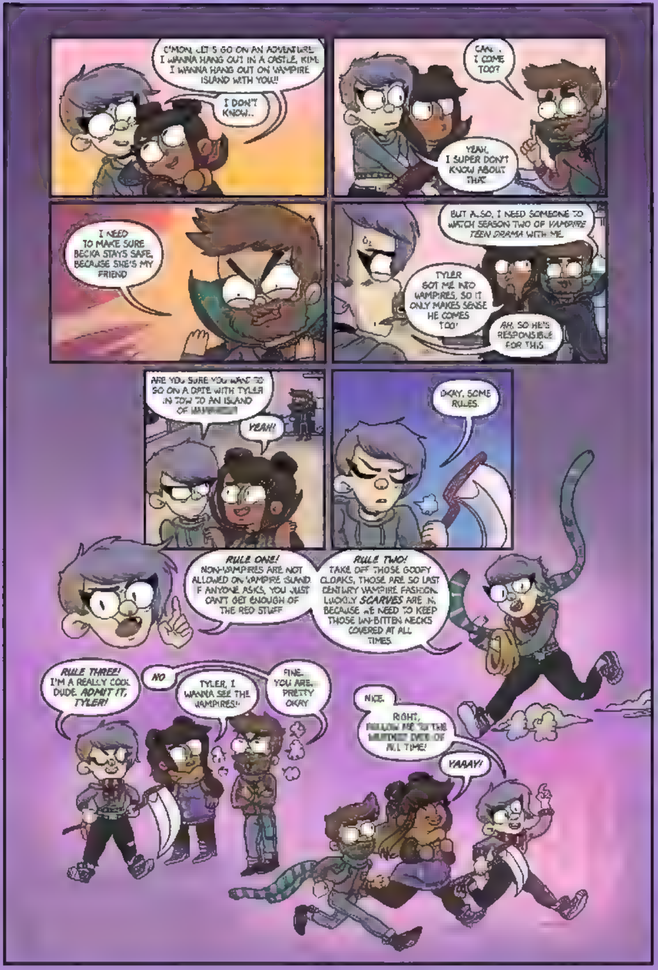
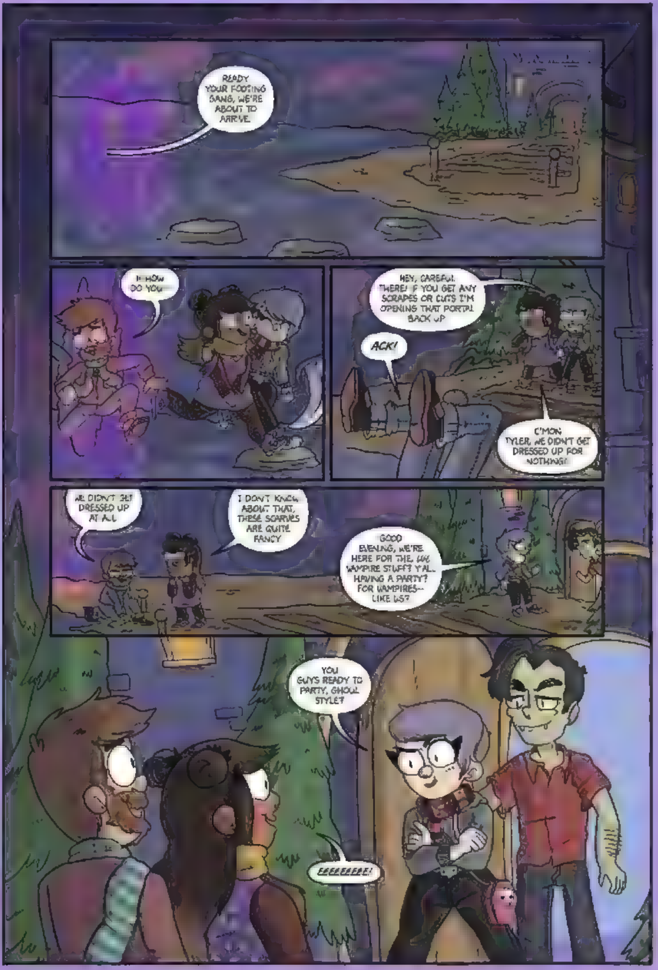
WHAT ELSE EXISTS? WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL ME EARLIER? HOW DO YOU KNOW?!
WELL..
..I GUESS IT NEVER REALLY CAME UP
I HAVE TO KNOW ABOUT ALL THE MONSTERS OUT THERE, WITH SOULS, AT LEAST
IT'S PART OF MY JOB!
WHAT, UH, WHAT ARE YOU DOING?
OH, MY, GOSH...
..LET'S GO TO VAMPIRE ISLAND!!
UH OH



C'MON, LET'S GO ON AN ADVENTURE. I WANNA HANG OUT IN A CASTLE, KIM. I WANNA HANG OUT ON VAMPIRE ISLAND WITH YOU!!
I DON'T KNOW..
CAN.. I COME TOO?
YEAH, I SUPER DON'T KNOW ABOUT THAT.
I NEED TO MAKE SURE BECKA STAYS SAFE, BECAUSE SHE'S MY FRIEND
BUT ALSO, I NEED SOMEONE TO WATCH SEASON TWO OF VAMPIRE TEEN DRAMA WITH ME.
TYLER GOT ME INTO VAMPIRES, SO IT ONLY MAKES SENSE HE COMES TOO!
AH, SO HE'S RESPONSIBLE FOR THIS.
ARE YOU SURE YOU WANT TO GO ON A DATE WITH TYLER IN TOW TO AN ISLAND OF VAMPIRES?
YEAH!
OKAY, SOME RULES.
RULE ONE! NON-VAMPIRES ARE NOT ALLOWED ON VAMPIRE ISLAND. IF ANYONE ASKS, YOU JUST CAN'T GET ENOUGH OF THE RED STUFF.
RULE TWO! TAKE OFF THOSE GOOFY CLOAKS, THOSE ARE SO LAST CENTURY VAMPIRE FASHION. LUCKILY SCARVES ARE IN, BECAUSE WE NEED TO KEEP THOSE UN-BITTEN NECKS COVERED AT ALL TIMES.
RULE THREE! I'M A REALLY COOL DUDE. ADMIT IT, TYLER!
NO
TYLER, I WANNA SEE THE VAMPIRES!
FINE. YOU ARE.. PRETTY OKAY
NICE.
RIGHT, FOLLOW ME TO THE [illegible] EVER OF ALL TIME!
YAAAY!



READY YOUR FOOTING GANG, WE'RE ABOUT TO ARRIVE.
H-HOW DO YOU--
HEY, CAREFUL THERE! IF YOU GET ANY SCRAPES OR CUTS I'M OPENING THAT PORTAL BACK UP.
ACK!
C'MON TYLER, WE DIDN'T GET DRESSED UP FOR NOTHING!
WE DIDN'T GET DRESSED UP AT ALL
I DON'T KNOW ABOUT THAT, THESE SCARVES ARE QUITE FANCY
GOOD EVENING, WE'RE HERE FOR THE, UH, VAMPIRE STUFF? Y'ALL HAVING A PARTY? FOR VAMPIRES-- LIKE US?

Erika and Matthew are ready to talk about sex!

Have you ever had a question about sex, but didn't know who to ask? Well, Erika and Matthew have spent years learning, talking, and creating informative comics about all aspects of sex. Using comics, jokes, and frank communication, they're here to demystify the world of sex and answer your questions—including ones you might not even know you had!

In this first book of their Drawn To Sex series, they tackle the practical side of sex, from the basics of what defines sex, to barriers and testing, masturbation, and the ins-and-outs of having sex with other people.

Pick up this fun book if you're looking to learn something new, understand sexuality better, or know someone (maybe you!) who might benefit from some judgment-free education. Erika and Matthew are here to help you out!

"An invaluable resource for teens growing up in areas where accurate sex education is not on the curriculum."
—NPR

"A great and hilarious resource—some of the best sex ed out there!"
DAN SAVAGE (SAVAGE LOVE, IT GETS BETTER PROJECT)

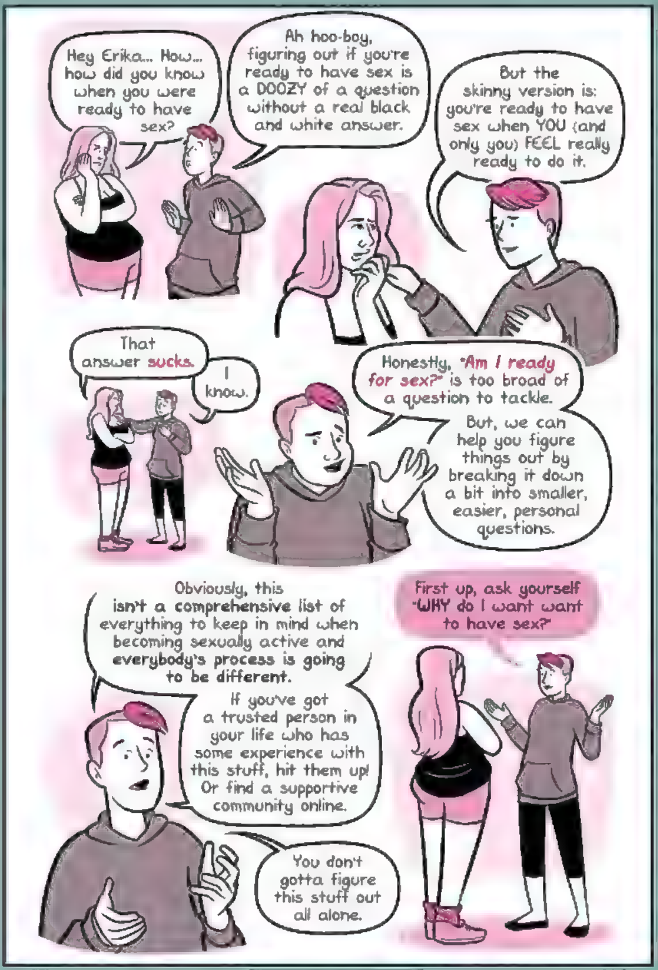
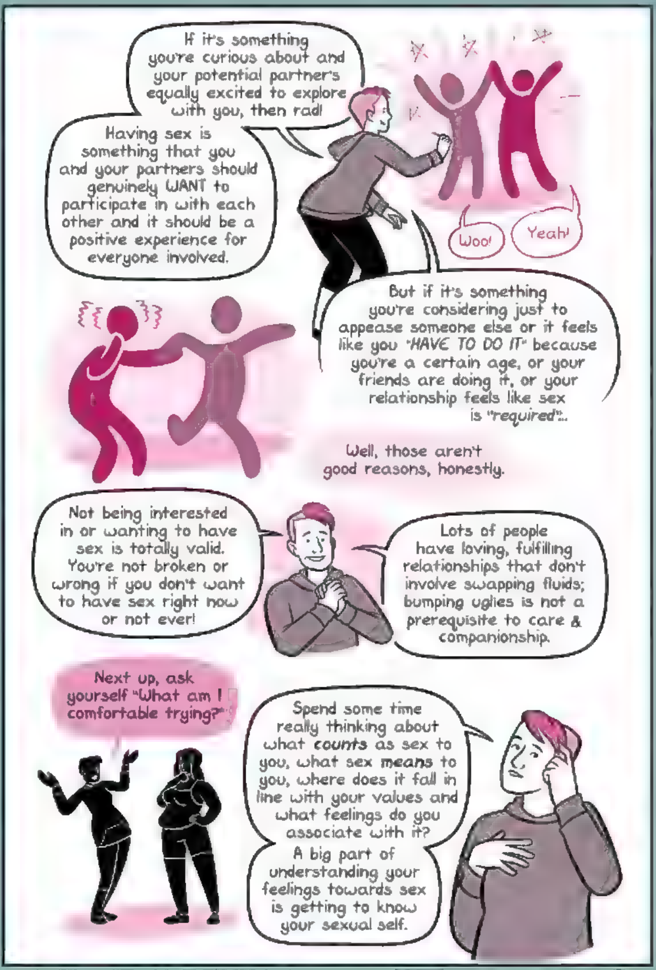
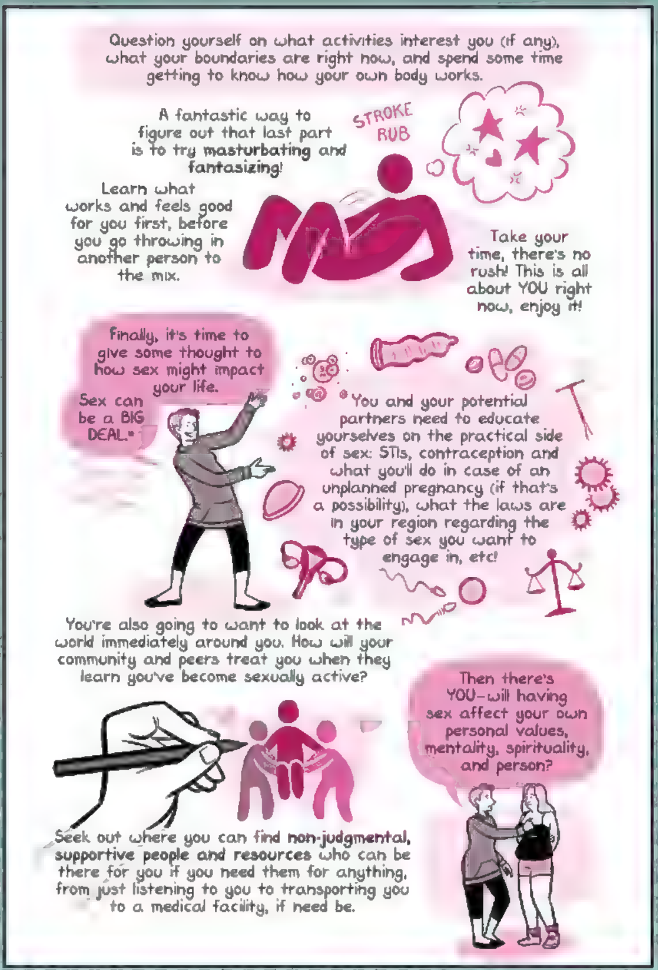
A good introduction to the basics of sex education, while hopefully making you laugh as you learn something new!



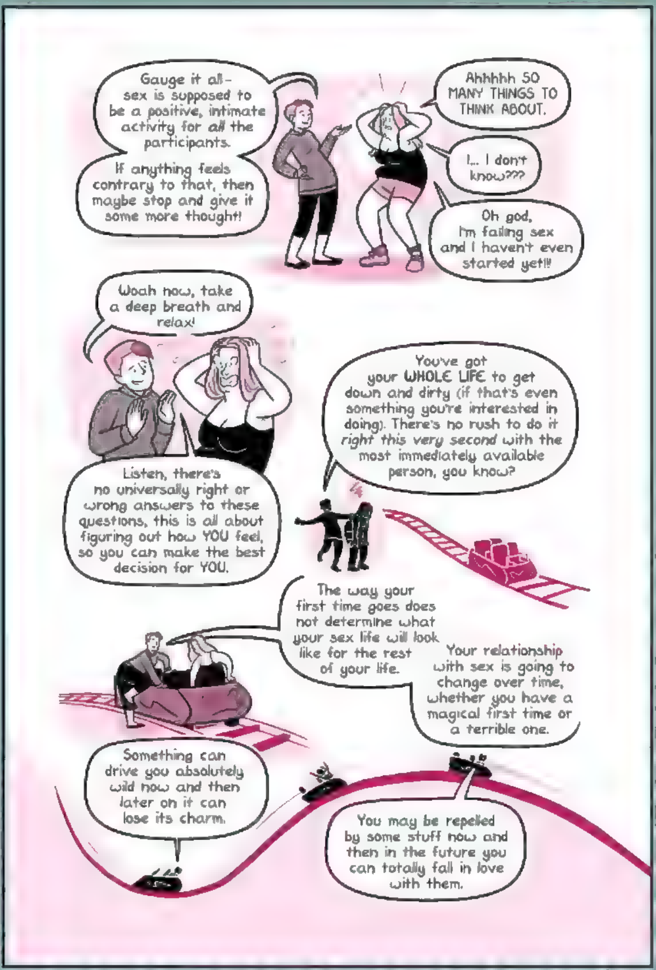
Hey Erika... How... how did you know when you were ready to have sex?
Ah hoo-boy, figuring out if you're ready to have sex is a DOOZY of a question without a real black and white answer.
But the skinny version is: you're ready to have sex when YOU (and only you) FEEL really ready to do it.
That answer sucks.
I know.
Honestly, "Am I ready for sex?" is too broad of a question to tackle.
But, we can help you figure things out by breaking it down a bit into smaller, easier, personal questions.
Obviously, this isn't a comprehensive list of everything to keep in mind when becoming sexually active and everybody's process is going to be different.
If you've got a trusted person in your life who has some experience with this stuff, hit them up! Or find a supportive community online.
You don't gotta figure this stuff out all alone.
First up, ask yourself "WHY do I want want to have sex?"



If it's something you're curious about and your potential partner's equally excited to explore with you, then rad!
Having sex is something that you and your partners should genuinely WANT to participate in with each other and it should be a positive experience for everyone involved.
Woo!
Yeah!
But if it's something you're considering just to appease someone else or it feels like you "HAVE TO DO IT" because you're a certain age, or your friends are doing it, or your relationship feels like sex is "required"...
Well, those aren't good reasons, honestly.
Not being interested in or wanting to have sex is totally valid. You're not broken or wrong if you don't want to have sex right now or not ever!
Lots of people have loving, fulfilling relationships that don't involve swapping fluids; bumping uglies is not a prerequisite to care & companionship.
Next up, ask yourself "What am I comfortable trying?"
Spend some time really thinking about what counts as sex to you, what sex means to you, where does it fall in line with your values and what feelings do you associate with it?
A big part of understanding your feelings towards sex is getting to know your sexual self.



Question yourself on what activities interest you (if any), what your boundaries are right now, and spend some time getting to know how your own body works.
A fantastic way to figure out that last part is to try masturbating and fantasizing!
STROKE
RUB
Learn what works and feels good for you first, before you go throwing in another person to the mix.
Take your time, there's no rush! This is all about YOU right now, enjoy it!
Finally, it's time to give some thought to how sex might impact your life.
Sex can be a BIG DEAL.
You and your potential partners need to educate yourselves on the practical side of sex: STIs, contraception and what you'll do in case of an unplanned pregnancy (if that's a possibility), what the laws are in your region regarding the type of sex you want to engage in, etc!
You're also going to want to look at the world immediately around you. How will your community and peers treat you when they learn you've become sexually active?
Then there's YOU—will having sex affect your own personal values, mentality, spirituality, and person?
Seek out where you can find non-judgmental, supportive people and resources who can be there for you if you need them for anything, from just listening to you to transporting you to a medical facility, if need be.



Gauge it all—sex is supposed to be a positive, intimate activity for all the participants.
If anything feels contrary to that, then maybe stop and give it some more thought!
Ahhhhh SO MANY THINGS TO THINK ABOUT.
I... I don't know???
Oh god, I'm failing sex and I haven't even started yet!!
Woah now, take a deep breath and relax!
Listen, there's no universally right or wrong answers to these questions, this is all about figuring out how YOU feel, so you can make the best decision for YOU.
You've got your WHOLE LIFE to get down and dirty (if that's even something you're interested in doing). There's no rush to do it right this very second with the most immediately available person, you know?
The way your first time goes does not determine what your sex life will look like for the rest of your life.
Your relationship with sex is going to change over time, whether you have a magical first time or a terrible one.
Something can drive you absolutely wild now and then later on it can lose its charm.
You may be repelled by some stuff now and then in the future you can totally fall in love with them.

Magic is the only thing that will help Sophia Greene-Campos reunite with Whitney, her ghost girl crush who died in the 1990s. Frustrated, Sophia turns to the one group that she knows she can learn from — Spectreville High's Wiccans & Witchcraft Club. Technically the club is only allowed to study magic and not actually practice it, but Sophia befriends a witch named Charlotte who shows her they don't all follow school rules. While Sophia is busy disobeying her parents, her ex-boyfriend Jake is struggling between expressing his romantic feelings for her and helping her to get Whitney back. And Felix is suffering the nightmarish after effects of creating a Banishment Portal at such a young age. In order to help him, Joanne and Oscar might be forced to reveal more of their knowledge about portals, two-headed poltergeists, and other secrets about The Paranormal Incident that split the family. Sophia Campos is only just getting used to her new life with her divorced dad and managing their busi-ness of helping ghosts, when she meets a ghost girl who changes everything. Not because she's a ghost, but because of what it brings out in Sophia. Soon her brother, her best friend, her old crush Jake, and her parents are all entangled together on solving the case of the dead girl. Because she's not just any average ghost girl. She also holds a piece of the puzzle to something Sophia cares about very much — what was the paranormal event that caused her parents to split up in the first place? H. P. Lovecraft
He Who Wrote in the Darkness

For all readers and admirers of this genius of supernatural fiction, the hauntingly strange and surprising story of the life of H. P. Lovecraft, vividly presented in graphic novel form for the very first time. Lovecraft had an unusual childhood marked by tragedy. His traveling salesman father developed a mental disorder and, in 1893, became a patient at the Butler Hospital in Providence, Rhode Island, and there he remained until his death. A sickly child, Lovecraft became an avid reader. He loved the works of Edgar Allan Poe and developed a special interest in astronomy. As a teenager, he suffered a nervous breakdown and became a reclusive figure, choosing to stay up late studying and reading and writing and then sleeping late into the day. During this time, he managed to start publishing short stories his inimitable form of horror fiction. As mythical as one of his own creations, his innumerable readers see him as having been a rather strange figure from another world. Who really was this recluse from Providence? PASSING FOR HUMAN: A GRAPHIC MEMOIR HC

(W/A/CA) Liana Finck

A visually arresting graphic memoir about a young artist struggling against what's expected of her as a woman, and learning to accept her true self, from an acclaimed New Yorker cartoonist. In this achingly beautiful graphic memoir, Liana Finck goes in search of that thing she has lost — her shadow, she calls it, but we can also think of it as the "otherness" or "strangeness" that has defined her since birth, that part of her that has always felt as though she is living in exile from the world. In Passing for Human, Finck is on a quest for self-understanding and self-acceptance—and along the way, she seeks to answer some eternal questions: What makes us whole? What parts of ourselves do we hide or ignore or chase away — because they're embarrassing, or inconvenient, or just plain weird — and at what cost? (STL091469) (C: 1-1-0) NOTE: Not available in England, Wales, Australia, New Zealand, and Singapore.

the Source

THE SOURCE #1

(W) Don Handfield
(A) Charles Carvalho
The Source is the story of Bennett Miller, a high school teacher in East St Louis who still lives with his grandmother. One day Bennett is approached after his class by a mysterious old woman, Ms. Putnam, who tells him that magic is real... and he's the one prophesied to return it to humanity. The only problem, it's been outlawed for thousands of years by the ancient Few, a powerful sect who hoard it to prolong their own lives and will stop at nothing to keep it secret. Based on true history, real legends, and actual folklore and myths. Co-written by History Channel's Knightfall writer Don Handfield and Joshua Malkin and Illustrated by Leno Carvalho. (STL091013)

STABBITY BUNNY #8

(W) Richard Rivera (A) Dwayne Biddix
Grace and Amanda, shattered by previous events, seek answers from the ally mentioned by Ezra's ghost. This leads directly to the Stabbity Bunny origin story! The events of a century ago changed the bunny forever and simultaneously extinguished Grace's family line. We also get a glimpse of a possible first and featuring the first appearance of the world of Shadow Play, leading into its own spin-off series in early 2019! (STL091009)

STABBITY EVER AFTER #1

(W) Richard Rivera
(A) Dwayne Biddix
This alternate reality version of Stabbity Bunny takes place nowhere near the world of the regular series. This is for those who crave unbridled mayhem and long to see the ultimate bunny fury unleashed! Stabbity takes on the fairyland inhabitants who stand in his way as he fights to rescue Grace from an evil sorcerer. No profanity. No sexual situations. It's a mixture of humor and extreme cartoony violence for the fans that need more Stabbity goodness in their lives. Brought to life by the talents of Richard Rivera and Ryan Kincaid. Be sure to get in on the ground floor of this epic offering! (STL091016)

(A) Ralf Singh
While our little group sets sail for new horizons, with a little help from James' old friend Captain Sarra, we turn to gaze at the past as three amazing guest artists each tell a story that provides a closer look at what makes our heroes — and villains — tick. Why did James leave the safe harbor of "The Fridge" and what does this mean for Claire? Is Andrew really the man he seems to be? And who is that red-eyed figure we saw with the Followers? It's a ride to the past, for a brand new look at the world of Zinnober! (STL091010)

FLOCKS GN

(W/A/CA) L. Nichols

L. Nichols, a trans man, artist, engineer and father of two, was born in rural Louisiana, assigned female and raised by conservative Christians. Flocks is his memoir of that childhood, and of his family, friends and community, the flocks of Flocks, that shaped and re-shaped him. L.'s irrestibly charming drawings demonstrate what makes Flocks so special: L.'s boundless empathy. (STL090914) (C: 0-1-0)

Since the turn of the century, technology has transformed the way we communicate and consume, how we work and fall in love and navigate the world. We are increasingly reliant on it — but few of us know anything about the science that is driving this technological change. Kurt Vonnegut famously said that to leave technology out of fiction is to misrepresent life. Here, six acclaimed graphic novelists present reports from the digital frontier. Exploring everything from artificial intelligence to virtual reality, I Feel Machine is by turns cautionary and celebratory, touching and terrifying. It challenges and confronts the digital world using the most technologically efficient machine ever invented: the book. (STL090578) (C: 0-1-0)

NICK CAVE & THE BAD SEEDS: AN ART BOOK HC

In his graphic biography Nick Cave: Mercy on Me, Reinhard Kleist painted an expressive and enthralling portrait of the musician, novelist, poet, and actor. It is, according to Nick Cave himself, "a complex, chilling and completely bizarre journey into Cave World." Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds: An Art Book collects Kleist's moody and expressive portraits of the musician and his band, spanning 30 years of writing, recording, and live performance. Kleist also returns readers to Cave's imaginative world with comic book reimaginings of "Deanna," "The Good Son," and "Stagger Lee." Filled with visual delights, this record-size art book is a kaleidoscopic portrait of Nick Cave's wide-ranging career as a storyteller, musician, and cultural icon. (STL090579) (C: 0-1-0)

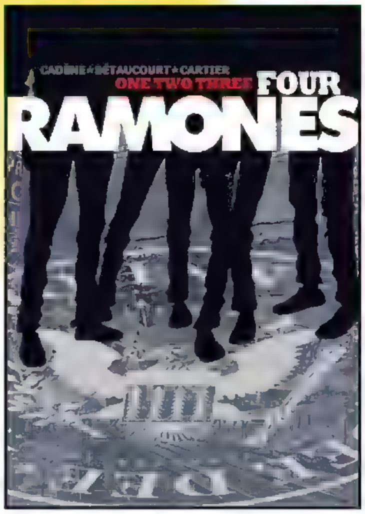
ONE TWO THREE FOUR RAMONES GN

(W) Bruno Cadene, Xavier Betaucourt
(A) Eric Cartier



In the mid-1970s The Ramones reinvigorated a lifeless rock 'n' roll scene. Drugs, prostitution, teenage rebellion: the punk quartet wrote about what they knew—and the result was an explosive, radical new sound. Told through the eyes of Dee Dee Ramone, this graphic novel traces the life of the band's creative soul, spanning his troubled years at a military school in Germany, his early experiences with opiates, his family's relocation to New York, and his first encounters with fellow misfits Joey, Johnny, and Tommy. This fascinating graphic portrait of the band's development takes readers from The Ramone's dismal first show to Dee Dee's death in 2002, shortly after the band was inducted into the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame. It's the beginning of the new school year and AJ feels like everyone is changing but him. He hasn't grown or had any exciting summer adventures like his best friends have. He even has the same crush he's harbored for years. So AJ decides to take matters into his own hands. But how could a girl like Nia Winters ever like plain vanilla AJ when she only has eyes for vampires? When AJ and Nia are paired up for a group project on Transylvania, it may be AJ's chance to win over Nia's affection by dressing up like the vamp of her dreams. And soon enough he's got more of Nia's attention than he bargained for when he learns she's a slayer. Now AJ has to worry about self-preservation while also trying to save everyone he cares about from a real-life threat lurking in the shadows of Spoons Middle School. (STL090878)

Remember the days of bad graphics, glitchy software and seemingly pointless games? What were we thinking? How did we cope? This humorous yet fond look at gaming of old is sure to have gamers shaking their heads in wonder and chuckling at the craziness of what we had to put up. And yet there is no denying that many of the games we played back in that golden era have helped to shape the world of gaming and brought us to where we are now. Each spread focuses on a different game, console or trend in gaming so the book can be picked up and opened at any place for a laugh-a-minute. (STL090996) (C: 0-1-0)

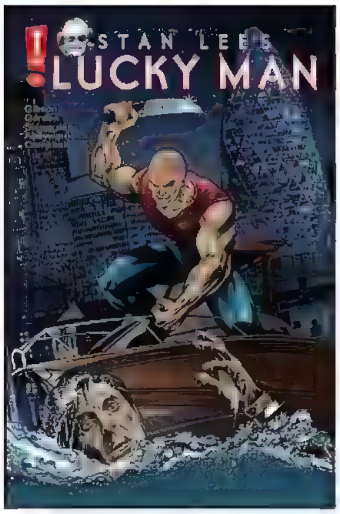
STAN LEE'S LUCKY MAN: THE BRACELET CHRONICLES #3

(W) Neil Gibson, Michael Gordon
(A) Atula Siriwardane, Asoka Abeywardena
(CA) Atula Siriwardane

Stan Lee's Lucky Man follows the story of detective Harry Clayton after he is unwillingly granted the power to control luck — for good and bad! (STL091192) (C: 0-0-1)
24pgs, FC (3 of 4)......................... $3.99



TRANSDIMENSIONAL

TRANSDIMENSIONAL #1

The story focusses on Deacon Price, an emotionally broken underwater archaeologist who charters an expedition, under false pretences, to a downed Soviet submarine that's been missing for decades. What he and his crew find there will not only put their lives at risk, but also the lives of everyone they've ever known! (STL091150)

THE MAGIC MIRROR OF M.C. ESCHER HC

(A/CA) M. c. Escher

Long before the first computer-generated 3-D images, M. C. Escher was a master of the third dimension. His impossible geometry and illusions, bordering between the scientific and psychological, are an homage to the possibilities of the human mind. This collection presents the artist's key graphic works and illustrations in stunning full-page reproductions, complete with detailed explanations of each mathematical problem. (STL090531) (C: 0-1-0)

R. CRUMB SKETCHBOOK VOLUME 4: 1982-1989 HC

(A/CA) Robert Crumb

This book spans the years 1982 to 1989, a period when the artist was comfortably ensconced in rural California, raising his young daughter Sophie, who appears throughout this volume. But Crumb was still Crumb, declaring in one drawing, above a lovingly rendered tree, "As I get older I get more twisted, convoluted, depraved, cynical, embittered, self-centered, jaded, debauched, ruthless, greedy, conceited, set-in-my-ways, long-winded, absent-minded, prejudiced, closed-minded, misanthropic, nervous..." To prove this self-flagellating analysis he fills the pages with his signature perversions (in country settings), scathing social commentary, cruel self-portraits, experimental cubism... and some lovely sylvan landscape. His mastery of the Rapidograph pen is at its zenith here in his 40s. (STL090530) (C: 0-1-0) NOTE: Not available in the U.K. (May Purchase from U.K. Vendor)

R. CRUMB SKETCHBOOK VOLUME 1: JUN. 1964-MAR. 1966 HC (NEW PRINTING)

From the very beginning, even before the sexual revolution made Robert Crumb the world's most celebrated underground cartoonist, he felt compelled to commit his sexual fantasies to paper. Once upon a time, he'd destroy them, fearful of others discovering his quirky tastes. Then he found that baring his soul provided a sort of therapy, leading him to immortalize every desire in pen and ink. This compact new edition, sourced from the same Robert Crumb Sketchbooks 1964–1982, offers the same high-quality obsession at a bargain price. Through satire, psychedelia, and outlandish sexually obsessed characters, 448 pages bring the best of Crumb's prolific mid-1960's period of June 1964 to September 1968. R. CRUMB SKETCHBOOK VOLUME 2: SEPT. 1968-JAN. 1975 HC (NEW PRINTING)

Called the Bruegel of underground art, Robert Crumb is an American icon of comic introspection, cultural satire, and sexual obsession. This new collection presents an affordable 444-page trip through the hippie years, 1968-1975, personally sourced by the artist from his original sketchbooks. This volume combines the two middle volumes from the second boxed set, produced directly from the original artworks. This book contains hundreds of sketches from the master of underground comic art, including cover roughs for Zap, Motor City, and Despair comics, the introduction of Aline, and much more, all wrapped up in front and back illustrations newly hand-colored by Crumb himself. Among the hundreds of subjects included are Crumb's move to rural California, his marriage to Aline Kominsky, the birth of daughter Sophie, as well as further adventures of Mr. Natural, mischievous Snoids, Arcade comics strips, political discontent, existential angst, huge powerful women, geeky little guys, Mao Tse Tung, Mick Jagger and moral outrage, all wrapped up in a quality hard cover featuring front and back illustrations newly hand-colored by Crumb himself. WALT DISNEY'S DISNEYLAND HC

(W) Chris Nichols
Walt Disney dreamed for decades about opening the ultimate entertainment venue, but it wasn't until the early 1950s that his handpicked team began to bring his vision to life. Together, artists, architects, and engineers transformed a dusty tract of orange groves into one of the world's most beloved destinations, one that every child in America begs to visit. The original Disneyland in Anaheim, California, remains one of America's most popular attractions, drawing over 16 million visitors each year. This bountiful visual history draws on Disney's vast archives, private collections, and the golden age of photojournalism to provide unique access to the concept, development, launch, and enjoyment of this sun-drenched oasis of fun and fantasy. ART & ARCANA
A VISUAL HISTORY

(W) Michael Witwer & Various
Dungeons & Dragons is one of the most iconic and pervasive gaming franchises in the world. This officially licensed illustrated history provides an unprecedented look at the visual evolution of the game, showing its continued influence on the worlds of pop culture and fantasy. It features more than 700 pieces of artwork from each edition of the game's core books, supplements, and modules; decades of Dragon and Dungeon magazines; classic advertisements and merchandise; and never-before-seen sketches, large-format canvases, rare photographs, one-of-a-kind drafts and more from the now-famous designers and artists associated with the game. This deluxe slipcase edition of the illustrated guide to the history and evolution of Dungeons & Dragons includes one-of-a-kind art from Hydro74, one of the most acclaimed contemporary D&D artists; frameable, high-quality reproductions of truly unique native art; and a facsimile reproduction of Gary Gygax's never-before-seen, historic first draft of the Tomb of Horrors adventure, a rarity many thought was lost to the ages. HIGH

Valiant proudly presents its first ALL-AGES escapade with a pitch-perfect entry point for new fans and longtime readers alike!

Before they became legends, the world's most formidable heroes were roaming the halls at Valiant High - a super-powered preparatory academy where Aric "X-O Manowar" Dacia is a record-setting running back, Colin "Ninjak" King is a debonair foreign exchange student, and Coach Bloodshot is way, way too into dodgeball. Now, Amanda "Livewire" McKee and her best friend, Faith "Zephyr" Herbert, are taking it all in for the first time at the one high school where power trumps popularity!

From rising star Daniel Kibblesmith (The Late Show with Stephen Colbert) and Eisner Award-winning artist Derek Charm (Jughead), get ready for your first day of school inside a hilarious reimagining of Valiant's award-winning superhero universe - one where the next world-ending cataclysm will have to wait until after prom night!

In the tradition of Archie and DC Super Hero Girls, this side-splitting adventure takes place outside of Valiant's standard continuity and comes packed with all-new incarnations of virtually every Valiant hero and villain! You've never seen the heroes of the Valiant Universe quite like this before!

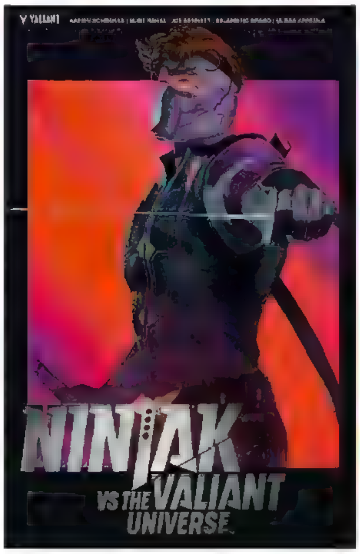
NINJAK VS. THE VALIANT UNIVERSE TPB



A blistering battle royale!

Watch the live-action digital series, then jump headlong into the fight-fueled showdown of the century as acclaimed writer Eliot Rahal (The Paybacks) and red-hot artist Joe Bennett (Teen Titans, Deathstroke) reveal the full scope and adrenaline-drenched intensity of NINJAK VS. THE VALIANT UNIVERSE!

Colin King is Ninjak, MI6's deadliest intelligence operative and weapons expert. When the ruthless assassin Roku exploits his greatest weakness, Ninjak will be forced to betray his closest allies. Now, on the run, he must face off against the most powerful heroes known to man for a high-octane, take no prisoners, trial by fire more perilous and more unpredictable than any he's faced before. In 2018, the world's most dangerous super-spy goes to war with the Valiant Universe...

Guest-starring X-O Manowar, Bloodshot, Livewire, Archer & Armstrong, Shadowman, and more, don't miss the ULTIMATE JUMPING-ON POINT for the most acclaimed and hotly followed publisher anywhere in comics today as Ninjak leads an all-star introduction to the most brutal fighters the Valiant Universe has to offer!

MY HERO ACADEMIA: THE CARD GAME

Recommended by Luke Martin

Much to my joy, My Hero Academia has boomed into a smash hit in the mainstream. That alone should be enough to sell someone familiar with it on Shinobi7's new competitive card game. If it's not, I suppose I have a few good reasons why people should be interested. My Hero Academia: The Card Game focuses on an oft mentioned, but rarely explored aspect of the series lore: Hero Agencies. In the game, you play as an agency attempting to build its renown in the world by completing missions with teams of heroes that you build yourself from the 40 student cards in the respective deck. The primary appeal of the game for me, is building teams based around synergies with the various student's quirks. It's reminiscent of what made the cavalry battle in the main series such an enjoyable thing to watch, and trouncing your friend's teams to outclass their agency is equally as satisfying. All in all, I think this is the most interesting licensed game Shinobi7 has made to date, with mechanics that are well suited to the series and a pace of play that should make for a plus ultra time with a small group of friends!

KAFKAESQUE: FOURTEEN STORIES GN

(W/A/CA) Peter Kuper

Long fascinated with the work of Franz Kafka, Peter Kuper began illustrating his stories in 1988. Initially drawn to the master's dark humor, Kuper adapted the stories over the years to plumb their deeper truths. Kuper's style deliberately evokes Lynd Ward and Frans Masereel, contemporaries of Kafka whose wordless novels captured much of the same claustrophobia and mania as Kafka's tales. Longtime lovers of Kafka will appreciate Kuper's innovative interpretations, including "A Hunger Artist," "In The Penal Colony," and "The Burrow." Kafkaesque stands somewhere between adaptation and wholly original creation, going beyond a simple illustration of Kafka's words to become a stunning work of art. MIYAZAKIWORLD: A LIFE IN ART HC

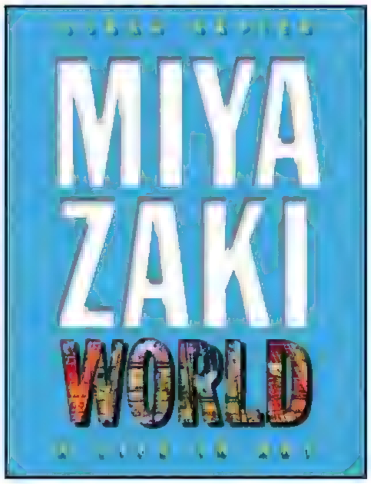
(W) Susan Napier
(A) Hayao Miyazaki



A thirtieth-century toxic jungle, a bathhouse for tired gods, a red-haired fish girl, and a furry woodland spirit—what do these have in common? They all spring from the mind of Hayao Miyazaki, one of the greatest living animators, known worldwide for films such as My Neighbor Totoro, Princess Mononoke, Spirited Away, Howl's Moving Castle, and The Wind Rises. Japanese culture and animation scholar Susan Napier explores the life and art of this extraordinary Japanese filmmaker to provide a definitive account of his oeuvre. Napier insightfully illuminates the multiple themes crisscrossing his work, from empowered women to environmental nightmares to utopian dreams, creating an unforgettable portrait of a man whose art challenged Hollywood dominance and ushered in a new chapter of global popular culture. MORE ABOUT MANGA!

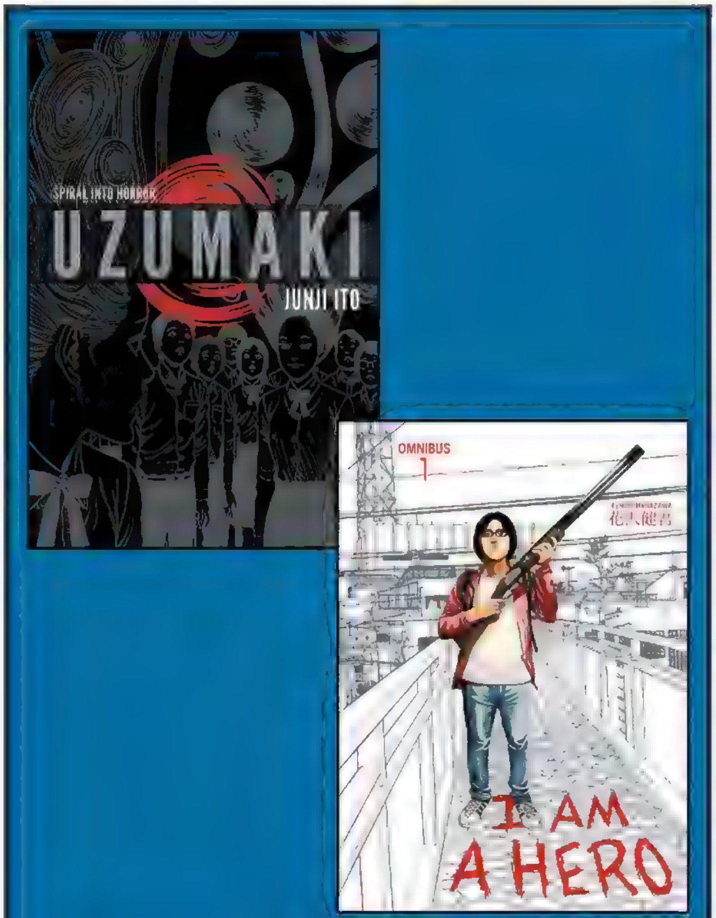
Stories about vengeful spirits more powerful in death than they were in life were commonplace in Edo Japan, and these scary stories — known as "kaidan" — typically came with a moral or lesson for the listener to take to heart, often recorded in early manga-style images for later generations to enjoy.



Having evolved from their more ancient origins, modern Japanese horror tales are called just that; horaa or "horror". Seen throughout Japanese movies, video games and novels, this uniquely Japanese take on what goes bump in the night can be found in dozens of manga titles as well.

Body horror is a theme that carries on from ancient folktales, with limbs just a bit too long and faces that twist in ways that haunt the mind.

Yokai (supernatural monsters and strange creatures both malevolent and harmless) have become well-known thanks to franchises like Yo-kai Watch, and with the popularity of J-Horror movies like The Ring and the Grudge, more and more fans in the west are welcoming these creepy tales from Japan!

It's Naoto's first day of college, and the last person he expected to see was his high school ex Taichi, who he'd dumped after a huge argument. Although years have passed, Naoto finds he's still steamed over some of the harsh words that were exchanged. Even so, he can't help but recognize how much Taichi has matured since then, and soon old feelings begin to stir. Will the discovery of his friend's crush on Taichi further fray the threads of this tattered but mending relationship—or strengthen the ties that bind?

OTHERWORLDLY IZAKAYA NOBU Vol.1

Original by: NATSUYA SEMIKAWA
Manga by: VIRGINIA NITOUHEI

164pgs, 5.75x8.25", B&W, Manga $12.99

A Japanese style pub called "Nobu" exists in a back alley of the fictional medieval European city of Eiteriach. Its customers? A pair of slacker soldiers, a spoiled heiress, an uptight tax collector, and more... When the citizens of this strange world sit down to enjoy some unfamiliar Japanese cuisine, their troubles simply melt away... The curtain rises on this otherworldly eatery and the gourmet fantasy about to unfold within!

WHAT IS THIS?

20th Century Boys is a science fiction thriller with a story that spans several generations and deals with themes of conspiracy, government corruption and revolution. The Perfect Edition bind-up includes two volumes of the original edition as well as color pages previously printed only in black and white!

Humanity, having faced extinction at the end of the 20th century, would not have entered the new millennium if it weren't for them. In 1969, during their youth, they created a symbol. In 1997, as the coming disaster slowly starts to unfold, that symbol returns. This is the story of a group of boys who try to save the world.

RADIANT

Seth is an aspiring wizard living in a pastoral village under the watchful eye of his mentor. Like all wizards, he is an "infected": one of the few living creatures that has survived contact with a Nemesis, creatures fallen from the sky that contaminate all they touch. His apparent immunity led him to choose a path that seemed to be perfect–to become someone who hunts and fights the Nemesis. But Seth longs for a quest that goes beyond the simple hunt for monsters. He wants to find their home, Radiant. Along with other wizards, he travels the world in search of Radiant, under the sinister eye of the Inquisition…

FOUR ALL-NEW STORIES IN A BEAUTIFUL FULL-COLOR 160-PAGE HARDCOVER!

A covert mission in Shanghai reunites Kusanagi with a wartime rival amid shifting loyalties. The infiltration of an anti-cyberization cult calls for Section 9's most "human" members to do things the old-fashioned way. A deep dive into the mind of a criminal forces Kusanagi to question the nature of imagination—and her own identity. The stories in Global Neural Network bring a 21st-century perspective to its questions of human identity and the border between mind and machine that made The Ghost in the Shell one of the most revered manga of all time, and unleash top Western comics artists on eye-popping action scenes starring Kusanagi, Batou, Togusa, Aramaki, and all the members of Section 9!

Featuring stories by:

Alex de Campi (Twisted Romance, Grindhouse)
& Giannis Milonogiannis (Prophet)

MY BROTHER'S HUSBAND VOLUME 2 GN

(W/A/CA) Gengoroh Tagame

The concluding volume in the story of Yaichi, his daughter Kana, and how their meeting Mike Flanagan — Yaichi's brother-in-law — changes their lives and their perceptions of acceptance of homosexuality in their contemporary Japanese culture. As Mike continues his journey of discovery concerning Ryoji's past, Yaichi gradually comes to understand that being gay is just another way of being human. And that, in many ways, remains a radical concept in Japan even today. In the meantime, the bond between Mike and young Kana grows ever stronger, and yet he is going to have to return to Canada soon, a fact that fills them both with impending heartbreak. But not before more than a few revelations come to light. (STL091393) (C: 0-1-0)

MY BROTHER'S HUSBAND
VOLUME 1
GENGOROH TAGAME

(W/A/CA) Gengoroh Tagame

From one of Japan's most notable graphic novelists: a heartbreaking and redemptive tale of mourning and acceptance. Yaichi is a work-at-home suburban dad in contemporary Tokyo, married to wife Natsuki, father to young daughter Kana. Their lives are suddenly upended with the arrival at their doorstep of a hulking, affable Canadian named Mike Flanagan, who declares himself the widower of Yaichi's estranged gay twin, Ryoji. Mike is on a quest to explore Ryoji's past, and the family reluctantly but dutifully takes him in. What follows is an unprecedented journey into the largely still-closeted Japanese gay culture: how it's been affected by the West, and how the next generation has the chance to change the preconceptions of and prejudices against it. TO LOVE-RU DARKNESS GN'S

(W) Saki Hasemi (A/CA) Kentaro Yabuki

Momo is the younger sister of Lala, the alien princess who has long since been engaged to the human Rito. Although Rito's heart continues to waver between Lala and his first crush, Haruna, Momo finds herself unable to deny the feelings she has for the hapless human male. Instead of giving up, Momo attempts to surround Rito with a harem of beautiful women, all working towards urging him to marry Lala, become crowned as King, and as a result, be allowed to marry his entire harem — Momo included! WORLD'S END HAREM VOLUME 3 GN

The Man-Killer Virus: a lethal disease that has eradicated 99.9% of the world's male population. Mizuhara Reito has been in cryogenic sleep for the past five years, leaving behind Tachibana Erisa, the girl of his dreams. When Reito awakens from the deep freeze, he emerges into a sex-crazed new world where he himself is the planet's most precious resource. Reito and four other male studs are given lives of luxury and one simple mission: repopulate the world by impregnating as many women as possible! All Reito wants, however, is to find his beloved Erisa who went missing three years ago. Can Reito resist temptation and find his one true love? (STL088082) (C: 0-1-2)

AFTER THE RAIN VOLUME 1 GN

(W/A/CA) Jun Mayuzuki

Akira Tachibana is a soft-spoken high school student who used to be a part of the track and field club but, due to an injury, she is no longer able to run as fast as she once could. Working part-time at a family restaurant as a recourse, she finds herself inexplicably falling in love with her manager, a divorced 45-year-old man with a young son. Despite the age gap, Akira wholeheartedly embraces his mannerisms and kind nature, which is seen as spinelessness by the other employees, and little by little, the two begin to understand each other. Although unable to explain why exactly she is attracted to him, Akira believes that a concrete reason is not needed to truly love someone. On a rainy day, she decides to finally tell her manager about how she feels, but how will he react? (STL091300) (C: 1-1-0) NOTE: Available only in the United States and Canada.

あらゐけいいち

Nagumo is in a bit of a bind. She's a college student, and like many people in her situation, is struggling with money. She is in debt and her landlord is trying to shake her down for rent. Asking her friends no longer works! They know her deal and they do not have the cash to prop her up, even temporarily. So what is she supposed to do under these circumstances? Well maybe bullying would help. Maybe petty theft? Neither one is realistic. Maybe getting a job would settle things. But that means working and not having fun in the big city. That also means not spending all your earnings before paying your rent. Life in the city is an adventure. Thankfully, it's a fruitful and entertaining one at that! (STL091293) (C: 1-1-0)

MOBILE SUIT GUNDAM WING: GLORY OF THE LOSERS VOLUME 8 GN

(W) Katsuyuki Sumizawa (A) Tomofumi Ogasawara, Yoshiyuki Tomino

One of the biggest anime/manga properties of all time returns with the release of Mobile Suit Gundam Wing. The Glory of Losers retells the original WING story by incorporating elements of the anime and its recent light novel adaptations. Following the actions of five fighters and their mobile suits (large robots made for destruction), Gundam Wing is a heavily political, dramatic action work that is centered around a war between Earth and its nearby colonies in space. (STL091305) (C: 1-1-0) NOTE: Available only in the United States and Canada.

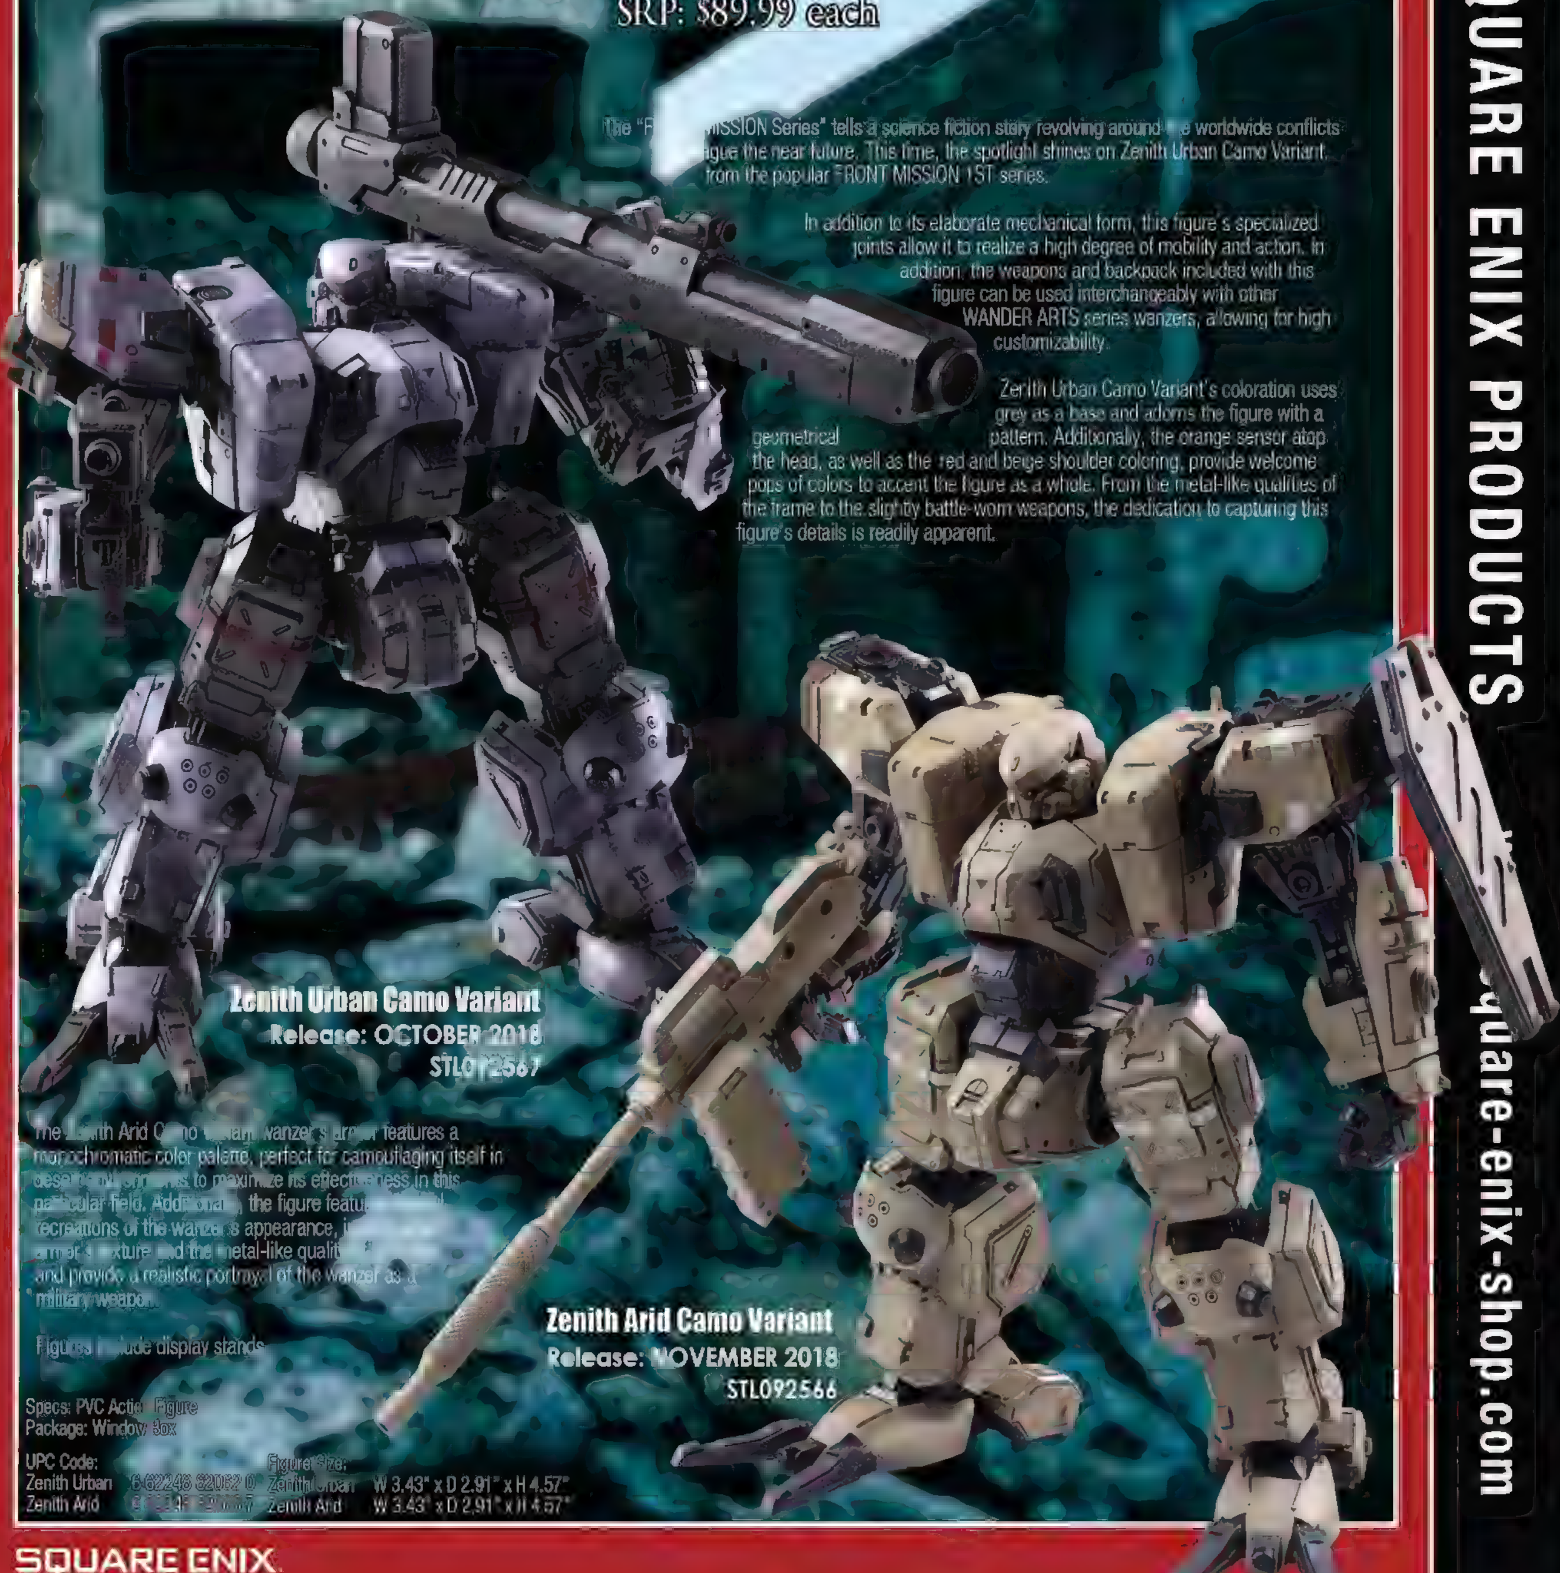
WANDER ARTS
Release: JULY 2018

SRP: $89.99 each



The "FRONT MISSION Series" tells a science fiction story revolving around the worldwide conflicts that plague the near future. This time, the spotlight shines on Zenith Urban Camo Variant from the popular FRONT MISSION 1ST series.

In addition to its elaborate mechanical form, this figure's specialized joints allow it to realize a high degree of mobility and action. In addition, the weapons and backpack included with this figure can be used interchangeably with other WANDER ARTS series wanzers, allowing for high customizability.

Zenith Urban Camo Variant's coloration uses grey as a base and adorns the figure with a geometrical pattern. Additionally, the orange sensor atop the head, as well as the red and beige shoulder coloring, provide welcome pops of colors to accent the figure as a whole. From the metal-like qualities of the frame to the slightly battle-worn weapons, the dedication to capturing this figure's details is readily apparent.

TOY TALK: PAT WANG

Toys, Statues and other collectibles don't just magically appear on store shelves. A lot of work goes into the concept, design, sculpting and final production of these items, and many of the people who work behind-the-scenes with companies like Diamond Select, DC Collectibles and Gentle Giant, among others, remain mostly unknown to their appreciative audience: the final consumer.

With Toy Talk, we hope to introduce you to the artisans behind some of your favorite collectibles, and to let them enjoy their well-deserved moment in the spotlight!

This month, we welcome Icon Heroes Vice President of Sales & Markerting, PAT WANG...

TOY TALK: What is your position at Icon Heroes, and what do you do?

PAT WANG: I assist with product development, sales and marketing. Most of my time is spent coordinating projects with our art director, sculptors, painters, etc. Then, I work on getting the products presented to buyers.

TT: How did you get into the Toy industry?

PW: I used to have a retail company where we carried products from almost every toy company. Being in a retail environment gave me a good idea of what sells.

TT: Which of your products in the July PREVIEWS are you most excited about?

PW: I'm very excited about the Harry Potter line! As a fan of the films, it's been great re-watching them to get ideas of what to make next.

TT: What was the design process for the Severus Snape and Lord Voldemort statues?

PW: We are all Harry Potter fans here, so it was pretty easy to come up with a consensus list of who we felt were the most popular characters, and Snape and Voldemort were two characters that were consistently on that list.

TT: What are some of your personal favorites from the Icon Heroes line?

PW: Some of my favorites are the first statues from a line: Our first Arrow, The Flash and Supergirl statues from the DC/CW shows; the Harry Potter "Quidditch" figure; the Hook statue from ABC's Once Upon a Time — the actor Colin O'Donoghue signed a bunch of them, which was nice! We also have some exciting things coming soon, which I can't talk about yet!

TT: What do you like about working in the Toy industry?

PW: It's always cool to see products developed from films and TV shows that we also enjoy watching. From that aspect, it becomes much less of a "job".

CARRY AROUND THE WORLD'S CUTEST DEMOGORGON

Just like Dustin Henderson did in the Netflix smash hit series Stranger Things, you'll soon be able to carry around your very own Demogorgon!

Courtesy of McFarlane Toys, Dart will soon to be able to sit in the palm of your hand and will show off its iconic mouth and teeth when squeezed. Squeezable Dart is five inches long and features an exact likeness of the mysterious monster from the Upside Dart.

If you need a refresher from Hawkins, Indiana: Dart (named after one of the musketeers from The Three Musketeers, a reference to the Demo-dog's favorite candy) was found by Dustin in a trash can and soon became boy's secret pet. Dart appeared once again in the season finale at the Hawkins Laboratory.

It might be a bit before we get to return to Hawkins to revisit Dustin, Will, Mike, Max, Lucas, and Eleven. So, now when you get a little homesick for your favorite fictional town, you can carry a souvenir with Squeezable Dart.

We promise it'll turn your world Upside Down.

SAVE MONEY WITH INFINITY GAUNTLET BANK IN A SNAP

The Infinity Gauntlet is used in Avengers: Infinity War by Thanos to wipe out half of the population of the universe and caused some theatergoers to shed more than a few tears.

But for the rest of us, it'll help make some smart financial decisions.

Monogram International introduces the Infinity Gauntlet PVC Bank, featuring a near exact likeness to the gauntlet Thanos wields to wreak havoc on the universe. Avengers: Infinity War has become the highest grossing comic book movie of all-time and has left fans impatiently waiting for its untitled sequel in April 2019.

As the movie's box office haul has skyrocketed, so too has the popularity of Thanos, the intergalactic warlord desperate for universal balance. Josh Brolin's portrayal of the villain has garnered critical acclaim.

You'll be wanting to gather all the Thanos collectibles before the Avengers sequel drops next year, so this Infinity Gauntlet will help you save up.

No promises that it won't turn half of your money to dust.

MARVEL: ANIMATED-STYLE WOLVERINE STATUE

Wolverine has been one of the top three most requested characters for Gentle Giant's line of Marvel Animated Statues and now the wait is over! Wolverine is here, bub, and he may be small but he is full of berserker rage in his classic tiger-stripe costume! Wolverine is the eighteenth release in our popular and adorable Marvel animated statues based on the Marvel comic books covers done by fan-favorite artist Skottie Young. The Wolverine Statue was digitally sculpted and carefully printed on state of the art 3D Systems 3D printers. The high-resolution prints were then used in the creation of prototypes needed to produce this animated collectible. Each animated statue is hand-cast, hand-painted, and hand-numbered with a limited edition Certificate of Authenticity. (STL092638) Scheduled to ship in December 2018. (5498/80825) (C: 0-1-2)

THE INCREDIBLES MC-007: MR. INCREDIBLE 1/4-SCALE STATUE

From Beast Kingdom.

A PREVIEWS Exclusive! The Master Craft series presented by Beast Kingdom brings you Mr. Incredible, the once famous superhero who enjoys leading a secluded life featured in the 2004 superhero animated film produced by Pixar: The Incredibles. With their masterful skills, the clay artists of Beast Kingdom carved out the soul of the animated character. Utilizing exquisite hand painting techniques, they reproduced with utmost perfection the former superhero who is now a "house husband." From his fiery eyes and combat ready stance, we can catch a glimpse of how his enthusiasm for cracking down crimes and proving himself has not diminished in the slightest. Even though he is no longer handsome and his glory no longer exists, even if all he has left is a plump body with a bulging waistline and very few muscles and a slick iconic hairstyle that has visibly thinned, nothing can extinguish his heroic spirit for safeguarding world justice and peace. Fancy this spirited middle-aged superhero? Enrich your treasured collections and enhance your home ambiance with the Master Craft series presented by Beast Kingdom. This 1/4 Scale statue stands 17" tall with a base that's 13" across. (STL091788) Item has been previously solicited in New to Order. Scheduled to ship in September 2018. WARHAMMER CHRONICLES: MASTERS OF STEEL AND STONE SC

(W) Nick Kyme

The dwarfs are a stoic and long-lived race. Their unbending will and pride serve them as fearsome warriors on the battlefield and the greatest craftsmen across the Old World. But cross them at your peril, as a dwarf grudge is never forgotten, a quest for revenge handed down from generation to generation until the debt is settled in blood. In this action-packed omnibus, the bravery and resilience of the dwarfs is brought to life as they wage war against the twisted powers of Chaos, vile skaven ratmen, brutal orcs, cunning goblins and their oldest adversaries, the mysterious and powerful elves. Contains the novels Grudgebearer, Oathbreaker, Honourkeeper, and The Doom of Dragonback. (STL088151) (C: 0-0-1)

WARHAMMER: THE REALMGATE WARS VOLUME 2 SC

(W) C. L. Werner

Bound into a huge omnibus edition, the second volume in the Realmgate Wars saga, the epic conflict that defined Games Workshop's newest fantasy setting: the Age of Sigmar. In every corner of the Mortal Realms, vile forces of evil cast their darkness. Sigmar has yet to regain control over the Realmgates, and the black night of corruption seems unending. For Sigmar's order to prevail, his mighty heroes, the Stormcast Eternals, must reignite former bonds, consort with unlikely allies, and prepare to conquer even themselves. Only when all those who seek to oppress the rule of Order are crushed shall the stars of the Mortal Realms blaze once again. This volume contains six novels from the Realmgate Wars saga: Warbeast, Call of Archaon, Fury of Gork, Bladestorm, Mortarch of Night, and Lord of Undeath. (STL088162)

WARHAMMER 40K: WATCHERS OF THE THRONE SC

(W) Chris Wraight

The Custodian Guard have stood watch over the Emperor's Palace on Terra since the foundation of the Imperium. Charged with protecting the Master of Mankind from all threats, within and without, their fearsome resolve is renowned throughout the galaxy, and their golden armor is the last thing that a would-be assassin or saboteur will ever see. Alongside the Null-maidens of the Sisters of Silence, who are anathema to psykers and sorcerers alike, there is no threat to the Golden Throne that they alone cannot vanquish... until now. WARHAMMER 40K: OF HONOUR AND IRON SC

(W) Ian St. Martin

The age of the Dark Imperium has begun, and the human race is poised on the brink of ruin. In their darkest hour, the Emperor's servants have achieved the impossible: the resurrection of the Primarch Roboute Guilliman. Now Lord Commander of the Imperium of Man, Guilliman marshals his forces in a desperate effort to drive back the predations of Chaos: the Indomitus Crusade. Dispatched ahead of the bulk of Guilliman's war fleets, Chaplain Helios of the Ultramarines is entrusted by the risen primarch with a mission of vital importance. Will he achieve a crucial victory for Guilliman in time, or will a millennia-old obsession spell his doom? And just what manner of weapons will be needed to wage the war to save mankind? (STL088152)

WARHAMMER 40K: INFERNO VOLUME 1 SC

(W) Josh Reynolds

A new collection of short stories, penned by debut and established authors, showcasing the best works from across Black Library's many universes. This collection showcases some of the best new works from across Games Workshop's many universes; from the grim darkness of the 41st millennium, to the brutal underhive of Necromunda, through to the sprawling realms of the Age of Sigmar, and the savage sports fields of Blood Bowl. Featuring stories from Josh Reynolds and a new fantasy from Guy Haley, this anthology is a brutal, gritty, and occasionally fun, dash through some of Black Library's newest short fiction. WARHAMMER 40K: OUTER DARK SC

(W) Robbie MacNiven

The Carcharodons ply the dark areas of space, endlessly hunting down the enemies of mankind. Living on the edge, with no fixed base of operations, they are creatures shaped by their environment, renowned for their ruthlessness and their brutality. With a fresh wave of tyranid hive fleets approaching the galactic plane, the Carcharodons decide to use the world of Piety V as a bulwark. If they can stop the xenos here, they will be able to end the menace before it begins. But as they mobilise the planet's defenders and fight the tyranids, the Carcharodons come to learn what the value of mankind truly is. (STL088153)

WARHAMMER 40K: SAVIOUR OF THE IMPERIUM SC

(W) Sandy Mitchell

In the grim darkness of the 41st millennium, mankind's mighty Imperium is threatened on all sides by its enemies — brutal orks, ravening tyranid hordes, and the corrupt armies of Chaos. Many are the heroes who stand at the forefront of this endless fight against evil, but few names conjure up as much awe and respect as the legendary commissar Ciaphas Cain. When all seems lost, Cain, his trusty but malodorous aide Jurgen, and the Valhallan 597th, can always be relied upon to ride to the rescue and save the day! With their thrills and spills, and tongue in cheek humour, the Ciaphas Cain novels offer a unique vision of the Warhammer 40,000 universe. Contains the novels The Emperor's Finest, The Last Ditch, and The Greater Good, the novella Old Soldiers Never Die, along with a number of additional short stories. (STL088154)

ATTACK ON TITAN: DECK BUILDING GAME CORE SET

The last human city is under attack by giant, fearsome Titans — and it's up to your team to stop them! Based on the action from the world-renowned Attack on Titan anime and manga series, you and your fellow players must battle relentless Titans for humanity's very survival in this cooperative deck-building game. Collect the weapons and tactics you need, then test your mettle on the wall before it's too late! Play as Eren, Mikasa, Armin, and many others as you struggle to keep the Titans at bay! (STL091286) (C: 0-1-2) NOTE: Available only within the United States and U.S. Territories.

Deck Game $40.00

ATTACK ON TITAN: THE LAST STAND TACTICAL BOARD GAME

It's all come down to this! Titans have broken through Wall Maria and are heading for the supply depot in Trost. If the depot falls, all the resources needed to continue fighting off these monstrous aberrations will be destroyed — and all hope for the last remnants of mankind will be lost! It's up to you and your team to fend off and fell the Titans before they can succeed! Are you ready for the last stand? Play as your favorite Attack on Titan character — or as the Titan — in this thrilling, tactical board game! (STL091287) (C: 0-1-2) NOTE: Available only within the United States and U.S. Territories.

Board Game $40.00

RICK AND MORTY: MR. MEESEEKS' GAME OF DICE AND DARES DICE GAME

Do you have a problem that needs fixing and you just don't know where to start? Perhaps there's some task that's beneath you. Then, why not hit the button on your Meeseeks' Box, summon up a Meeseeks (or three or eight), and let them help you out? That's their purpose! They want you to succeed — and only get slightly angry if you don't! In this Rick and Morty Dice & Dares Game, players draw Request cards ("Make Me a Sandwich" or "I Want to be a More Complete Woman"), then roll dice and see if they complete the Request. If not, press the button and summon Mr. Meeseeks to help you out. He wants to help. He hates his existence. As soon as your Request is completed, he can cease to exist and everything will be just grand. But, don't disappoint Mr. Meeseeks. He will make you do all sorts of embarrassing and foolish things. That is, if he doesn't simply kill you off! (STL091351) (C: 0-1-2) NOTE: Not available in Australia.

Dice Game $40.00

RICK AND MORTY: ANATOMY PARK TILE GAME

Welcome to Anatomy Park! Based on the popular episode of Rick and Morty, this hilarious, competitive tile-placing strategy game takes place within the body of Ruben, the homeless department store Santa! In Rick and Morty: Anatomy Park: The Game, you and your fellow players will be designing the Park, vying for the best spots, and shifting internal organs around to suit your needs. Unfortunately, Ruben is not the most stable host out there, so time (and Ruben) may expire before you know it! (STL091356) (C: 0-1-2) NOTE: Available only within the United States and U.S. Territories.

Tile Game $30.00

RICK AND MORTY DECK BUILDING GAME: CLOSE RICK COUNTERS

Wubba Lubba Dub Dub! Take down the Council of Ricks before they get too annoying and self-righteous in this exciting Rick and Morty-themed deck-building game based on the bizarre, dimension-hopping episode, "Close Rick-Counters of the Rick Kind." Card Game $40.00

RICK AND MORTY: TOTAL RICKALL CARD GAME

Rick has locked the family inside their house. Why? Because the family has grown. Parasites masquerading as family and close friends have infiltrated and inserted pleasant memories into everyone's minds to make them think they're real. And more keep coming! You must figure out which of these new, zany characters are real and which ones are parasites that need to be exterminated. Think you've got what it takes to save the world? The Total Rickall Cooperative Card Game is based on the Rick and Morty episode of the same name. (STL091359) (C: 0-1-2) NOTE: Available only within the United States and U.S. Territories.

MARVEL DICE MASTERS: X-MEN FOREVER CAMPAIGN BOX

The Marvel Dice Masters: X-Men Forever Campaign Box is the latest Dice Masters launch to roll into your local shop. X-Men Forever brings classic X-Men back to the spotlight; whether you're a fan of Wolverine or Cyclops, there's something here for you. With more than a dozen different X-Men to choose from, youll have tons of options to customize your team of X-Men for the job at hand! Some of the X-Men's most dangerous foes show up too, including characters never-before-seen in Dice Masters like Donald Pierce, Lady Deathstrike, and Mastermind! Players can pit the X-Men against the Brotherhood or Hellfire Club or mix them together for a blend of righteousness and villainy. This release is perfect for beginners and Dice Masters veterans alike. Even if you've never read X-Men comics, this is an exciting entry point to the adventures of Xavier's top students! TOPPS 2018 FIVE STAR BASEBALL TRADING CARDS

Maintaining its two-card boxes, the Hobby-only 2018 Topps Five Star Baseball has no room for filler! Collectors can look forward to just on-card autographs or cut signatures in the premium MLB product. With up to 80 signers, the main portion of the 2018 Topps Five Star Baseball checklist is the Five Star Base Autographs line. Mixing in different ink colors, both the Golden Graphs and Silver Signatures inserts display autographs using art paint pens. Not to be outdone, fans can chase jumbo swatches via the numbered Five Star Autographed Jumbo Patch cards. And the only cards in the checklist not hard-signed, Five Star Cut Signature (1/1) honors some of the all-time MLB greats, while the Five Star Celebrity Cut Signature set is for the non-baseball stars. 2 cards per pack, 1 pack per box. (STL091162) Item has been previously solicited in New to Order. (C: 1-1-1) NOTE: Available only in the United States, Canada, and U.S. Territories.

Pack $149.99

TOPPS 2018 UPDATE SERIES BASEBALL TRADING CARDS

Marking the end of the flagship line for the '18 season, 2018 Topps Update Series Baseball goes big on the MLB rookies and trades to fill out the roster. Joining Series 1 and Series 2, 2018 Topps Update Series Baseball brings 300 more base cards to the flagship mix. The familiar parallel lineup is also in play. Continuing a few insert lines while sprinkling in some new choices, the checklist is anything but small! Box formats include Hobby, with one autograph or relic, and Hobby Jumbo, which contains one autograph and two relics per box. An added incentive for collectors, Update is part of the Silver Pack 1983 Chrome promo that rewards box purchases with free packs. Each Hobby box is good for one pack, while Jumbo earns two. 10 cards per pack, 36 packs per box. 50 cards per jumbo pack, 10 packs per box. (STL091163) Item has been previously solicited in New to Order. (C: 1-1-2) NOTE: Available only in the United States, Canada, and U.S. Territories.
